

THE WEATHER

Rain tonight and Friday morning, followed by clearing. Cooler Friday evening and night; light northerly to easterly winds, increasing.

ESTABLISHED 1878

THE LOWELL SUN

5 O'CLOCK

LOWELL MASS. THURSDAY OCTOBER 29 1908

PRICE ONE CENT

ALLEGED CRUELTY CHILDREN'S DAY

John B. Clancy in Police Court on That Charge

Small Boys Have Been Stealing From Department Stores—Lively Time on Lower Middlesex Street

John B. Clancy, the well known expressman, whose stand is in Market street next to the police station, and his son, John, are in trouble again. It is the same old trouble—crucifixion to a horse, and the same old complaint—Assault and Battery on the Lowell Humane Society. Mr. Clancy and his son were before the court on similar offenses a few months ago and as a result the horse was sent to the rendering works and John B. purchased a new horse, but now it seems that the present animal is unfit for use. Hence the new complaint.

John B. and his son were arraigned in police court this morning, the former charged with having charge and custody of a certain animal which he knowingly and wilfully authorized and permitted to be subjected to unnecessary suffering.

"What do you say to the complaint, Mr. Clancy?" asked Assistant Clerk Trull.

"I plead not guilty and want to have the case continued until a week from tomorrow, said Mr. Clancy. Sr. 'I also wish to make a motion that I get a copy of specific charges preferred by the government.'"

"You will get them," said the court. "Well, I want a copy in the meantime."

"You can have a copy," Judge Hadley decided to postpone the hearing of the case till next Wednesday and Mr. Clancy asked: "Will the court give me the middle day, Thursday?" The court wouldn't, however, and Clancy was held under $200 bonds for his appearance next Wednesday.

John Clancy, the son, was charged in the first complaint with cruelly driving a horse unfit for labor, it being lame and feeble and in the second complaint with cruelly beating a horse. He also entered a plea of not guilty.

"I also want a copy of the specific charges in that case," shouted Mr. Clancy, Sr.

"You will have all the copies you want," returned the court.

The son was also held under $200 bonds for his appearance next Wednesday.

Patrolman Gilbert Sheridan, who patrols the lower part of Middlesex street, was kept rather busy last night, and succeeded in arresting three men. All three were drunk, one being helplessly drunk, while the other two were creating a disturbance.

Michael J. Cummings, who claims Pawtucket, R. I., as his home, blew into Lowell yesterday afternoon and, feeling rather thirsty, visited a few of the thrice extinguishing parlors in Middlesex street. Shortly after 8 o'clock he attempted to ramble along the sidewalk on the northern side of the street, and according to his ignoring, he was headed directly east, but he finally fell and was unable to get up.

In court this morning Cummings denied the allegation that he was intoxicated. He said he had but one drink, but appearances were against him. The court imposed a fine of $2, whereupon Cummings said: "I ain't got a cent." He will spend the next eight days in jail.

While the patrol wagon was passing Towlers' corner, Patrolman Sheridan noticed a large crowd about the postoffice, and stopping the wagon rushed up to the postoffice where he found a man in his shirt-sleeves, who was looking for sight. The sight of the officer, however, took all the fight out of him, and after a night in a cell he felt much better this morning.

In court he gave his name as James Dolan and said he hailed from Worcester. He was fined the usual $2, it being his first appearance before the court.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Patrolman Sheridan was informed that a big, burly fellow was cleaning out Appleton street, and an investigation brought to light Helmar Linstead of Chelmsford Centre.

Patrolman Sheridan, who patrols the lower part of Middlesex street, was kept rather busy last night, and succeeded in arresting three men. All three were drunk, one being helplessly drunk, while the other two were creating a disturbance.

Michael J. Cummings, who claims Pawtucket, R. I., as his home, blew into Lowell yesterday afternoon and, feeling rather thirsty, visited a few of the thrice extinguishing parlors in Middlesex street. Shortly after 8 o'clock he attempted to ramble along the sidewalk on the northern side of the street, and according to his ignoring, he was headed directly east, but he finally fell and was unable to get up.

In court this morning Cummings denied the allegation that he was intoxicated. He said he had but one drink, but appearances were against him. The court imposed a fine of $2, whereupon Cummings said: "I ain't got a cent." He will spend the next eight days in jail.

While the patrol wagon was passing Towlers' corner, Patrolman Sheridan noticed a large crowd about the postoffice, and stopping the wagon rushed up to the postoffice where he found a man in his shirt-sleeves, who was looking for sight. The sight of the officer, however, took all the fight out of him, and after a night in a cell he felt much better this morning.

In court he gave his name as James Dolan and said he hailed from Worcester. He was fined the usual $2, it being his first appearance before the court.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Patrolman Sheridan was informed that a big, burly fellow was cleaning out Appleton street, and an investigation brought to light Helmar Linstead of Chelmsford Centre.

Patrolman Sheridan, who patrols the lower part of Middlesex street, was kept rather busy last night, and succeeded in arresting three men. All three were drunk, one being helplessly drunk, while the other two were creating a disturbance.

Michael J. Cummings, who claims Pawtucket, R. I., as his home, blew into Lowell yesterday afternoon and, feeling rather thirsty, visited a few of the thrice extinguishing parlors in Middlesex street. Shortly after 8 o'clock he attempted to ramble along the sidewalk on the northern side of the street, and according to his ignoring, he was headed directly east, but he finally fell and was unable to get up.

In court this morning Cummings denied the allegation that he was intoxicated. He said he had but one drink, but appearances were against him. The court imposed a fine of $2, whereupon Cummings said: "I ain't got a cent." He will spend the next eight days in jail.

While the patrol wagon was passing Towlers' corner, Patrolman Sheridan noticed a large crowd about the postoffice, and stopping the wagon rushed up to the postoffice where he found a man in his shirt-sleeves, who was looking for sight. The sight of the officer, however, took all the fight out of him, and after a night in a cell he felt much better this morning.

Local Parochial School Children at Boston Celebration

Today is Children's Day at the celebration of the centenary of the foundation of the diocese of Boston. The observance today while not of any special significance, was a feature of the celebration, for the fact that the musical program given at the mass was furnished by the congregation of children. The archbishop, a short time ago, issued an invitation to the pastors of the different churches in the diocese, asking them to select several pupils from their respective parochial schools to take an active part in the mass on Children's Day at the Cathedral. The children sang hymns, and parts of the mass, and the list comprises the well known hymns of the Catholic church. The mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Patterson, vicar general, and the sermon was delivered by Rev. George Lyons, superintendent of schools.

The schools of St. Patrick's parish sent delegations to Boston this morning. The male academy was represented by twelve boys of the sanctuary choir, the Notre Dame academy by the graduating class, and the parson's school by the highest grade.

The choir boys were accompanied by Brother Raphael, director of the choir, and Brother John, of the teaching staff of the school. The girls were accompanied by the Sisters of the Notre Dame.

The party in charge of the recital of church music which will be held this evening in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.

The party of girls returned to Lowell after the mass. The pupils of the schools of the parish enjoyed a holiday today, with the exception of the Notre Dame academy, in honor of the event.

The Holy Name society of St. Patrick's parish will hold its first drill this evening before participating in the monster parade in Boston next Sunday. The drill this evening will be followed by a smoke ball in the school hall. The men who intend to take part in the demonstration in Boston should attend the meeting this evening and procure their pins, badges and transportation tickets, if they have not already done so. The spiritual director would consider it a favor if the men who are going to take part in the parade would procure these articles so that he can give an estimate of the number of men who will turn out.

St. Patrick's parochial residence has been decorated and presents an attractive appearance.

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school went to Boston, today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent.

St. Michael's

REV. SARAH DIXON Tendered Farewell Reception Last Night

Rev. Sarah A. Dixon, former associate pastor of the First Trinitarian Congregational church was given a farewell reception in the church vestry last night, and many of her friends outside of the church attended the reception. In the receiving line with Rev. Miss Dixon and Miss Susan A. Gardner, who will accompany her on her trip to England, were the following: Rev. and Mrs. George F. Kennigott; Deacon and Mrs. O. A. Brigham; Charles H. Richardson, chairman of the board of trustees; and Albert A. Ludwig, superintendent of the Sunday school.

REV. SARAH A. DIXON.

The ushers were Dr. H. H. Sumner, Messrs. Charles H. Clogston, Edward Marrant, Herbert Hope, Walter Muzzey, O. C. Fyfe and E. H. Sumbury. The reception rooms were prettily decorated and the serving tables were decorated with the soft light of the shaded electric bulbs.

The following ladies presided at the tables: Mrs. Albert E. Swapp and Mrs. William I. Wiggin; Mrs. Walter Muzzey and Mrs. Rose Cashin; Mrs. H. H. Sumner and Mrs. James Stuart; Mrs. F. Garland, F. Y. Morse and Mrs. C. F. Garland.

A feature of the occasion was the presentation to Miss Dixon of eight ten-dollar gold pieces. The presentation was by Mr. Charles H. Richardson. Miss Dixon replied feelingly and with deep appreciation.

Jas. E. Donnelly will sing at the Bachelors', Friday, Oct. 30.

SERVICE HELD

IN MEMORY OF LATE GERMAN AMBASSADOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Beautiful memorial services attended by a brilliant assemblage of representatives of all branches of official life in Washington were held today in memory of the late Freiherr Speck von Sternburg, German ambassador to the United States who died at Heidelberg, Aug. 23. President and Mrs. Roosevelt, members of his cabinet, diplomatic representatives of all nations, members of the supreme court, of the army, navy and marine corps were present.

The services were held in Cordia Evangelical Lutheran church, which was attended by the baron during his residence here. The service was conducted in part in German by Rev. Paul Menzel, pastor of Concordia church and part in English by Rev. Roland Smith, rector of St. John's church.

Freilrau Speck von Sternburg, widow of the late baron, and her mother, Mrs. Langham of Louisville, Ky., were present.

Rev. Mr. Smith delivered an address in English which related chiefly to the family relations and personal character of the deceased. An address in German by Rev. Mr. Menzel treated upon the remarkable diplomatic career of the late ambassador.

FUNERAL NOTICES

ODDIE—Died in this city, Oct. 27, at the Lowell General Hospital, Mrs. Martha Oddie, wife of John T. Oddie, residing at 71 Vermont avenue, Braintree, aged 55 years. Funeral from the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends and relatives invited.

FITZGERALD—Nellie Fitzgerald, infant child of Patrick and Nellie Fitzgerald died this morning at their home, 11 Manning place, off Salem street. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon and burial was in St. Peter's cemetery. C. H. Molloy & Sons undertakers.

GILES—Mrs. Frances T. Giles, widow of the late James T. Giles, died last night at the Lowell General Hospital, aged 83 years. She was born in Lowell. She lived at 81 Holyrood avenue and was a member of the Eliot Congregational church. She leaves to mourn her passing, son, Everett T. Giles. Funeral notice later.

HAYES—William B. Hayes, aged 55 years, died this morning at his home, 121 Chapel street. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Anne Hayes, four sisters, Mrs. Lawrence C. Hayes, Mrs. Josephine and Alice of this city, and four brothers, Cornelius and John of Burlington, Vt., Edward of this city, and Thomas, who is employed at the Harvard Brewing company. The funeral will take place on Saturday at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker Higgins in charge.

Biggest hall, best music at "Cheestnuts."

DROPPED FROM EXHAUSTION

Lauria Perrie, a woman who has kept at work despite the fact that she is in ill health, dropped from exhaustion at her work at the Hamilton mill this morning. The ambulance removed her to her home, 158 Lawrence street.

It is in every respect

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEW/DAFER

WANT MORE MONEY

School Department Wants $100,000; Charity $15,000

The city is about to get a touch for $137,151 and perhaps a few thousand more.

The school department wants $100,000; the charity department $15,000 and the health department $12,151.50. Other departments may be heard from later.

The committee on appropriations will meet this evening at 8 o'clock and will listen to what the heads of these departments have to say about the amounts for which they have asked.

As to the charity department, Supt. Courtney said this forenoon: "If the board of charities pulls through with the $15,000 for which we have asked,

$85,000, this year the board will be deserv- ing of a whole lot of credit. This has been the toughest year that we have had for several years and $85,000 of running this department. The appropriations committee at the first of the year gave us $70,000 and then unable to foresee the great demand that would fall upon the department later in the year, there wasn't a member of the committee who believed that $70,000 would pull us through. The committee knew and said that we would undoubtedly ask for more money and we will have to go some to get by with the $15,000 for which we have asked."

A PRIZE DRILL BITTEN BY DOG

Was Held by Co. C Last Night

A prize drill and entertainment under the auspices of Company C, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., was held at the state armory in Westford street, last night and the members of the company and invited guests spent an enjoyable evening.

A short company drill was held during the early part of the evening, after which the prize drill was held. The prizes were two cups presented by Corp. Harold Patten. Each cup is to be competed for three times this year. The first cup was for privates of more than one year's experience in the state service and the second cup was for privates with less than one year's experience.

When the squads appeared on the floor it took the three judges, Sergeants, Berry, Dumey and Linscott, many long minutes before any decision could be reached.

Private George Davidson, of basketball fame, won the cup for more than a year's experience, while Private William Silex, another of the company's athletes, took the other cup. The two winners were the recipients of many hearty congratulations.

Following the drill the members and guests repaired to the company quarters where they listened to some excellent singing by Private Burns and others by Second Lieut. Rivet, U. S. Corp. Brock and others. Afterward refreshments were served. Other similar events will be held during the year.

DEATHS

LAVOIE—Rev. Fr. Theophile Lavoie, O. M. I., formerly attached to St. Joseph's parish in this city, died Monday at the Hotel-Dieu in Montreal, aged 71 years. He had been for 54 years a priest, and had been at one time superior of the Oblate houses of Plattsburg and Buffalo, N. Y. He had been stationed in Lowell between the years 1892 and 1895, and was then universally loved and esteemed among St. Joseph's parishioners, who still remember him with affection. He retired from active service three years ago and spent this last time of his life at the Oblate monastery at Lachine. He was buried at Lachine yesterday.

BREAULT—Eliot Breault, an old French American resident, and father of the well-known police officer, Eliot Breault, died at his home, 71 Beaulieu street, late yesterday afternoon. He was 75 years, 6 months old, and had been for 43 years a resident of Lowell.

He leaves three sons, Eliot N. and Gilbert of Lowell, and Joseph of Haverhill, and five daughters, Mrs. Elzeur Breault, of Canada, Mrs. Mollie Lemieux of Chicago, and Mrs. Victor Rheault, Mrs. Olivier Outmet and Miss Marie Breault of Lowell. He was a member of L'Union St. Joseph.

FITZGERALD—Nellie Fitzgerald, infant child of Patrick and Nellie Fitzgerald died this morning at their home, 11 Manning place, off Salem street. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon and burial was in St. Peter's cemetery. C. H. Molloy & Sons undertakers.

GILES—Mrs. Frances T. Giles, widow of the late James T. Giles, died last night at the Lowell General Hospital, aged 83 years. She was born in Lowell. She lived at 81 Holyrood avenue and was a member of the Eliot Congregational church. She leaves to mourn her passing, son, Everett T. Giles. Funeral notice later.

HAYES—William B. Hayes, aged 55 years, died this morning at his home, 121 Chapel street. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Anne Hayes, four sisters, Mrs. Lawrence C. Hayes, Mrs. Josephine and Alice of this city, and four brothers, Cornelius and John of Burlington, Vt., Edward of this city, and Thomas, who is employed at the Harvard Brewing company. The funeral will take place on Saturday at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker Higgins in charge.

Biggest hall, best music at "Cheestnuts."

DROPPED FROM EXHAUSTION

Lauria Perrie, a woman who has kept at work despite the fact that she is in ill health, dropped from exhaustion at her work at the Hamilton mill this morning. The ambulance removed her to her home, 158 Lawrence street.

It is in every respect

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEW/DAFER

NOT IN BARROOM

LAKEVIEW AVE. FIRE STARTED

IN VACANT TENEMENT

In the stacks of the first fire that was investigated in this city by the fire marshal of Lawrence, it was inadvertently stated that the fire in the building at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Coburn streets started in a barroom on the lower floor of the building. The fire did not start in the barroom, but in a vacant tenement on the same floor with the barroom.

LAKEVIEW AVE. FIRE STARTED

IN VACANT TENEMENT

In the stacks of the first fire that was investigated in this city by the fire marshal of Lawrence, it was inadvertently stated that the fire in the building at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Coburn streets started in a barroom on the lower floor of the building. The fire did not start in the barroom, but in a vacant tenement on the same floor with the barroom.

HALL TO LET

The hall in the Harrington building, 52 Central street, will be vacated December 1st. For further particulars inquire at THE SUN OFFICE.

Interest Begins Saturday, Nov. 7

at

THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK

58 CENTRAL ST.

INCORPORATED 1829
THE OLD LOWELL SAVINGS BANK
INTEREST BEGINS NOVEMBER 7
181 SHATTUCK ST. LOWELL

A RUSHING BUSINESS

Superior Court Disposes of Ninety Cases

Clerk Ralph Smith of the superior court bids fair to excel his unprecedented record for the volume of business transacted at a session of the superior court made in Lowell at a recent session of the court, at the term now being held at the court house.

The session opened three weeks and three days ago with 169 cases on the list and in the short time that court has been in session, 90 cases have been disposed of, either by trial or settlement, while several more have been referred to auditors.

Yesterday Clerk Smith, who is a stickler for short lists, that is cases ready for trial at a moment's notice, prepared a short list of eight cases, all of which were ready for trial, but within 24 hours were settled, one continued by reason of counsel being engaged in Cambridge, one referred to an auditor and one ready for trial.

The case ready for trial was that of Leda Proulx, administratrix of the estate of Celestin Proulx who on March 2, 1905, while employed by the J. W. Bishop construction company in tearing down one of the buildings of the Bigelow carpet company met with an accident which resulted in his death on March 16. The widow sues to recover $5000. The jury was empaneled but when the case was opened it was discovered that some important witnesses were absent and a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

During the morning recess as it would be impossible to call another case later Judge White excused all jurors not sitting on the Proulx case until Wednesday for the court does not sit on election day. When the Proulx jury has reported it also will be excused until Wednesday.

The case of Chamberlain vs. Boston & Northern which was on trial yesterday was settled before the conclusion of the trial. J. J. O'Connor appeared for the plaintiff.

The case of O'Dowd vs. Bunker & Hennessy to recover for the heating of the old Rollaway building in Hard street and for certain repairs in the building which was on the short list was this morning referred to Nathan D. Pratt as auditor. John J. Harvey for the plaintiff and Messrs. Howard and Hennessy for the defendants.

Re alive, "Cheestnuts" tomorrow night.

MINERAL PRODUCTS VALUABLE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—A grand total of $2,463,288,496 worth of mineral products in the United States is announced in the statistical summary for the calendar year 1907 issued today by the geological survey. Of this amount $1,168,165,191 were non-metallic, $903,024,003 metallic and $100,000 non-specified. The mineral products for the previous year aggregated $1,994,097,034.

"Cheestnuts" Calumet Orch., Friday night.

228 yds. from the "Sewer." "Cheestnuts."

LOST—Rubber tire off baby carriage, near Braut's ledge. Reward at 122 Main street.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

NOTICE!

The Halloween party which was to be held in O. U. A. M. hall, Middle St., tomorrow night, by the undersigned young men, has been transferred to Lincoln hall, Gorham St.

JOHN F. POWERS,
JOHN J. O'ROURKE,
JOSEPH A. MOLLOY,
JOHN F. SALMON,
WILLIAM O'BRIEN.

AMES ON THE RUN

Republican Candidate Sees the Handwriting

The friends of Mr. Ames are very busy these days trying to tell the voters that Mr. Ames had nothing to do with the fake convention of democrats which tried to foist him on the democratic voters but no one believes that these things were done without his consent or connivance.

Men do not sell themselves out except for a consideration. Who had an interest in this matter? Who was the one to benefit by this trick? What was the consideration given these men to betray their party which trusted them? No one believes that these things were done excepting with the full knowledge and consent of Mr. Ames. If he had no hand in this illegal convention why did he not repudiate it and the men who were responsible for it? Why did he send his attorney before the Ballot Law commission to have the fake convention legalized? Mr. Ames cannot deny his connection with these men. It is useless to attempt to deny it.

Certain well known republicans were not surprised to learn that an attempt had been made to steal the convention when the report of the meeting appeared in the papers for they had been informed some time before that the congressmen would "get" the democratic nomination.

This has been a silent year for Lowell in the legislature for the only Lowell men who have been heard from in the state house this year were the three democrats. In fact some of the republicans cut so small a figure that one has to think twice to recall just who the republican representatives are. This is painfully true of the 14th district which includes Ward one and Dracut. Fortunately for the district the democrats have come to its rescue by placing in nomination a man of ability and address, Mr. John P. Farley, who, if elected, will at least impress upon the legislature the fact that at last the district has a live man as its representative.

Tuesday evening's rally renewed the interest in the state campaign and the municipal candidates are temporarily forgotten. The reception, accorded both Messrs. Valley and Flynn was of the old fashioned democratic order and raised their hopes materially. Mr. Flynn, who was elected to the house and senate in republican districts by majorities reaching 2000, assured the voters that his majority in the lower end of the district on next Tuesday will be the greatest he has ever received and that if he received the full democratic strength from Lowell he would be elected. There is no reason either personal or political that should turn any democratic voter from Mr. Flynn, not even the reason some times given by Ames supporters that Ames presented flags to all the local societies or that he allowed the free use of his grounds to local societies and every democratic voter should register his vote for Hon. Joseph J. Flynn on election day. It is many years since the district elected a democratic congressman and the democrats have not had such a good opportunity in a decade as they have at the present time.

Congressman Ames is said to be about to start on a smoke talk and what party campaign which would indicate the spirit of desperation.

Representative James E. O'Donnell made a most favorable impression at the democratic rally Tuesday evening and his one of the men on the stage aptly remarked: "He said more in the couple of minutes allotted to him than his opponent has been heard to say through out his political career."

The labor man who to defeat Draper will vote for Osgood is only cutting off his nose to spite his face, as the old saying goes. A vote for the independence league is a vote for Draper in this campaign and the only way to defeat Draper, the man who will not allow a member of a labor union to work in his factory, is to vote for Hon. James H. Yabuy.

"Hister, Got any voting cards?"

Oct. 27 in sum of $106 and over were announced at democratic headquarters as follows:
Samuel Untermyer, New York, $120;
J. Sergeant Cran, New York, $150;
William Tripp of Maine contributed $10.

SELL DRESS GOODS

WOOLEN COMPANY TO MAKE NEW DEPARTURE

The following item from Fibre and Fabric for October will be of local interest:

Mr. William M. Wood, president of the American Woollen Company, informs Fibre and Fabric that while that large concern is not specially organizing new departments for the sale of dress goods, it is true that it intends to extend its business to take in the large dress goods jobbers of the country and place before them fabrics which the company has already made or will make suitable for their purposes. "These fabrics," says Mr. Wood, "are classed as dress goods of a staple character, and to that extent it means a departure from our previous position of selling only the more wearing trade and the so-called 'cutting-up' women's wear trade."

The buyers of dress goods will welcome the entry of the American Woollen Company into this field.

It means an influx of new men, new ideas and new methods, which will undoubtedly prove successful. It means also, of course, strong competition with such concerns as the Arlington Mills, the Pacific Mills and others, but it will be a competition which in the long run will not be harmful to the industry. The American Woollen Company is well equipped for the successful manufacture of staple dress goods, and its "departure" can hardly be otherwise than beneficial to itself and productive of good to others.

COAL TRUST

HEARING IN SUIT FOR ITS DISSOLUTION

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—The hearing of the government suit for the dissolution of the so-called coal trust was resumed here today before C. H. Gilbert as examiner. W. R. Taylor, secretary of the Philadelphia and Reading R. R. Co. was the first witness. Questioned by James McCreynolds, special assistant U. S. attorney general, Mr. Taylor told of the relations existing between the Philadelphia and Reading R. R. Co. and the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co. and the Reading Co. the latter a holding concern. Mr. Taylor said the Coal and Iron Co. had never paid a dividend but that the railway had in 1902 paid to the holding company 15 per cent. for two years thereafter twenty per cent. and during the last two years 25 per cent. a year. "The coal and iron company," he says, "is indebted to the railway company to the extent of $500,000 which credit was inherited from the old Reading Co. which was sold by the sheriff in 1898."

Mr. Taylor denied that the Reading Railway Co. owned any coal stock and said the Reading Co. was interested in several subsidiary companies.

"RUBE" KENNISTON

PITCHER OF LOWELL BALL TEAM MARRIED

ROCKLAND, Me., Oct. 29.—Edward J. Kenniston, who has been one of the pitchers on the Lowell baseball team of the New England League the past two seasons, was married here last night to Flora G. O'Brien. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's cousin and was private. City Clerk A. W. Denney officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Napoleon O'Brien of Biddeford and is a young woman of remarkable beauty.

ELECTION RESULT FLASHED FROM WORLD'S HIGHEST BUILDING

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—If the weather conditions are favorable 7,000,000 people in New York and its environs will get the first news of the definite result of the election on the night of November 3 by means of a searchlight flashed from the tower of the Metropolitan Life building. This tower is 658 feet tall, or 103 feet higher than the Washington monument, as shown by the comparison in this picture. It is estimated that the searchlight may be seen at a distance of sixty miles. The light will be the most powerful one ever seen in this country, having a radiance of 100,000 candle power. If the shaft of light points north, it will indicate Taft's election; if south, Bryan's. A flash to the west will indicate Governor Hughes' election, to the east Chandler's.

AFTER CANNON

W. C. T. U. WANTS HIM DEFEATED

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 29.—The National W. C. T. U. convention yesterday adopted with practical unanimity a resolution commending the efforts of the churches to defeat the re-election of Joseph G. Cannon as a member of congress.

SWEDISH CHURCH

OPENED ITS BAZAAR WITH LARGE ATTENDANCE

The Swedish M. E. church was the scene last night of the annual church bazaar. The attendance was large and the booths were well patronized. The fair opened with a concert and address by Rev. John T. Ullom, pastor of the Berean Methodist church.

The concert program was as follows: Hymn and invocation; piano solo, Miss Nellie Pilkington; song, Mr. Samuel J. Burt; reading, Miss Mabel Malloy; song, Mrs. W. H. McQuade; selection, male chorus; address, Rev. Mr. Ullom; duet, Mrs. W. H. McQuade and Mr. Samuel J. Burt; accompanist, Miss Minnie Burt.

The sales tables were arranged in good taste with the Swedish colors, and the young women of one table were dressed in Swedish costume. The women on the table committees were as follows: Ladies' Aid society table, Mrs. E. Nelson, Mrs. H. Lauren and Mrs. S. Phil. The table conducted by the young women was waited upon by Misses Pauline Salmonson, Lena Carlsson, Mattila Schindon, Eva Anderson and Florence Johnson.

The Chinese laundry was in charge of Miss Esther Phil and was well visited by patrons during the evening. Mrs. Hulda Horndall and Mrs. M. N. Swanson served ice cream, and a coffee table was waited upon by Mrs. Josephine Schindon and Mrs. M. Anderson. The candy and flower table did a large business and was in charge of Mrs. Eva Phil.

Another concert will be given tonight and the fair will continue tonight and tomorrow night.

PEERLESS FAIR

OPENED AT PRIMITIVE METHODIST CHURCH

The attendance on the second night of the Peerless fair at the Gorham Street Methodist church was almost as large as on the opening night. Last night the attractions were added to by a concert given by members of the choir of the First Presbyterian church.

The fair booths were prettily decorated and well patronized and the concert proved a very attractive feature. It was a Scotch concert as the following program doth tell: Selection, orchestra; song, "Annie Laurie," Mr. Robert Alvir; duet, "Reuben and Rachel," Miss Charlotte Mary Haskell and Herbert Burns; song, "Hurrah for the Highlands," Mr. John McLaren; song, "Bonnie Sweet Bessie," Miss Katherine Gordon; trio, "Ye Shepherds, Tell Me," Messrs. Muir, Smith and McLaren.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Man and a Woman Found in a Dying Condition

GREENFIELD, Mass., Oct. 29.—A double tragedy surrounded by mysterious circumstances, was enacted here last night. Benjamin E. Gaines, 39 years old, and Miss Harriet Mabel Wing, aged 29, were found in a dying condition from bullet wounds in front of the girl's boarding place, 11 Wells street. Neither was able to make any statement and both died leaving behind them a mystery. The police, however, believe that Gaines shot the girl and then killed himself, but no cause can be ascribed for the shooting. The tragedy was discovered by Miss Jennie Read, who, while passing the house, thought she heard groans, and upon investigation found the bodies of Gaines and Miss Wing. The girl was lying on the ground near the piazza from which she had, probably, fallen when shot, and Gaines was hanging over the piazza railing. A revolver was found on the piazza, not far from where Gaines was lying.

Medical Examiner George B. Twit-

chell was called and ordered the body of Miss Wing, who was then dead, taken to an undertaking establishment, while Gaines was rushed to the hospital. It was found that Miss Wing had three bullet wounds in her right breast, all very near together. Gaines was suffering from a bullet wound in the right temple. Immediately upon arriving at the hospital an operation was performed in the hope of extracting the bullet and saving his life, but this was unsuccessful, and he died about 10:30 last night.

No clue to the motive of the shooting can be learned. Both Miss Wing and Gaines were well known, popular and respected.

Gaines had been keeping company with Miss Wing for over a year and as near as can be learned there had been no quarrel between them. They were both of a particularly pleasant disposition and when they left their respective places of employment last night they appeared to be in the best of spirits.

BURGLARS FOILED

EXPLOSIVE LOCKED SAFE CASH DRAWER

ATTLEBORO, Oct. 29.—Although a party of burglars succeeded yesterday in blowing the outside and inside doors off the safe in the office of the grain mill of E. A. Briggs & Co. on Pleasant street, in this town, the explosives fastened the inside money chest so tight that the burglars were unable to get into it, and they were forced to make a hurried escape in an auto without getting a penny.

Although the break occurred about 2 o'clock in the morning the police were not notified until many hours later. William Thurber, who lived next to the grain mill, said that he was awakened by the sound of an explosion. Another explosion soon followed the first. A few minutes later he saw three men emerge from the office of the grain mill, enter an automobile and drive up Pleasant street in the direction of Norton. Thurber said he then went back to bed and did not think of the affair until late in the forenoon. When the members of the firm entered the office this morning they found that both outside and inside doors had been blown off the safe, but they did not notify the police until much later, having satisfied themselves that nothing had been stolen.

SEARCHED WOODS

FOR MISSING WALPOLE CHILD YESTERDAY

WALPOLE, Oct. 29.—Two hundred men and boys were searching the woods and swamps about this town yesterday in the hope of finding some trace of Emma, the three-year-old daughter of John Shender, who disappeared from her home on Norfolk street, about two miles from the centre of the town, yesterday afternoon. The town officials and state police are assisting in the search. It was thought that the child might have been kidnapped by a band of gypsies, who passed through here yesterday, but a thorough examination of the gypsy camp at Medfield today was without result. It is generally believed that the child wandered into what is known as cedar swamp near her home and it is feared that she was drowned in a mudhole.

CALUMET & HECLA

OLD CONTROVERSY IS RESUMED AGAIN

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Another chapter in the long drawn out controversy between the Calumet & Hecla Mining Co. and A. S. Bigelow and Godfrey S. Hyams over the control of certain shares of stock of the Osceola Mining Co. developed today in the filing in the United States circuit court for Massachusetts by counsel for Messrs. Bigelow and Hyams of a number of exceptions to the bill of complaint recently brought against them by the Calumet management. The defendants, Bigelow and Hyams, deny that they determined to do certain acts and things with intent to force the Calumet and Hecla officers to purchase the shares of the Osceola and other companies owned by them at exorbitant prices. Exception is also taken to the allegation that A. S. Bigelow concealed from the U. S. circuit court for Michigan the fact that he had been desirous of selling and had proposed to sell the Calumet & Hecla company his stock and the stock of his friends and associates in the Osceola Co. and other Michigan mining companies to the Calumet and Hecla. It is further denied that Mr. Bigelow concealed from the Michigan court for a number of years the fact that the "Lake Copper" was not the product of the Lake district of Michigan, but a mixture purchased of the Tamarack and other companies with electrolytic copper produced by certain mines in Montana.

LEROEY NOYES

WAS SENTENCED TO THE INSANE ASYLUM

CLINTON, Oct. 29.—After an examination by two physicians yesterday, Leroy D. Noyes of West Boylston, who confessed that he was possessed of a mania for setting fires, and that he had started several fires in Boylston recently, was ordered committed to the Worcester insane asylum. Noyes is 22 years old.

HER FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Miss Bernice Grace Rayner celebrated the fourth anniversary of her birth yesterday at the home of her parents, 20 Third street. Among those present were the Misses Margaret and Dorothy Adelaide Rayner of Avon; also her mother, Mrs. Edwin R. Rayner; her grandfather, Mrs. George Lorne; and her great grandmother, Mrs. George A. Gray, all of Lowell. Refreshments were served.

THAT RASCAL PAT

COMEDY PRESENTED AT HIGH-LAND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Penigewasset club of the Highland Congregational church presented "That Rascal Pat," a one-act comedy, last night, to a large and appreciative audience. The comedy followed a harvest supper given by the Ladies' Charitable society of the church.

The cast was as follows: "Pat McGonigerty," a handy servant, Walter E. Hadley; "Maj. Puffjacket," on half pay, Frank P. Holman; Chas. Livingstone, poor but ambitious, Harrison E. Byam; "Laura," niece to Puffjacket and in love with Chas., Miss Louise J. Bancroft; and "Nancy," Laura's maid, in love with Pat, Miss Lola L. Talbot. The little comedy was very well received and was creditably acted.

Miss Gertrude Varnum was chairman of the supper committee. She was assisted by Mrs. Frank H. Haynes, Mrs. Charles Fogg, Mrs. George W. Bagley, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. Clarence Bancroft, Mrs. Frank Hadley, Mrs. E. D. Livingston, Mrs. Walter Hadley, Mrs. S. P. Smith, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Boynton, Miss Gertrude Craven, and Miss George Clifford.

On the 18th of November the Men's league of the church will have a "New Hampshire" night. Last year a "Maine" night was held. All of those prominently connected with it were from the state of Maine. This year Granite Staters will have sway. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Dr. W. H. Bolster of Nashua, and Miss Hazel Chandler, also from New Hampshire, will read.

What the Kidneys Do

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 300 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Thos. Armstrong, living at 104 Worthen st., Lowell, Mass., says: "I have used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and can say that they have done me more good than any other remedy I have ever taken. The work I do is very trying on my back and at times I would get so lame that I could scarcely straighten. If I stooped or attempted to lift anything, sharp pains would seize me and make me miserable for the time being. After using various remedies without finding relief, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at Ellingwood & Co.'s drug store. They cured me promptly and I have since recommended them to my friends."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MAKE MONEY

—BY—

SAVING COAL

The Hustler

Ash Sifter

Will sift ashes thoroughly, save all the coal and there will be no dust in the cellar.

GALVANIZED IRON ASH CANS

Several styles and prices.

COAL HODS

HAND SIFTERS WITH COVERS

BARTLETT & DOW

216 Central Street.

CAMPAIGN FUND

Over $40,000 Received at Dem. Headquarters

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Announcement was made by the democratic national committee yesterday that campaign contributions aggregating over $40,000 were received at the New York headquarters. The list made public yesterday afternoon shows that the sum of $10,000 was contributed by Horner Bidder, treasurer of the national committee, and his three sons. The list in part is as follows:
New York—Herman Ridder, $10,000; Victor F. Ridder, $500; Bernard Ridder, $500; Joseph Ridder, $500; Morgan, J. D'Arden, $500.
Missouri—Edward F. Goltzra, $1000.

THE CHICAGO FUND

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Campaign contributions aggregating $953, received on

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skill of the best physicians for so many years, at last seems to be curable—and curable with great ease.

Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itches, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.

The Rev. Lewis Stealey of Weatherly, Pa., writes: "Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 24 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the sores have never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child that is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen how often when the mother mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent. We have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children.

L. Carter & Sherburne, and Falls & Burkhaw

RESIN SIZED

SHEATHING PAPER

1 1-2c per lb.

$30 per ton

W. T. S. Bartlett

653-659 MERRIMACK ST.

The Uptown Hardware Store

BAY STATE DYE WORKS

Acknowledged to be the best place to have your fall and winter dyeing and cleansing done, and now is the time to bring it in before the rush starts. It will make it easier for the manager and you will also profit by it as the work will be more carefully looked after than if the big rush was on. The wise one always takes advantage of these conditions and thereby always gets the best possible service. Start in once and send in your wearing apparel to the

Bay State Dye Works

14 PRESCOTT STREET.

Brass Beds

Reliability

We present many new designs this winter in brass beds.

We call especial attention to brass bedsteads of square tube construction as the height of simple elegance, and the heavy round tube in continuous post style like cut.

A handsome, artistic brass bed for your chamber can be bought at a price to suit any purse, costing from $20 to $65. The square tube styles $45, $50 and $65.

The dark, rich mahogany furniture and a brass bed make a handsome chamber.

ADAMS & CO.

Furniture—Rugs—Carpets

Appleton Bank Block - 174 Central Street

JOHN HUTCHINSON

Famous Singer, Who Married
Lowell Girl, Died Suddenly

LYNN, Oct. 29.—John Hutchinson, the last of the famous Hutchinson brothers during the Civil war, died at his home, High Rock, off Essex street in this city today. He arose at his usual time, went into the kitchen and turned on the gas to light a gas heater. Before he could apply the match he was taken ill and shortly afterward he expired, before the arrival of a doctor who had been hastily summoned by his wife. Death was due to heart failure incident to old age.

Mr. Hutchinson was born in Milford, N. H., in 1821 and was one of a family of sixteen children of whom twelve were boys. All the children had good voices and early in life they began their career as singers. In the years before the Civil war they toured the country singing temperance and abolition songs. The greatest prominence of the Hutchinson family was gained during the war when by special permit from the war department they visited many of the Union camps and sang to the soldiers. Their permit was revoked at one time by General McClellan, but was later renewed. After the war the brothers and sis-

BIG GATHERING

Of No-License Workers in Boston

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—No-license workers from all parts of the state gathered in Kingsley and Bowdoin halls in the Ford building today to attend the second annual conference arranged under the auspices of the Massachusetts No-License League. President Fostick of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon league presided and introduced as the first speaker Robert H. Magwood, secretary of the league. Mr. Magwood led in a discussion made in the no-license movement throughout the state in which it was shown that 17 cities and 260 towns in the state have been won over with a majority of 18,702 votes in the state in favor of prohibition.

George W. Alden of Brockton led a discussion in which the druggist licenses were considered and the "express problem" was also discussed by D. Kinn of Quincy.

BOXING GOSSIP

A sporting writer takes exception to Tommy Sullivan being in Groves Hayes' corner, and not in that of Young Kenney. Sullivan is one of the best fighters in the National A. C. where Sullivan is in the game as a matter of business just as Kenney is. Sullivan had been engaged to go in Hayes' corner long before he knew Kenney was to fight Hayes. Kenney was not selected until the last of the week. He just filled in. Sullivan is a close personal friend of Hayes, with whom he boxes every day and with whom he has lived for the past year. Hayes is a better friend to Sullivan than is Kenney, and vice versa. Kenney now claims Lawrence as his home city and wants Lawrence men to be in his corner. When Kenney was up and coming a few years ago, and was fighting in the New York and Philadelphia clubs, Lawrence was not then always claimed as his home. If he won, it was Lowell, and if he lost, it was Lawrence.

As for Sullivan being "sheepish," those who know Sullivan will know that this is not so. Sullivan is the cleanest and most manly fellow in the ring today. He is a credit to Lawrence, which he has always claimed as his home, whether he won or lost. He was not afraid to go in Hayes' corner and had no cause to be ashamed of it.—Lawrence Eagle.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES

Now that the Vanderbilt cup race has been run the interest of racing enthusiasts turns to the two events to be run at Savannah on Nov. 25 and 26 by the Automobile Club of America. Although public attention had been riveted on the Vanderbilt cup and Grand Prize races, mechanical motorists were more interested in the international light car race which will be run on the day preceding the big race at Savannah.

The limit of bore in this race for four cylinder engines is 3 1/2 inches. This has become a popular size during the last year of the cheaper species of four

A Word from Mr. Bryan

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

Lincoln Neb

Oct. 20-1908

Fellow Citizens:

The campaign is drawing to a close; the issues have been set forth in the platforms; the arguments of the candidates have been presented; and the verdict is about to be rendered. Every state in the Union shows Democratic gains, and there is no doubt of a Democratic victory if all who favor our policies vote and have their votes counted. I write to urge you to see to it that every Democratic vote in your precinct is polled early and counted. We desire a popular majority as well as a majority in the electoral college, and your vote is needed to offset a Republican vote some where else, even if not needed in your locality. Work! Vote! And then you can rejoice the more heartily in the victory.

W. J. Bryan

cylinder cars. The majority of the buying public, therefore, is interested in seeing the three two-cylinder Maxwells in competition with the three four-cylinder Buicks and the Chalmers. In a competition against them will be the air cooled Cameron and two unimpeachable Gyroscopes, while the imported cars will be represented by three De Dion, a Lancia and an Isotta. The latter is the smallest car so far entered, having a bore of only 2 1/2 inches. This car came in eighth in the recent French Volturine race, being the first four-cylinder car to finish.

DIAMOND NOTES

The Lynn item of Monday has the following interesting article: "Up to date Secretary Morse of the New England league has received no notification from Secretary Farrell of the national commission of the draft of any player on the Lynn team. He says that President Murnane, however, has the draft money for George Ort, but what club has drafted him he did not know. From other sources it is said that he is to go to Portland of the Pacific Coast league, having been recommended highly by Tom Madden, who was let out to Portland last season by the Boston Americans. Information received from official sources does not indicate that Gus Baum has been drafted by any club, as many expected.

So far as known McInnis has been drafted only by Jersey City, but this not being allowed he will remain in the New England league. There may yet be a possibility that when drafted from other leagues besides the Eastern are announced, "Stuffy" may be among the players drafted.

The new board of directors of the Haverhill club, together with President Rich, are making things decidedly warm for the officials of the league, and it is understood that the office of Secretary Morse in Boston has for several weeks past been the scene of many arguments on the Haverhill situation. At first it was decided to hold a special meeting of the New England league. After consideration it was found that this would bring Lynn in to represent its club. Lynn is not on the board of directors this year, so it was considered better to call a meeting of that board to settle the Haverhill matter. The clubs on the board of directors of the league this year are Haverhill, Brockton, Fall River and Lowell.

Lynn, Worcester, Lawrence and New Bedford would in that event have nothing to say in deliberations to settle the trades made by the Haverhill club when Dan Clochey was president.

In Lynn the feeling exists that the officials of the league should give their hearty support to the club here, because it is the best baseball town on the circuit. Those in position to know say that the president of the league should not take seriously the idea that there is anybody in this city who has or ever had aspirations to succeed him as president of the New England League.

The Lawrence team will get some new players according to the following from the Lawrence Eagle:

The call of Manager Mal W. Eason from his home in New York to Lawrence means that at the meeting of the directors Monday night, something was done which brought about that hurried call. There is no longer any doubt but that the local management is in sore plight. It may or may not be denied, but it is the truth nevertheless. A few weeks ago the outlook looked good for the Lawrence team. The purchase of Girard and Boardman from the Haverhill team made the fans happy. But when it was learned that these men would not come to this city, one because he was drafted, and the other because President E. L. Arundel of the Lawrence team refused to be a party to the deal to disrupt the Haverhill team.

If Flynn intends not to return to this city next season, Eason will have to get an entire new infield. McLane will not be back unless he is bought by Lawrence. If he may come, but if it is known, the management will not give it out. Vinson has been reserved, but he may not be with the team either. Harter will be back. Duggan and Kelly are on the list for sale. At one time there was some talk of letting Duggan go next season, figuring him in a trade or selling him. Wilson will not be retained unless the management changes its mind. He may be tried in the field. There is no telling.

Gilroy and Whiting will not be back. Murch goes to Rochester. It is said on good authority that Eason has a first sacker, although nothing can be learned officially. Another player may be drafted. He is an outfielder. Now for the news. Lawrence may get a pitcher who is now in the New England league and is well thought of by the fans here. He is not satisfied with the team that he is with now. There is another reason why he may come to Lawrence. Then the local management is said to have an option on another player. Lawrence needs men badly and now is the time to get them if possible. Next spring may be too late. Lawrence may not be so fortunate as it was the past season.

President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals has completed arrangements for the spring training of his team at Shreveport, La. The pitchers will go to Hot Springs early in March, while the rest of the team will assemble at West Baden, Ind. March 15 and go to Shreveport, meeting the pitching department there. Fifteen exhibition games have been booked, beginning at Memphis, March 27. The Americans, under Comiskey, will go to the coast again, playing a series with the Los Angeles and San Francisco clubs. Comiskey's idea is to make a much longer stay on the coast than last spring. In fact, he plans to do nearly all the training out there, with the problematic Honolulu trip still among those possible.

Patsy Flaherty of the Boston National league baseball pitching staff has his home in Carnegie with the Reach baseball club for a trip through the Philippines and Japan. The team will sail from San Francisco Nov. 2, returning to America late in February.

Like Pitcher Covaleski of the Phillies, Jim Swift, the twirler secured by the St. Louis Browns, is a Poleander. His right name is Michael Proppeski, and he has a breast in one of the collaries of the Susquehanna Coal company at Glen Lyon, Pa. During the winter months. He was recommended by Scout Jack O'Connor to McAlleer.

George Stallings, who has been

Baby Laugh

It belongs to health for a baby to eat and sleep, to laugh and grow fat.

But fat comes first; don't ask a scrawny baby to laugh; why, even his smile is pitiful! Fat comes first.

The way to be fat is the way to be healthy.

Scott's Emulsion

is the proper food, but only a little at first.

Send this advertisement, together with name of paper in which it appears, your address and four cents to cover postage, and we will send you a "Complete Handy Atlas of the World."

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York

down on his Georgia cotton plantation since the Eastern league baseball season closed has arrived in New York. If Stallings becomes manager of the New York Americans he will probably take the Highlanders to his plantation next spring to train. The plantation takes in over 4000 acres, plenty of room for the ball players to roam in, and is equipped with a baseball field. Stallings had the Buffalo team there one season to train and regards it as a good training place. "All there is for players to do there," he says, "is to eat, go to bed with the team and talk and play baseball." The plantation is about 20 miles from Macon.

At Springfield at the annual meeting of the Connecticut baseball league, the old officers were re-elected as follows: W. J. Tracey of Bristol, Conn., president; A. E. Taylor of Chicopee, vice president; James H. O'Rourke of Bridgeport, Conn., secretary and treasurer; John E. Kennedy of Bristol, Conn., supervisor of umpires. In recognition of President Tracey's of recent services, his election was for a term of two years instead of one year as formerly. The pennant was formally awarded to Springfield.

C. M. A. C. WON

Defeated K. of C. in League Game

The game between the C. M. A. C. and Knights of Columbus, in the Catholic league last night, resulted in a decisive victory for the C. M. A. C. Boucher of the winning team was high man with a single of 122 and a triple of 35.

In the Minor league the Frontenacs won two points and the total from the Nationals. P. Demers of the defeated team was high man.

The game between the Palmer Street Department and the Cotton Goods Department of the Portland league proved to be a close and exciting one, the former team winning by a small margin. The scores:

CATHOLIC LEAGUE C. M. A. C.
LeBrun	1	2	3	TOTAL
Lemieux	55	51	102	204
Levesque	81	87	89	255
Mailheux	106	83	95	284
Boucher	132	102	92	326
Totals	380	413	478	1271
K. of C.
Savage	55	54	92	201
Grover	77	79	87	243
Conn	74	79	84	237
W. J. Kelley	75	74	80	229
Donohoe	52	107	72	231
Totals	333	493	415	1241
Nationals
Buckley	51	52	83	186
H. Demers	55	53	77	185
Durrant	71	78	85	234
Bois	59	51	65	175
P. Demers	78	87	92	257
Totals	314	421	402	1137
Frontenacs
Ducharme	54	54	87	195
Michael	52	54	83	189
A. Saunders	51	51	83	185
Blanchette	58	54	84	196
Demarais	51	54	84	189
Totals	276	295	408	979
Palmer Street Dept.
Burns	1	2	3	TOTAL
McInnis	55	51	102	204
Delouis	81	87	89	255
Richards	106	83	95	284
Delandoe	132	102	92	326
Totals	380	413	478	1271
Cotton Goods Dept.
Blanchette	55	51	102	204
Bourbe	81	87	89	255
Rhodes	106	83	95	284
Teller	132	102	92	326
Loiselle	55	51	102	204
Totals	380	413	478	1271

Saunders' Market

159 Gorham St., Corner Summer TEL. 592-3

Owing to so many mistakes lately on deliveries the customers are requested to check off goods on delivery, otherwise the market will not be responsible.

Special on Meats for Friday and Saturday

Best Rump Steak, best cut out of the best Heavy Beef 15c
Best Sirloin Steak, 2 lbs. for 25c
Nice Fresh Rump Butts 8 1-2c, 9c lb
Best Round Steak, 2 lb. 25c
Swift's Best Smoked Shoulders 7-8c
Hamburg Steak, 10c lb., 3 lbs. 25c
Fresh Pork Loins 9c & 10c lb.
Fresh Killed Fowl 13c lb.
Short Cut Choice Legs of Lamb 10c lb.
Squire's & North's Sugar Cured Hams 10c lb.
Best Corned Beef 5-6c
Nice New Cabbage 1c lb.
Large New Potatoes Nice and Mealy 18c pk.
Large New Onions, 20c pk.
Large New Sweet Potatoes, 15 lbs. 25c

FINE GRANULATED SUGAR 51-2c

We allow 20 lbs. of Sugar at 5 1/2 cents a lb. to each customer

PURE LARD—Swift's and National Packing Co.'s 25 lb. pails, 101-2c lb.
3, 5 and 10 lb. pails 12c
OUR PIE PREPARATION—Put up by De Zerta Food Co., all flavors 6c
D-ZERTA JELLO 6c
We have received 500 cans fresh from factory, assorted flavors.

QUICK PUDDING

Flavors: Chocolate, Lemon, Tapioca, Vanilla, Orange, Macaroon.

ICE CREAM POWDER—all flavors 6c

COMPOUND LARD—28 and 50 lb. tubs 9c

Swift's Jewel, 5.5 and 10 lb. pails 9c

FLOUR—American makes fine, light bread and always gives perfect satisfaction.

70c Bag; $6.00 Per Barrel

SEARCHLIGHT FLOUR—Just received a carload, 80c Bag, $6.00 Bbl.

PASTRY FLOUR—Snow Crust or Acme 65c Bag

ROLLED OATS—Quaker, Mother's, Hecker's 9c Pkg.

4 Double Sheets of Tanglefoot Sticky Fly Paper, 5c

GELATINE—Manhattan Gelatine, bright and sparkling, absolutely pure, all flavors 6c

NEW ENGLAND COCOA—strictly pure 1-4 can 7c; 1-2 can 14c

RAISINS—Hatchet and Green Cord Brands 8c

CURRENTS—Thoroughly clean, 1 lb. pkg. 9c

EXTRACTS—All flavors, best quality and absolutely pure, 6c

SOUPS—Tomato, Chicken, Vegetable and all kinds of Van Camp's 6c

CANNED CORN—All brands, best standard Maine Canned 6c

WHITE RIBBON floating Toilet Soap, pure, fragrant, lasting. 7 for 25c

SOAPS—7 bars 25c

SWIFT'S TUCK SOAP—Famous Laundry Soap, 12 Bars 25c

OLD DUTCH CLEANSER—Chases dirt, makes everything "spick and span" 8c

1 BOX BORAX, 20 Mule Team Brand 1 lb. 10c

WASHING POWDER—Put up same as Old Dutch Cleanser. 4 lbs. 15c

STARCH—2 lbs. of Lump 9c

SALERATUS—Guaranteed pure 4c lb. pkg.

CANNED BEANS—Shield Brand String Beans or Wax Beans, Acme 6c

BEST TEAS—5 lbs. for $1.00

1 Pound 25c

BUTTERINE—The very best, 12 1-2 to 15c

We carry the New England Brand, This is a Butterine of absolute purity, according to a United States official sworn statement.

LARGE PRUNES—Large and fancy, 6c lb.

LEMON PIE FILLING—3 lb. Mason Jar, guaranteed under Pure Food and Drug Act. 15c

MINCE MEAT—Armour's Very Best and Columbia 6c a Package

STRAWBERRIES—Silverdale, 3 lb. can, packed in 15 percent syrup, 10c can, 3 cans 25c

SELECT PLUMS—Royalton brand, 3 lb can 10c

PEACHES—Choice selected fruit, 3 lb. can 10c

3 lb. packages HECKER'S SELF RAISING FLOUR, the best on the market 19c

TOMATOES—All brands, No. 1 standard, 8c Can

PEAS—Lillian Brand and Marrow Peas, Van Camp's Early 8c Can

BEANS—Pea Beans, Yellow Eyes or Red Kidney Beans, 8c Qt.

SARDINES—Van Camp's Brand 25c

MACARONI—Blue Cross and Luna Brands, 1 lb. pkg. 6c pkg.

CONDENSED MILK

Challenge Brand 9c

Lakeside Brand, 3 cans for 25c

SALMON—Medium, red 10c can

Best Alaska Red, packed by Alaska Packers Association. 11c

BEEF IS CHEAP

Best Sirloin Roast Beef 12c and 14c
Fancy Rib Roast Beef 8c to 12c
Best Rump and Sirloin Steak 15c and 18c
Best Frankfurts 10c lb.
Pork Sausage 10c lb.

6c SPECIALS 6c

1 pkg. Wetmore's Coconut.

1 large bottle Ammonia.

1 large bottle Worcestershire Sauce.

1 large bottle Blueing.

1 10c bottle Horse Radish.

10c bottle German Mustard.

1 package best Pickles.

1 can Potash.

1 package Codfish.

MOTHERS, HERE IT IS
The Eclipse Special
A BOY'S $5.00 SUIT, WITH EXTRA PANTS, FOR
$3.75

HERE'S a clear saving of $1.25. A Boy's Suit with extra pants—knee pants and knickerbockers—well worth $5.00, for $3.75

The Fabric is an all wool Cheviot—tough as leather—a stylish pattern, and a mixture that won't show the wear.

The Coats are plain double breasted, cut stylishly.

The Pants are reinforced at the straining points, to resist the wear and tear of the active lad.

Sizes are for boys of 7 years to 17.

We doubt if you will find its equal anywhere under $5.00.

THE MERRIMACK CLOTHING COMPANY
Across From City Hall

Hallowe'en Face Masks
FREE!

Boys, here's a chance for some good sport for Hallowe'en, for indoors or outdoors. We're going to give away free 500 Face Masks tomorrow and Saturday to the first 500 boys who call with a copy of this ad.

BRYAN AND HILL

Former U. S. Senator Introduced the Democratic Leader

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The feature of William Jennings Bryan's tour up-state yesterday was the appearance on the platform here last night, where he presided, of former United States Senator David Bennett Hill. It was the first time in several years that Mr. Hill had attended such a gathering, so that when he stepped forward to introduce democracy's leader, the great crowd which packed the hall where the meeting was held, rose and wildly cheered.

"Although not now connected with politics," Mr. Hill said, "I reiterate that I am heartily in favor of the election of the democratic national ticket and state ticket. I am not so partisan, however, that I would support the party whether right or wrong, but permit me to say that I support the national ticket in this campaign because, in my judgment, our presidential candidate who honors us with his presence here tonight, is absolutely right upon every contested question in this campaign. I am for him because I sincerely believe the best interests of the country will be subserved by his election. It is time for a change in the administration of the government, a change of measures and of men. Our candidate owes the nomination not to any one man or any set of men, but only to the people themselves. If elected, he will be president himself and not a dummy for any man. He will not be led around with a string like a great big caged bear."

Senator Hill, referring to the republican charge that a panic would follow Bryan's election, declared that it would not be a business panic, but it would be a panic on the part of the hundreds of thousands of federal office-holders and public officials who will have to surrender their places to the victorious party. He concluded his encomium of Mr. Bryan by stating that "Our candidate is your friend. He is my friend. He is the friend of the people. He has been the courageous, sincere and constant friend of labor ever since he has been in public life. He is as incorruptible as he is brave and he can neither be purchased nor intimidated."

Ovation for Bryan

The democratic candidate got an ovation when he arose to speak, the audience reluctantly obeying the waving of his hand to them to become quiet. He expressed his appreciation of the cordial welcome he had received. "In the capital of our nation's greatest state" and in reply to Senator Hill, said:

"I appreciate the more than generous words employed by Senator Hill in presenting me to you. One of the pleasures of this campaign is the unity that manifests itself in the democratic party. As the candidate for president I have behind me a united democracy and in front of me a scared republican party."

He declared that the democratic party was full of fight while the republican party was full of fright. "I believe," he continued, "that we are going to win a great victory, and my friends, I am glad that Senator Hill, the hero of so many battlefields, is fighting by my side, prepared to share with me the joys of a sectional victory. But I believe that this victory is going to be won by the co-operation of the east and the west, the north and the south, and that it will cement the democratic party as a fighting force."

Mr. Bryan then said he would present "some evidences that will encourage you and some arguments in behalf of our position. First, however, he urged support of the democratic state and congressional tickets, because, he said, they were fighting on the same platform and bearing the brunt of the battle and therefore deserved the people's suffrage.

As he had done at Schenectady and other places, he laid stress on the plank in the democratic platform providing publicity of campaign funds.

before election. "I asked my national committee," he said, "to publish the contributions before the election and it has done so. I asked your congressional committee to follow the example of the national committee and it has done so. Mr. Taft's national committee has promised to publish the contributions after the election when he knows it will be too late to be of advantage to the voters, but the republican congressional committee has not promised to publish the contributions even after the election. I now ask Mr. Taft if he will request the congressional committee to announce once that publication will be made after the election. If not, we have a right to conclude that the congressional committee has to receive the funds that are too tainted to go into the treasury of the national committee."

The conscience of the American people, he asserted, demanded the inauguration of an era of honesty in politics. "Can Mr. Taft afford to ignore this demand?" he inquired.

Mr. Bryan repeatedly referred to Mr. Taft's labor record. He declared Mr. Taft was the most objectionable public man to laboring men the country has ever known.

A heavy rain was coming down when the democratic candidate arrived. This did not seem to dampen the ardor of the people, for they swarmed around the station and along the streets to bid him welcome. After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was joined by Senator Hill, he proceeded in a carriage through a lane of red fire to the hall, eight blocks away, escorted by several marching clubs with bands. His progress through the streets was made the occasion for a great demonstration.

In the course of the day Mr. Bryan made speeches at Hastings-on-the-Hudson, Tarrytown, Ossining, Peekskill, Cold Springs, Fishkill, Poughkeepsie, Rhinecliff, Hudson, Rensselaer, Schenectady and Troy. Everywhere along the line of travel immense crowds turned out in the rain to hear him. He frequently left the train to make speeches. His reception at Schenectady was notable. Two of his three speeches there were made in the open to the employees of the Locomotive Works and the General Electric company, who, notwithstanding the dreaching they got, stayed throughout his remarks, often punctuating them with cheers of approval. He told them that the tide was fast running with the democratic party, and that reports from all over the country indicated a democratic victory. He met a large crowd at Troy, from which point he will leave in the morning at 9:45 for Utica, Rome and Syracuse.

KILLED SON

WHILE THROWING STONE AT A MULE

RUSSELLVILLE, Ala., Oct. 29.—James Thorn, a farmer, while attempting to run a mule out of a yard yesterday, picked up a stone and threw it at the animal. He missed the mule and hit his two-year-old son, killing him instantly.

BLIND EVANGELIST

A large audience greeted Rev. A. E. Hatch, the blind evangelist, at the Adventist Christian church, Grand street Tuesday evening. He spoke on "The Economics of Christianity." "All men," he said, "want life, and all desire land. These are the great human desires, and these are promised in the gospel. God offers us real life, endless life, abundant life, and life without pain. And He offers land, for 'make shall inherit the earth.'"

Rev. Mr. Hatch is a good story-teller, and has a way of putting things peculiar to himself. Meetings continue each evening this week, except Saturday evening.

GOV. HUGHES ENTERING THE GARDEN

TAFT WAS CHEERED

Great Gathering of Republicans in Madison Square Garden

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y., Oct. 29.—William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes were the stellar attractions at a great republican mass meeting at Madison Square Garden last night. At every mention of the name of Gov. Hughes the hall resounded with cheering. When Gov. Hughes entered the hall the crowd, which filled every available space in the auditorium, cheered him for 16 minutes without stopping. Gov. Hughes made a characteristic address, which was received enthusiastically.

MANY ADDRESSES

Continued.

desired effect. The old regulations were repealed, and within a few weeks Protestant citizens of Boston, to their great credit, and for the first time in the history of the city, selected a Catholic priest and several Catholic laymen for membership on the school board.

"During the 50s he was invited to become one of the incorporators of the Thursday Evening club. In this cultivated and refined company the bishop passed many delightful hours. His warm demeanor and thoroughgoing Americanism allied suspicion.

"Perhaps his most distinguished convert was the philosopher and economist, Orestes A. Brownson, who joined the church in 1841.

"The outbreak of the Civil war caused the bishop to act again. He ordered prayers in all the churches of the diocese for the success of the Union, from which time until Appomattox was written into history, his whole being was in sympathy with Gov. Andrew's aim that Massachusetts should stand foremost among the states in support of Lincoln and his policies."

Tribute to Late Archbishop

Thomas Dwight made the late Archbishop Williams the subject of his address. He said in part:

"At the celebration of his sacerdotal golden jubilee in May, 1895, I had the honor to offer to his grace a portrait of himself by Mr. Vinton on the part of the Catholic union. After expressing his thanks he declared that he was satisfied with what the union had accomplished. I remember well the emphasis on the word 'satisfied.' Then followed some remarks which are worth preserving: 'As the last speaker recalled former words of mine to the union, I will again allude to them. It is said that in addressing the union I told them that I did not want aggressive Catholics. And I say so today. I do not desire aggressive Catholics. But what do I mean by this? Do I mean that I want cowardly Catholics? No, I mean Catholics who shall stand on their rights as American citizens no more.'"

"During the years of the wretched A. P. A. business, with one exception, he was absolutely silent. But let me one think that his was the silence of the indifferent."

"Probably many are here tonight who were present in this hall five years ago at the 10th anniversary of the dedication of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. They must remember the emotion with which he said: 'On Aug. 11, a year after the burning of the convent in 1835, I stood on Warren bridge and saw all Charlestown square in a flame, and the tavern which stood between the two bridges destroyed that night by fire while I looked on; and we knew that the man went from the tavern to burn the convent, and that was a year afterward, precisely on that night.'"

"But the only occasion on which he gave vent to his righteous indignation was at a meeting of the Catholic union in 1821, on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his congregation. The lamented Thomas J. Gargan had alluded to these outrages in an address, to which the archbishop replied: 'I am glad to say publicly that I am proud of the Catholics of Boston for the last two years. It is not the accusations that have been made against us, not the revellings even, not even the insults, that I find fault with, but the attacks that were made on the virtue of our ladies in religious societies. The revellers attacked the clergy; but to that we were less sensitive, for we are men. But when they came to attack the women who had devoted their lives to virginity... when placards were placed on our walls and not torn down by the authorities of the city—then it was almost time to resent it. And yet you remained quiet. For this I gave you credit and for this I am proud today.'"

"But that same address he said that there is one thing we never forget, that is, a kindness, and he mentioned the names of some of Boston's old families who had helped in the building of Boston's first cathedral, and rejoiced that these families are still known in the city, honored and respected as they were 100 years before.

Illustrative Incident

"The following incident illustrates to what an extent he carried his policy of absolute silence under attack, and I believe that he would wish me to speak of those who stood up for justice. A truly abominable bill had been introduced into the legislature openly aimed at Catholic schools. The danger was indeed great; but the archbishop made no sign. He trusted the committee, and he trusted the clergy. He waited on President Eliot and on the late Gen. Francis A. Walker, president of the Institute of Technology. They, as well as Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson and others, appeared before the committee in March, 1858. Col. Higginson began by declaring that he had learned his first lesson in religious liberty when he stood by his mother's side and watched the burning of the Ursuline convent. President Eliot said: 'I think it would be hard to conceive a more exasperating and dangerous bit of legislation than that contained in the paragraph I have quoted.' The result was a painful surprise to the supporters of the bill.

"Surely one of the greatest advances during the latter years of Archbishop Williams' administration is the increase of Catholic influence in public boards governing charitable institutions in state and city, and with it the removal of wrongs which Catholic inmates, and especially children, suffered 25 years ago. Those who were haunted by nightmares of the diabolical that would give ordinary rules to Catholics have now an opportunity of seeing that nothing but good has come from the change, and above all, that the religious rights of non-Catholic children have not been abridged, but extended."

Archbishop O'Connell

Archbishop O'Connell, who spoke briefly, said:

"My message, humble as it was, was given this morning. It was a message not only to our own people, but I hope, in the spirit in which it was given, to all the people of New England. I feel that matter, to all men of good will throughout the country. There is one thing which the meeting tonight certainly must make clear to all. The story of the last 100 years, of the first century of Catholicity in Boston and New England, as displayed through the lives of these four bishops which the four gentlemen have described to you, has a great lesson, and that lesson is twofold—the absolute devotion and fidelity of the bishops to their people, and the love, affection, loyalty and allegiance unto death of the Catholic people of Boston to their prelates. (Applause.)

"That lesson must come home to every one of us tonight, to bishop and people both. Those prelates worked and labored hard, late and early, and their labors were blessed by God. They performed wonders in their day. But we, too, have to work, labor and toil to finish in our way, as long as God gives us strength, what they so nobly began."

"There is here tonight the representative of the Holy Father in Rome, who from the throne of Peter watches out over all the world, guides and guards the faithful in their destiny, their faith, their doctrine, encourages the work of the church wherever it is going on, and has sent us a glorious message, which was read at the cathedral today. I ask his excellency the apostolic delegate to give us a blessing in the name of the Holy Father, a blessing which I know every Catholic in Boston will receive in the spirit of perfect loyalty and devotion to the Holy See."

Archbishop Falconio, briefly acknowledged the love and devotion shown by the Catholics of Boston and the Holy Father: "I tender you," he said, "my sincerest congratulations. Since God has been pleased to bless this diocese, I hope He will continue to bestow on you His choicest blessings. Now, in the name of our Holy Father, the pope, I impart to you His blessing, and I hope it will descend to your families and to all the people of this beloved city and state."

The Madison Square Garden meeting was, of course, the big climax. The police had to close the doors at 3 o'clock and bar all but reserved seat ticket-holders.

Yale Banner in Decoration Scheme

There had been no change in the seating and decoration scheme of the meeting hall from that of Monday, when William J. Bryan spoke there. The galleries were girdled with American flags, the dome was completely hidden by a mammoth American flag, and over the main entrance was hung a big blue Yale banner, with portraits of Taft and Sherman on it, and in the center "Yale '75" Taft having been a graduate of that class.

Food is more tasteful, healthful and nutritious when raised with

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

Made from Grapes

Absolutely PURE

CHILD INJURED

Little One Was Tossed by a Cow

NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 29.—A wild cow seriously injured Miss Elsie Pierce, the 5-year-old daughter of Andrew G. Pierce, Jr., president of the Pierce mill corporation, yesterday morning.

It came at the close of a 12-hour rampage in which a number of citizens were attacked by the frenzied animal.

Yesterday morning the little Pierce girl, with Rebecca Johnson and Louise, the daughter of Dr. Charles A. Pratt, were playing on the lawn of the William J. Rotch estate when the cow entered the premises. John A. Johnson, the gardener, started to drive the animal out, when it charged upon him.

Johnson jumped behind a shed and the cow turned a somersault. Then the cow charged upon the children and threw the Pierce child ten feet in the air and attempted to gore her. Johnson diverted the animal's attention and the child was saved, several houses being the only injury.

Capt. John C. Parker and Patrolman White of the police department followed up the cow and overtook it at the corner of Orchard and Union streets, where it charged upon Capt. Parker, who was knocked over in attempting to use a lasso.

Capt. Parker's revolver exploded and he narrowly escaped injury. The officer shot at the cow a dozen times and one shot broke the cow's leg. A man in the crowd cut the cow's throat.

DANCING PARTY

HELD BY WOMEN OF ST. PATRICK'S HOME

A very pretty dancing party was held in Prescott hall last night under the auspices of the young women of St. Patrick's home. The hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion and everything was done to make the evening an enjoyable one. Despite the wet weather the friends of the young women turned out in large numbers and the event proved to be one of the social successes of the season.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Colonial orchestra.

The success of the party was due to the untiring and zealous work of the following: General manager, Miss Katherine Boland; assistant general manager, Miss Irene Allard; floor director, Miss Margaret Crowley; assistant floor director, Miss Mary Fallon; chief aid, Miss Annie Cullen; aids, Miss Alice Nestor, Miss Margaret Bagley, Miss May Bagley, Miss Bridget Conlon, Miss Agnes Brennan, Miss May Sullivan, Miss Bresnahan, Miss Annie McDonald and Miss Sarah Achim.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Highland-Veritas lodge, I. O. O. F., held a "red letter" night in Odd Fellows temple last night and despite the inclement weather there was a very large attendance. After the regular business meeting a banquet was served in the hall and post prandial exercises followed the discussion of the menu. A musical program of songs and instrumental numbers was also given.

The meeting was attended by a large number of Odd Fellows from local and other lodges, and the guests at dinner numbered nearly 200.

The regular meeting of Spindle City lodge, I. O. G. T., was held last night in Pilsner hall. There were several propositions for membership. Plans for the next quarter were discussed and a committee consisting of Sisters Young and Reid and Brothers Mathison and Montgomery was appointed to arrange a suitable program. The following officers were elected for the next quarter: C. T. Frank E. McLean; T. T. Ethel Reid; secretary, Edythe Young; financial secretary, John A. Mathison; treasurer, Robert Montgomery; pianist, Viola Reid; marshal, B. E. Flynn.

Tonight a public meeting will be held in the same hall to which all good templars and their friends are invited. The speakers will be Rev. A. E. Kenyon and Mrs. Jeannette Mann of Everett. There will be music and refreshments will be served.

Court Middlesex, F. of A. met in regular session last night. Chief Ranger John H. Congdon in the chair. The court made their report for the last quarter, showing that the court is in a good financial condition. The trustees made an inventory report of the court's property and stated that it is in good condition and well insured against fire. Two applications for membership were also received.

The Arrow Brand Collars, including the new styles, are on sale at TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

CHILD INJURED

Little One Was Tossed by a Cow

NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 29.—A wild cow seriously injured Miss Elsie Pierce, the 5-year-old daughter of Andrew G. Pierce, Jr., president of the Pierce mill corporation, yesterday morning.

It came at the close of a 12-hour rampage in which a number of citizens were attacked by the frenzied animal.

Yesterday morning the little Pierce girl, with Rebecca Johnson and Louise, the daughter of Dr. Charles A. Pratt, were playing on the lawn of the William J. Rotch estate when the cow entered the premises. John A. Johnson, the gardener, started to drive the animal out, when it charged upon him.

Johnson jumped behind a shed and the cow turned a somersault. Then the cow charged upon the children and threw the Pierce child ten feet in the air and attempted to gore her. Johnson diverted the animal's attention and the child was saved, several houses being the only injury.

Capt. John C. Parker and Patrolman White of the police department followed up the cow and overtook it at the corner of Orchard and Union streets, where it charged upon Capt. Parker, who was knocked over in attempting to use a lasso.

Capt. Parker's revolver exploded and he narrowly escaped injury. The officer shot at the cow a dozen times and one shot broke the cow's leg. A man in the crowd cut the cow's throat.

FINGER PRINTS

Men Arrested in Lowell age Identified

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Lactylscopy, a word coined since the last dictionary left the presses, resulted in the identification of two well-known thieves at police headquarters yesterday.

Dactylscopy is not a disease, it is a science. Specifically, dactylscopy is the method of identifying criminals by their finger-prints, and for the past two years ink impressions of the finger tips of every criminal brought to headquarters have been filed away in the Rogues' gallery in Pemberton square.

Last Monday two men, giving the names of Frank Myers and Harry Clark, were arrested in Lowell charged with larceny and Superintendent Moffatt, a firm believer in the fingerprint system, took impressions of their fingers, forwarding them to Inspector Gustafson at Boston headquarters.

Although the men arrested in Lowell had protested that they had never before been in the coils of the police, the Boston Rogues' gallery was found to contain their photographs, finger prints and a long record for each.

With only the finger prints to work from, Inspector Gustafson established the identity of the two men.

CARLTON ARROW COLLAR

that tries neither thumb, tie nor temper

Chas. Stark Quaker State

18 cents Each - 4 for 25 cents

Direct, Peabody & Co., Boston, Troy, N. Y.

The Arrow Brand Collars, including the new styles, are on sale at TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

For a Warm Bath Room

A bath in a cold room is a "shivery" operation and is extremely liable to cause colds. The bathroom above all should be kept warm. This is easy and the bath is a comfort if you have a

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

It may be carried from any other room to the bath room, which it will heat while you are preparing for the bath. Impossible to turn it too high or too low. The most economical heater you can buy—intense heat for 9 hours with one filling.

The Rayo Lamp is the best lamp for all-round household purposes. Gives a clear, steady light. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Equipped with the latest improved central draft burner. Handsome—simple—satisfactory. Every lamp guaranteed.

If you cannot get heater or lamp at your dealer's, write our nearest agency for descriptive circular.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

RHEUMATISM NEURALGIA ACHES & PAINS

Try NEURALGIC ANDYNE for any pain or ache, no matter how severe, and the result won't disappoint you. It's human nature to procrastinate. Everyone knows that NEURALGIC ANDYNE will almost perform miracles in times of painful distress, and yet at such times many people will not have it on hand.

If you haven't NEURALGIC ANDYNE in the house, get a bottle right now. It is for sale everywhere, and a large bottle only costs 25 cents.

It cures neuralgia, rheumatism, pains in the chest or back, stomach pains, dysentery, coughs, nervous headaches, and all aches and pains. It is an absolute necessity in every household. The Twitchell-Champlin Co., Portland, Me.

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service is received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun, for the year 1907 was

15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reldy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1903.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

A WORD TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

The enthusiasm shown at the democratic rally, held on Tuesday evening, astonished the local committee and even the candidates, inasmuch as no such interest was anticipated.

Hon. James H. Vahey, candidate for governor, proved to be quite a fluent and magnetic speaker. His arraignment of Lieut. Gov. Draper was quite severe but yet we do not believe he said anything that cannot be fully substantiated. Everybody knows that Draper is opposed to union labor, that he is the head of the loom trust, and an extremist on the tariff uniting with the "standpatters" against a reasonable revision.

The specific charges which Mr. Vahey made against Mr. Draper were sufficient to convince the audience that the republican candidate is unpopular with the masses, and not a man who can be relied upon to reverse the republican policy of extravagance at the state house.

Mr. Vahey gave a clear and forcible exposition of the methods by which large corporations put through expensive measures by the influence of the lobby, measures that are not demanded by the public good and are intended to serve only private interests.

The democratic candidate believes in having no temporizing with the lobby. He mentioned in particular the efforts of the city of Lawrence to have a boom laid across the river above the falls to save people from drifting over in boats and showed how the Essex company working through the lobby had defeated the measure.

If some of the measures of reform which Mr. Vahey as advocated were adopted we should see a great reduction in the state tax that has been quadrupled in ten years.

The meeting took kindly to the expressions in favor of Hon. Joseph J. Flynn, the candidate for congress, and the mention of the attempt to endorse a republican candidate was met with expressions of contempt. Mr. Flynn in his address promised to use his influence for the best interests of the district. He should receive the united support of the democracy in every town and city of the district.

There is also a strong sentiment in favor of the election of Rep. James E. O'Donnell for senator in the eighth district. He spoke of his services in the legislature in a very plain and candid manner, telling why he supported some measures and why he voted against others. In stating that his action in either case was ruled solely by his conviction of right and that if elected senator and the same measures should come up again he would vote as he had done before.

At a time when such strong appeals are being made in behalf of either party it behooves all democrats to stand loyally by their ticket and vote for every democratic candidate from Bryan down to the humblest nominee for representative. A strong minority in the legislature can exercise a powerful influence in behalf of popular reforms and for economy in public expenditures. Extravagance, it seems, is the chief evil to be combatted in the republican administration of Massachusetts. Democrats should unite to reduce all unnecessary expenditures and thereby reduce the tax rate in every town and city in the state.

ROOSEVELT'S CONDUCT SHOULD BE REBUKED.

As the campaign draws to a close the one thing that stands out above all others to condemn the republican party and bring about the defeat of Mr. Taft is the action of President Roosevelt in his efforts to dictate openly from the White House the election of his personally selected candidate for the presidency.

Since the opening of the campaign Mr. Roosevelt has used his official position to intimidate the people into voting for Taft. He has threatened; he has railed and brawled; he has written letters of the most unreliable and unwarranted character and in every possible way in which he could use his power he has endeavored to force the election of the republican candidate.

When he had done all that he could do personally, he ordered his cabinet officers to take the stump; and now, the country beholds the spectacle of Secretary Root of the state department; Postmaster General Meyer, Secretary Coudry of the treasury department; Secretary Wright of the war department, and other officials all out under orders from the president in a most strenuous effort to avert republican defeat.

Meantime President Roosevelt, like a lion in a cage, is chafing in the White House. He appears simply to have become furious at the prospect of defeat.

He has told the people in one of his letters that calamity would come with the election of Bryan, and that it would be unpatriotic, in view of that fact, not to vote for Taft!

This is the first time in history when the president of the United States used his power and influence as a campaigner in the interest of a particular candidate for the presidency. It is the first time in history that any president has attempted to name his own successor, or to compel his election. It is the first time also that a president has practically ordered all the machinery of government and all the heads of the federal departments to abandon their duties and enter the service of the republican party as campaigners in the interest of a particular candidate.

Why should any employee of the postoffice department, for example, be denied the privilege of electioneering when the postmaster general is out on the stump? Has not the letter carrier or the postal clerk or the rural mail driver got a right to his choice of candidates, and a right to exercise the franchise as he pleases, despite the mandate of President Roosevelt?

The president has outraged the dignity of his office; he has dragged the honor of the United States in the dust; he has prostituted his high authority to the vilest kind of campaigning; he has set an example that if followed will be ruinous to the nation; he has assumed authority that does not belong to him; he has interfered to intimidate the voters in the free exercise of the franchise, and he has undertaken to dictate his successor. In view of all these things the assumption is not unwarranted that the next step may be the Roosevelt dynasty.

We hear much talk about the despotism of European monarchs, but there is not a monarch or an emperor in Europe that would dare do half what President Roosevelt has done. If King Edward of England attempted to influence the electorate as President Roosevelt has done the chances are that he would be beheaded in spite of his army and navy.

President Roosevelt can exercise legitimately immensely more power than a constitutional monarch, but he has far overstepped the bounds of his legal and customary authority and has made himself a menace to the government and to the liberties of the people, and all this as he claims to secure the election of a man who will carry out "his policies."

This is the time to rebuke President Roosevelt for his unwarranted interference with the people in their choice of a president. If the opportunity be let pass the people will regret it. It is a bad precedent to establish, and unless the people resent such interference in the present case it will be repeated by Taft if elected or by some other republican president in the future. We do not believe that any democratic president would ever attempt so to outrage the highest office in the nation.

The way to rebuke President Roosevelt for his insolent interference with the rights of citizens is to vote for Mr. Bryan and bury Mr. Taft so deeply in defeat that Mr. Roosevelt will have reason to regret his course in this campaign and to remember that the people will allow no prostitution of the high office of president to such vile ends.

SEEN AND HEARD

DOLLAR A WORD POEM

Quickly following the announcement that President Roosevelt will write his hunting experiences for a magazine comes the following clever jingle. In reading just omit the dollar marks:

The (H) lion (H) stood (H)
Within (H) the (H) wood (H):
I (H) took (H) a (H) steady (H)
aim (H):
My (H) bullet (H) sped (H)
And (H) he (H) lay (H) dead (H):
By (H) my (H) good (H) rifle (H)
slain (H). $3.00

His (H) struggles (H) ceased (H):
The (H) nobles (H) feast (H)
Lay (H) stretched (H) upon (H)
his (H) side (H):
My (H) bullet (H) true (H)
Had (H) bored (H) him (H) through (H)
(H):
And (H) instantly (H) he'd (H)
died (H). $3.00

A (H) rush (H), a (H) crash (H):
A (H) tawny (H) flash (H)
Before (H) my (H) started (H) eyes (H):
And (H) then (H) I (H) knew (H)
I'd (H) hit (H) him (H) (H): Ere (H) I (H) could (H) claim (H)
my (H) prize (H). $2.00

His (H) maddened (H) mate (H)
I (H) saw (H) too (H) late (H):
Head (H) reached (H) me (H) with (H)
(H) a (H) bound (H):
With (H) trusty (H) knife (H)
I (H) sought (H) her (H) life (H):
As (H) he (H) rolled (H) over (H)
the (H) ground (H). $2.00

My (H) skill (H) and (H) strength (H)
Prevailed (H) at (H) length (H):
And (H) with (H) a (H) movement (H)
(H) quick (H):
I (H) laid (H) her (H) low (H)
With (H) one (H) sharp (H) blow (H)
(H):
Of (H) my (H) renowned (H) Big (H)
(H) Stick (H): T. R. (H) $2.00

Total ..... $125.00
(I get less.)
—N. A. J. in New York World.

Mr. Edward Cahill, of this city, has been elected for the third time president of his class at the University of Pennsylvania.

The number of straw hats in evidence on Monday night at the Hath-

GOUT & RHEUMATISM
Great English Remedy
BLAIR'S PILLS
Safe, Sure, Effective. 50c. & 9c.
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

Steamship Tickets
To and from Great Britain, Ireland and all parts of Europe, on the Cunard, White Star and all the leading lines.

AT MURPHY'S AGENCY,
18 Appleton St., opp. Postoffice.
Money orders and drafts sold, payable in all parts of Europe, for any amount.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE
—FOR—
Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases
—FOR SALE—
At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores
THIRTY-FIVE CENTS.

Wall Paper
—AT—
97 APPLETON ST.

ELECTRIC AND COMBINATION FIXTURES
At Manufacturer's Prices
—AT—
DERBY & MORSE'S
64 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL
Attorney-at-Law
Hildreth Building Lowell, Mass.

Fresh Clams Every Day
At the Lowell Inn. Fresh fish direct from the Boston wharves. Lobsters fresh from the traps. Meats fresh and wholesome. Call and see us.
LOWELL INN, busiest place in Central street.

JOHN J. O'CONNELL
FUNERAL DIRECTOR,
Telephone Connection
1010 Central St. Davis Sq.

$ SAVED IS $ MADE
You can experience same at
Louis Price's JEWELRY STORE
14 PRESCOTT STREET
I guarantee a saving on all work and purchases.

PUTNAM &amp; SON CO., 166 Central St.

WE DRESS YOUR BOY FROM TOP TO TOE

Do it remarkably well and at the fairest prices. Whatever we sell, we guarantee to give excellent service—if you have cause for complaint, return the goods, we will adjust matters to your satisfaction.

80 BOYS' SUITS

Value $3.50, for $2.50

A group of excellent suits to fit boys 8 years to 16. Double breast jackets, with knickerbocker trousers. Neat, fancy chevrons, smart cut and well made—today all sizes for.....$2.50

STRICTLY ALL WOOL SUITS

For Large Boys $4.00

New suits, in four attractive patterns of strictly all wool chevrons, in olive, oxford and brown mixtures that are so fashionable. Jackets are full double breast—trousers knickerbocker. Smart cut, capitol tailored—actual $5.00 value, for....$4.00

FINE SUITS FOR BOYS

8 Years to 17

From the best New York makers, including Rogers-Peel's celebrated clothing for boys. All of the new colors, browns, olives, smoke shades, blue serges and chevrons are shown. Every suit new, of the latest cut, perfectly fitting, and splendidly tailored—patterns not to be found in any other store—
$5, $6, $7 and up to $10

NEW RUSSIAN AND SAILOR SUITS to fit boys from 3 years

Neat fancy chevrons and blue and brown in solid colors, made with deep sailor collars, attractively trimmed and of the newest designs, for.....$2.00
With others, $2.50, $3.50, up to $8.00.

RUSSIAN OVERCOATS

For Boys 3 Years to 10

A collection of the best garments we have ever shown. Plain blue, brown and tan kerseys and meltons; new effects in fancy coatings—full double breast—all of the newest cut. Russian overcoats, $1.25
With great assortments for $2, $3, $4, to $8.

HANDSOME COAT SWEATERS

For Boys, 50 Cents

A new lot of fine oxford coat sweaters, with red borders, just received. Our first two lots sold like wildfire—at last we've got a good shipment and are ready today with these wonderful sweaters in all sizes ..... 50c

MOHAIR TAMS

Regular Fifty-Cent Tams for 25 Cents.

Twenty dozens of fine mohair tams for boys and girls in white and colors—full crowns and a regular fifty-cent quality. We bought the lot for half price and offer these tams while they last for.....25c

BOYS' SHOES

Worth Buying.

Boys' Solid Leather Shoes, high lace, oak tanned double soles, made on a serviceable last to fit the growing feet. Sizes 9 to 13½ ..... $1.35
For Large Boys the best in Lowell for ..... $2.00
Genuine box calf, lace bluchers, sizes 1 to 5½, Goodyear welt, oak tanned double soles, double back stays, smart and stylish lasts. $2.00

new play at the National, when Miss Roosevelt appeared with her parents in the presidential box wearing a low-necked gown of light blue satin crepe, made in the prevailing close, straight lines, with its upper portion almost entirely of white lace. The latter had a flat flounce across the slight décolletage, and also formed the sleeves, which came to the elbow. A large corsage bouquet of gardenias gave a festive touch to the gown. Another departure was the absence of gloves, rings or bracelets.

Berliners, although perhaps surprised thereby, find a certain piquancy in the republican simplicity of costume worn at great public and court functions by Dr. David Jayne Hill, the new American ambassador. On these occasions the ambassador and his embassy staff appear in unadorned evening dress, and they so appeared at a gala performance of the opera on Wednesday evening in honor of the Kaiser's fourth son and his fiancée. One newspaper described the next day how "a simple, undecorated gentleman in evening clothes" appeared in the middle of the diplomatic box. "Here said," said the writer, "between Herr Von Szogyeny, the Austrian ambassador, who wore a picturesque dolman over his costume of a Knight of the Round Table, and Sir Frank Lascelles, the British ambassador, in the glittering pride of a diplomatic uniform, who? Was it a journalist who perhaps slipped boldly in? No. It was the new American ambassador, quite simply dressed in an evening suit, without a single star. Every opera glass was levelled toward him. Our minds recurred to Mr. Charlemagne Tower, his predecessor, who on such occasions was wont to bedizen himself with gold."

Every man and woman in New England who has ever seen Denman Thompson in "The Old Homestead" is interested in the news from Keene, N. H., that his son, Franklin, who is manager of his father's famous show, has sued his wife for divorce and that young Mrs. Thompson has filed a cross-libel for divorce in her own behalf. Mrs. Franklin Thompson was formerly Ethel Ormrod, actress and singer. When the show is not on the road Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Thompson live at West Swanzey, N. H. Mr. Thompson's home, Denman Thompson owns the "old homestead" in West Swanzey, N. H., and retires to its comfort when not on the stage. His son, Franklin Thompson, is manager of the place. In the play everything moves with serene calm on the "old homestead" and everything was supposed to be harmonious on the West Swanzey farm. But the double divorce proceedings between Franklin Thompson and his wife indicate that something has sadly upset the pastoral peace of the West Swanzey home. There is considerable mystery concerning just what is at the bottom of the proceedings. Both suits are on the October docket of the Cheshire county, N. H., superior court, and are expected to come up at the Keene sessions. Keene is only a little way from West Swanzey, and all the West Swanzey populace is expected to be at Keene courthouse when the cases are called. Mr. Thompson's divorce libel was filed through the office of Attorney Charles Hersey, who refuses to discuss the case. Mrs. Thompson has filed a cross-libel through her lawyer, John E. Allen of Keene. Mr. Allen is equally reticent on the subject. Meanwhile both Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Thompson are in New York. Mr. Thompson is there managing his father's celebrated show, which is playing at the Academy of Music, in that city. Mrs. Thompson is in New York, but it is not thought that she is with her husband.

BLAMES WIFE

MAN SAYS SHE DROVE HIM TO SUICIDE

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Is a wife justified in refusing to live with her husband because of his drinking habits even though he has told her that he will take his own life if she persists in her refusal? This is the question of ethics involved in the tragic suicide of a Waltham man in a Tremont street hotel yesterday.

"My wife is the cause of this," scribbled on a slip of paper tucked in one of his pockets, is the only clue the Boston police have to account for the death of the man who was found locked in his room and with a bullet hole through the head.

"Isn't This About the Limit?"

A Good Mediterranean

BATH

SPONGE

25c better one for 40c
And a still better one for
90c
These are genuine Mandruka Sponges.

C. B. COBURN CO.
63 Market Street

COTTON FUTURES
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Cotton futures opened steady. Oct. 24; Nov. —; Dec. 8.92; Jan. 8.82; Feb. —; March 8.75; April —; May 8.73; June —; July 8.66; Aug. —.

SCENE FROM "MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH"

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

MRS. WIGGS

The original "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is not quite as sunny a soul as she was before Alice Hagan Rice discovered her to the world in her stories and since Anne Crawford Flexner dramatized her. Time has made much of the head that once lay down so easily in the "Cabbage Patch" of the Louisville suburb, and insistent visitors, eager for a bit of first hand philosophy, oftentimes receive and to say a first class scolding. Indeed, the impetuous prototype of Mrs. Wiggs not long since doused an excellent society lady with water, and was summoned to police court, where she was honorably discharged.

"I won't trouble nobody," if nobody can't trouble me. They can't put me in books and in stage plays until they're sick of it, but you all have got to expect clear of me in person," remarked the "Mrs. Wiggs" of Louisville to a reporter recently. Meanwhile, the sale of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovey Mary" has gone into the hundreds of thousands, and in their dramatized form the characters of the book are still more effective and entertaining. New York never took more kindly to anyone than to Mrs. Wiggs, and for 19 performances the Savoy theatre was crowded by folk seeking a surcease from boredom. Right in line with the excellence of books and play is the east portraying the numerous excellent roles Helen Weatherly, "Mrs. Wiggs," "Minnie Milne," "Miss Hazy," "Parker Patton," "Lovey Mary," "Harry Buchanan," "Mrs. Stubbins," and a score of others have added new and living stage pictures to the gallery of the American drama. All this "Cabbage Patch" will be seen here at the Opera

ON THANKSGIVING DAY

The Bennett-Moulton Co. should be congratulated on securing this play, and its millions of patrons should be congratulated on having a chance to witness it. It is a beautiful drama of rural life in New England of the type that has been so popular ever since the "Old Homestead" was first presented. Its beautiful simplicity, its rugged honesty of purpose, its constant atmosphere will appeal to the most cultured and worldly. Away down in every American heart there is a tender spot for old-fashioned people of New England. We love the old songs, we respect the old traditions, we laugh at the quaint and witty sayings. It is safe to say that there is no kind of play that has given as much genuine satisfaction and pleasure as the good old "Thanksgiving Day," with a heart interest that holds us till the end, yet bringing over with so much fun that one can truthfully say each tear is driven away by a smile.

Three special scenes are carried by the company for this production, and no expense or trouble has been spared to make it as true to nature as possible. The production returns with the company on Tuesday evening. Matinee commencing Tuesday. Ladies' tickets issued for Monday evening.

GRACE GEORGE

"Divisions," the Sardon comedy in which Grace George comes down to earth, was adapted from the French by Margaret Mayo. Miss George is the youngest actress who has ever essayed the role of "Cyprien," and Miss Mayo is also credited with being the youngest adapter of the works of the French master playwright.

heart's life and confound the bully. There are several other pictures, the usual comedies and two very pleasing songs on the bill.

STAR THEATRE

Talking pictures, without doubt the best thing in the moving picture line yet seen, are having enormous success at the Star. Although they are a novelty, they are here to stay. The pictures that are found to be many times more interesting than those that are silent. "A Glorious Fool" has made a great hit and today will be seen for the last time. "The Hidden Hand" will be seen for the last two days. An excellent drama full of exciting experiences from start to finish. A woman of wealth is kidnapped and held prisoner for many years in a remote island. She is rescued and found by her friends, however, and the outlaws receive their just deserts.

In addition to the talking pictures, the regular shows are to be seen. Mr. Myers is making a hit with "You'll Always be Just Sweet Sixteen to Me." The Hibernian Sun has given a very good success with "Playing School," a very pretty and catchy popular song.

The comedy pictures are full of laughs.

Calmet, Associate, Chestnuts, Friday eve.

HIGH ST. CHURCH

MEETING OF MEN'S CLUB HELD

LAST NIGHT

The first monthly meeting of the year by the Men's Club of High Street church was held in the church vestry last night. Supper was served under the direction of C. W. Whidden, chairman of the supper committee. The club president, Dr. V. E. Darling read an address in which he referred to the plans of the club for the coming year. He thought that the religious and serious subjects should be left out of the meetings to be substituted by talks and entertainments.

He thought the club should consider the problem of what could be done to help the young men and boys of the city out of temptation. His plan was to have a building erected for the youth of the city, in which could be swimming pools, reading rooms, billiard rooms and other forms of entertainment; that religion should be left out of such a place, but that everything should be maintained in a moral atmosphere.

The "Hibernian" Chestnuts, tomorrow night.

HURRAH! HURRAH!

Ladies and Gentlemen: Get your clothing cleaned, pressed, dyed and repaired at the Merrimack Steam Drycleaning, 177 Merrimack street. Gent's Suits cleaned and pressed. $1.25. Coats' Pants cleaned and pressed. 50c. Best work in Lowell at the lowest prices. Remember the place. F. P. LEW, PROP. 477 Merrimack Street

HAYES PROPERTY

SOLD AT AUCTION TO PORTLAND MAN BY CONANT

The W. H. I. Hayes property on Middlesex between Arch streets, known as the Frontenac hotel, Harry Clapp stables, the Bay State cigar store, and nine flats, some 12,363 square feet of land with the buildings thereon, was sold yesterday afternoon for James J. Kerwin and Albert J. Blazon, administrators of the estate of W. H. I. Hayes, to A. Goodside of Portland, Maine, for $32,450 plus taxes, etc., for the current year. The sale was under the management of Messrs. J. B. Conant & Co. and like all their sales, was packed without limit or reserve of any kind whatsoever to the highest bona fide bidder, regardless of any condition of the weather. The property was assessed for $35,000. The sale was splendidly attended. The bidding proceeded with considerable regularity. The property was sold for $25,000, and the bids moved along by $500, $250, $100 and $50, finally reaching $12,000 for the land, which included the structures.

The week before, the Stanley stable property on Howard street, near the corner of Middlesex street, was sold under the same management to A. P. Poirant for $12,000, per square foot, plus the taxes, etc., for the current year. This sale was also well attended and the bidding fully as spirited, although there were not quite so many bidders.

MATRIMONIAL

A beautiful home wedding took place, yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Sparks, 458 Westford street, when their daughter, Miss Charlotte Sparks, was united in marriage with Mr. Warren Otis Winsor, of Boston. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock in the parlors of the residence and Rev. J. M. Craig was the officiating clergyman. The ceremony was performed beneath an arch of tropical palms and ferns headed by a bower of potted plants. Hibbard's orchestra played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and at the conclusion of the ceremony, Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore ivory satin, trimmed with Venetian rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was Miss Edith Sparks, a sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were Misses Lillian and Margaret Sparks, both of Lowell. The best man was Dr. William K. S. Thomas of Cambridge, and the ushers were Messrs. H. Leslie Chambers and Roy E. Lovejoy of this city. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a diamond locket, and his gifts to the best man and ushers were pearl stud pins. The bride's gift to the maid of honor was a silver bag.

After the wedding a dinner was served by the Page company and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Winsor departed for Boston in an automobile.

The decorations were of yellow, pink and white. The parlors were decorated with pink chrysanthemums and with large baskets of the same flowers. The reception room was adorned with pink chrysanthemums and asparagus ferns. The yellow chrysanthemums were used in the dining room. The piazza separated from the other rooms by a screen of autumn foliage, mostly purple and blue, was used as a smoking room. The happy couple were the recipients of many gifts. After an extended wedding tour they will take up their residence at 434 Westford street where they will be at home to friends after December 1.

LIZOTTE-HEBERT

Mr. Louis Lizotte and Miss Leda Hebert were married yesterday afternoon at St. Louis' church, by Rev. Fr. Jacques, the pastor. The bride was attended by her father, Mr. Severin Hebert, and the bridegroom, by his father, Mr. Louis Lizotte. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bridegroom in Beauharnois street, and in the evening a reception took place at the home of the bride, 269 West Sixth street. Mr. and Mrs. Lizotte, who have received many beautiful gifts, will reside at 259 West Sixth street.

HARRIS-McLAUGHLIN

Mr. Edward Harris and Miss Mary McLaughlin were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Timothy Callahan being the officiating clergyman. The witnesses were Sylvester Harris and Thomas McLaughlin. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, 15 Claire street. Mr. and Mrs. Harris left on a wedding tour. They received numerous wedding gifts.

ARMSTRONG-PREVORS

Mr. Charles H. Armstrong and Miss Mary Prevors, both of Lowell, were married yesterday at 6 o'clock p.m. by Rev. J. M. Craig, at his residence, 3 Belmont street. They will live at 50 Lee street.

The groom will be remembered by the sporting fraternity as Charles Haighley, a boxer of some note.

TARR-GRAHAM

At the home of Frank H. Preston in West Lebanon, N. H., brother-in-law of the bride, there was held Tuesday night a most charming wedding in which the many friends of the bride and groom were invited. The bride, Miss Mary Tarr of Lowell, Mass., and Miss Kathryn A. Graham of Scottstown, P. Q., were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Gifford, pastor of the Congregational church of West Lebanon.

Miss Verna Preston, niece of the bride, acted as maid of honor.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST-A gold locket attached to a chain, with a portrait of a man, found on the street. Reward at 41 Main street.

LOST-Small change bag, between Lawrence street and Middlesex street, by way of Church and Middlesex streets. Owner's name on inside of bag. Reward for return to 41 Lawrence st.

LOST-A blue felt hat, between Lawrence academy and Fulton street. Return to 111 School street.

LOST-Friday night, lady's gold locket and chain, between South Whipple street and Merrimack street. Monday, M. S. Return to Kipling's, 177 Merrimack street, and receive reward.

FOUND-A pair of spectacles. Owner can have same by calling and identifying at Clarke Harris, East Hillside.

New and Second-Hand TYPEWRITERS

All kinds bought and sold, rented and exchanged. Typewriter repairing a specialty, by expert repair men. Supplied with all machines. Clarence I. Drayton, 4 Howe Bldg., Lowell, Mass. Tel. 428.

bride, was bridemaid. Mr. Arnold A. Ryan of Lowell acted as bestman. Miss Gwendolyn Shattell played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bride party entered the room. The house was decorated with potted plants, ferns and flowers. After the ceremony, which took place at 4 p.m., refreshments were enjoyed and a reception was given the young couple, who left on the 6:30 train for New York on an extended wedding tour, carrying such points of interest as Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Montreal, Quebec, etc. On their return they will reside in Stouffville, Mass. Mr. Tarr, connected with Smith & Wallace, Woburn, Mass., as head draughtsman.

Many out-of-town people attended the wedding, among them were Mrs. John MacMillan of Scottstown, P. Q., mother of the bride; Mrs. Frank Shattell of St. Johnsbury, Vt.; Mrs. J. P. Hood and daughter Marietta, of Portland, Me.; Mrs. Lizzie Graham, Hanover, N. H.; Mr. Marshall Graham, Groton, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Tarr of Lowell, parents of the bridegroom; Harold Tarr, Somerville, Mass.; and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Paretsky and daughter Florence, of Lowell, and many other friends.

LEGAL NOTICES

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the persons interested in the estate of Sadie E. Huntington, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain testamentary paper, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Lucy Huntington Upton, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executor therein named, as said Huntington Upton, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in the County of Middlesex, on the fourth day of November, A. D. 1908, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give notice of the fact of her petition in this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court within and for the County of Middlesex:

Thomas Hibbard, libels and represents Plazza Mixon of Middlesex, in said County, that she was lawfully married to Frederick H. Mixon, now of parts unknown, at said Middlesex, in the County of Middlesex, on the first day of December next, by causing an attested copy of said libel and of the original thereof to be published in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, once a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Frederick H. Mixon.

Dated this nineteenth day of October, A. D. 1908.

ELIZA MIXON.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Superior Court. October 19, A. D. 1908.

Upon the libel aforesaid, it is ordered that the libellant notify the libellee to appear at said Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Monday of December next, by causing an attested copy of said libel and of the original thereof to be published in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, once a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Frederick H. Mixon.

Dated this nineteenth day of October, A. D. 1908.

THEO. C. HURD, Clerk.

A true copy of the libel and of the order thereon.

Attest, THEO. C. HURD, Clerk.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court within and for the County of Middlesex:

Respectfully libels and represents Lavina A. Cooper of Lowell, in said County, that she was lawfully married to the said Henry Cooper, now of parts unknown, at said Middlesex, in the County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fifth day of February, A. D. 1901, and thereafter, your libellant and the said Henry Cooper lived together as husband and wife, until the death of the said Henry Cooper, being wholly regardless of the same, has contracted gross and confirmed habits of intemperance, caused by the voluntary and excessive use of intoxicating liquor.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Henry Cooper, and that the custody of their minor child, Henry B. Cooper, be given to said libel, so forth, should not be granted.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of April, A. D. 1907.

LAVINIA A. COOPER.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Superior Court. October 20, A. D. 1908.

Upon the libel aforesaid, it is ordered that the libellant notify the libellee to appear at said Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Monday of December next, by causing an attested copy of said libel and of the original thereof to be published in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, once a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Henry Cooper, and that the custody of their minor child, Henry B. Cooper, be given to said libel, so forth, should not be granted.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of April, A. D. 1907.

LAVINIA A. COOPER.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Superior Court. October 20, A. D. 1908.

Upon the libel aforesaid, it is ordered that the libellant notify the libellee to appear at said Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Monday of December next, by causing an attested copy of said libel and of the original thereof to be published in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, once a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Henry Cooper, and that the custody of their minor child, Henry B. Cooper, be given to said libel, so forth, should not be granted.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of April, A. D. 1907.

LAVINIA A. COOPER.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Superior Court. October 20, A. D. 1908.

Upon the libel aforesaid, it is ordered that the libellant notify the libellee to appear at said Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Monday of December next, by causing an attested copy of said libel and of the original thereof to be published in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, once a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Henry Cooper, and that the custody of their minor child, Henry B. Cooper, be given to said libel, so forth, should not be granted.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of April, A. D. 1907.

LAVINIA A. COOPER.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Superior Court. October 20, A. D. 1908.

Upon the libel aforesaid, it is ordered that the libellant notify the libellee to appear at said Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Monday of December next, by causing an attested copy of said libel and of the original thereof to be published in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, once a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be on or before the third day of October, A. D. 1908, and to deliver a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Henry Cooper, and that the custody of their minor child, Henry B. Cooper, be given to said libel, so forth, should not be granted.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of April, A. D. 1907.

LAVINIA A. COOPER.

AMERICAN FLEET

Is Welcomed by Chinese Merchants

BALHAIANG, Oct. 29.—The Chinese chamber of commerce here has sent a message to Admiral Sperry welcoming the Americans to China. This action is considered among foreigners here as noteworthy as the chamber of commerce is the body that led the boycott against American goods here three years ago.

SITUATIONS WANTED

WANTED—Situations by young man, doing work in blacksmith shop; good worker. Inquire at 40 Anawan street.

SITUATION WANTED—By a good farm hand, first class milkster. Inquire at 12 West Sixth street, Centralville.

SITUATION WANTED—A young girl would like a position as assistant in doing general housework or could take care of children. Apply 22 Waverly st.

SITUATION WANTED—By respectable woman as housekeeper for a widower. No objection to one child. Inquire at 125 Paid street, near Alken. Call after 6 o'clock.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY LOANED—Salaried people, real estate merchants, farmers and others, without security, easy payments. In 63 leading cities. Tolman, room 45, Middlesex Building, 45 Merrimack st.

LOANS

NEGOTIATED PRIVATELY $10 and UPWARDS

A loan can be obtained through us cheaper and more quickly than of any firm in the city.

Our Easy Plan $10 and upwards. You pay only the actual time you have the money, and you can make that time short or long to suit yourself. Call, write or phone 2434. Information free. Open from 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m. Mondays, Fridays, Saturdays 9 a. m.

American Loan Co.

AGENTS ROOM 10 HILBRETH BUILDING 45 MERRIMACK STREET

MONEY on CREDIT

with or without security. We conduct a private banking business for salaried people, merchants, boarding house keepers and others. Will loan you any reasonable amount of money at 1 per cent. per month. No borrower should pay more. Loans made on furniture, pianos, etc., on short notice.

COMMISSIONS PAID All business strictly confidential. Offices in all the principal cities of New England.

MERRIMACK LOAN CO. ROOM 3, 81 MERRIMACK ST. Hours from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Monday and Saturday until 9 p. m.

Now is the Time

To Put Your Wood in for Winter

I have a good supply of all kinds ready for prompt delivery. Wholesale or retail. A. A. BROWN, 73 Inland st. Tel. 2320.

BOSTON &amp; MAINE R. R.

THROUGH TRAIN SERVICE Trains Leave Lowell

In Effect October 5, 1908.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CINCINNATI—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

INDIANAPOLIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

DETROIT—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

CHICAGO—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:10 p. m., 7:40 p. m., 9:10 p. m.

ST. LOUIS—6:22 a. m., 8:41 a. m., 10:20 a. m., 11:50 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 1:50 p. m., 3:10 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6

THE WEATHER

Rain tonight and Friday morning, followed by clearing. Cooler Friday evening and night; light northerly to easterly winds, increasing.

THE LOWELL SUN

6 O'CLOCK

ESTABLISHED 1878

LOWELL MASS. THURSDAY OCTOBER 29 1908

PRICE ONE CENT

NIGHT EDITION

STREETS AND SEWERS

Work That is Being Done in This City

When Supt. Morse of the street department started in on the job of lowering the Merrimack street sewer he allowed that he would finish the job within 45 days, providing he did not encounter too much ledge. However he did strike ledge.

Asked today if he thought he would finish the job within the 45 days, Mr. Morse said: "I think so, unless I strike more ledge on the other side of Central street. We are up against a pretty stiff ledge now and just as soon as we get a little farther along I'll have two steam drills working. It won't cost much to run them; we have the boiler and engine on the ground and in fact there is surplus steam enough now to run one drill and there will be no extra expense except the cost of the extra steam for one drill."

"The work is going along first rate and the trolley system is now in a position to show what it can do. There are 15 buckets in operation today, nine up and nine down, and you can see for yourself how fast they operate. The trolley system is the only thing for a big or quick sewer job."

The Oakland Sewer
Speaking of other sewer and street work Mr. Morse said that the Oakland sewer job was moving along in good shape and that the worst of the drilling had been gone through with; the ledge having dropped from 16 feet to 8 feet.

"The lowering of the Dutton street sewer is another big job that the department has on its hands at the present time. About 200 feet of sewer is being lowered in that street. The average extra depth is five feet and Charlie Morse says it will be deep enough for all time. Hereafter the sewer was not done enough to drain the Associate building because it was just about on a dead level with the basement of that building and the result was that in rainy weather a great deal of trouble was experienced. This condition of affairs, Mr. Morse says, will be remedied by the lowering of the sewer."

Work on Streets

As to street work Mr. Morse said that work had to be suspended on the Middlesex street job today because of the rain of last night. The rain made the sand sticky and clogged so that it would not run under the blocks properly.

Mr. Morse said he would have finished the Middlesex street job Saturday, but for the delay caused by the rain.

Garnet Street Set in Blocks
Garnet street is to be "set" with block paving. "This street," said Mr. Morse, "has always been macadamized and it never lasted more than three years at a time. There is a great deal of heavy travel through that street. It is impossible for heavily loaded teams on their way to the freight houses to climb the steep hill at the depot and in order to avoid the hill they go down Middlesex street to Garnet and through Garnet to Appleton. I will pave Garnet street with the best of the blocks that we have taken from Middlesex street."

Other Street Work
"We will finish up on Foster, Crowley and Sheldon streets, Saturday night and then we will tackle Dover street. That street is to be macadamized from Grove street to Westford street."

"We will also tackle the Pine street job. That street has got to be straightened and widened. We will have to cut in toward the school house and make it wide enough so that teams can pass without taking the narrow side of the car tracks. These and other small jobs will keep us hustling till the snow flies."

MET TIDAL WAVE

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—While the steamer Ivernia, which arrived here today from Liverpool was steaming along over a smooth sea the second day out from Queenstown she met head-on what her captain said was a tidal wave which thundered aboard knocked over nearly everyone on board and severely injured six steerage passengers. Many of those on the upper deck were thrown down by the sudden creaking of the vessel as the wave came along without the slightest warning.

On the steering deck forward the wave broke over the bow and washed away many of those who were walking about the deck into the scuppers where they were thrown against the bits and other deck fittings.

The deck hands carried six of the more severely injured to the ship's hospital and on the arrival of the Ivernia they were transferred to the city hospital.

The cause of the particular stir is due to the approach of the state election and to prepare for the event is no small job. In fact it is a very big job and in order to make any kind of haste one must be familiar with the work.

Among the many things that must be on hand, packed and ready for distribution on Tuesday morning are copies of the election law and supplements, list of precinct officers, pay roll for election officers, voting list certified to by board of registrars, specimen ballot, record book and seal, black box for ballots that are counted, red box for cancelled and unused ballots, various kinds of envelopes, total tally sheets, and there are about 75 names on a ballot, voting list for use of inspectors, voting lists for clerks and a hundred and one other things that must not be overlooked.

RELIGIOUS DAY
Saturday will be set apart as Religious day at the contrary exercises in Boston, and on that day the men and women connected with the different religious orders of the archdiocese, in the schools, hospitals and charitable institutions, will attend the mass in the cathedral.

Interest Begins Saturday, Nov. 7
—at—
THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK
58 CENTRAL ST.

WANT MORE MONEY

School Department Wants $100,000; Charity $15,000

The city is about to get a touch for $137,151 and perhaps a few thousand more.

The school department wants $100,000; the charity department $15,000 and the health department $12,151.50. Other departments may be heard from later.

The committee on appropriations will meet this evening at 8 o'clock and will listen to what the heads of these departments have to say about the amounts for which they have asked. As to the charity department, Supt. Courtney said this forenoon: "If the board of charities pulls through with $15,000 this year the board will be deserv-

A RUSHING BUSINESS

Superior Court Disposes of Ninety Cases

Clerk Ralph Smith of the superior court bids fair to excel his unprecedented record for the volume of business transacted at a session of the superior court made in Lowell at a recent session of the court, at the term now being held at the court house.

The session opened three weeks and three days ago with 160 cases on the list and in the short time that court has been in session, 90 cases have been disposed of, either by trial or settlement, while several more have been referred to auditors.

Yesterday Clerk Smith, who is a stickler for short lists, that is cases ready for trial at a moment's notice, prepared a short list of eight cases, all of which were ready for trial, but within 24 hours five were settled, one continued by reason of counsel being engaged in Cambridge, one referred to an auditor and one ready for trial.

The case ready for trial was that of Leda Proulx, administratrix of the estate of Celestine Proulx who on March 2, 1905 while employed by the J. W. Bishop construction company in tearing down one of the buildings of the Bigelow carpet company met with an accident which resulted in his death on March 15. The widow sues to recover $5000. The jury was empaneled but when the case was opened it was discovered that some important witnesses were absent and a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

During the morning recess as it would be impossible to call another case later Judge White excused all jurors not sitting in the Proulx case until Wednesday for the court does not sit on election day. When the Proulx jury has reported it also will be excused until Wednesday.

The case of Chamberlain vs. Boston and Northern which was on trial yesterday was settled before the conclusion of the trial. J. J. O'Connor appeared for the plaintiff.

The case of O'Dowd vs. Bunker & Hennessy to recover for the heating of the old Rollaway building in Hurd street and for certain repairs in the building which was on the short list this morning referred to Nathan D. Pratt as auditor. John J. Harvey for the plaintiff and Messrs. Howard and Hennessy for the defendants.

LOST BABE FOUND

And Villagers Parade Streets of Walpole Triumphant

WALPOLE, Oct. 29.—Her tiny face was white and her hair was matted with exposure in the dismal cedar swamp where she had strayed, and sobbing softly with fright, 3-year-old Emma Schneider was returned to her astonished mother at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Fireman William Donahue, who found the child after an all night and all day search by the police and fire departments and 200 citizens.

Around the mother and the big fireman crowded the army of searchers, and as the weeping woman clasped her child to her breast and covered the little upturned face with kisses, hats were thrown in the air and a mighty cheer burst forth. In her moment of supreme joy the mother fainted.

Prize shotguns and rifles and cheering tumultuously, the searchers escorted Donahue through the streets. Following the tension of the search the town went into a frenzy of excitement. "Until the child recovers from her fright and exhaustion how she came to be lost in the cedar swamp cannot be told, and even then her baby prattle may not fully explain the mystery."

The story of Emma Schneider, the babe who was lost and found, will long be the town topic in Walpole. Yesterday noon the little girl was playing in the yard of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider, who live on North Main street on the outskirts of the village.

When Mr. Schneider returned from the factory of S. Gray & Co., where he is employed, for dinner, the little girl had disappeared. The mother thought she had strayed from sight, and when she went to call her for an afternoon nap she could not find her. Calling on neighbors for assistance, a party was organized, but their attempts to locate the child were unavailing.

Mr. Schneider was notified and then he recalled that he had seen a band of

GOVERNOR GUILD

Seized With Attack of Gastritis

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Gov. Guild is again confined to his house with a severe attack of gastritis, according to a statement issued from the executive department at the state house at 2.15 p. m. today. It was stated that the attack will probably keep him at home for the remainder of the week.

Following is the statement issued this afternoon: Gov. Guild's eagerness to resume full work and responsibility of his office has been too much for his strength and he is confined to the house by an attack of gastritis. It is not regarded as of a serious character although it will keep him in the house for the remainder of the week.

This is the third time this year that Gov. Guild has been forced to relinquish his duties owing to illness. On the 4th of last March he had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism and a severe heart attack. For nearly a week the governor's condition was extremely critical and at one time it was thought that he would be able to live but a few hours. He rallied, however, and after nearly three months' convalescence was able to take up his work at the state house.

He had been at his desk scarcely a month when he was stricken down with an attack of appendicitis on Aug. 14 and was obliged to undergo an operation which confined him to his home at Nahant for several weeks longer.

He was able to take up his duties several weeks ago and has spoken once or twice during the present campaign. He appeared last night at the centennial anniversary of the Catholic diocese in this city at a huge meeting in Symphony hall where his remarks were hailed with enthusiasm.

STOCK MARKET

Today's Quotations on Active Stocks

The following are the closing quotations of today's stock market for active stocks:
Furnished by F. W. Mills, Hildreth Bldg.

NEW YORK STOCKS
Atchafalpa	92 3/4
Am. Beet Sugar	20 1/2
Am. Cotton Oil	34 3/4
Am. Lumber	46 1/2
Am. Sugar	133
Am. Smelting and Ref. Co.	92 1/2
Am. Locomotive	50 1/2
Anaconda	46 1/2
Am. Ice Storage	24 1/2
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	49 1/2
Baltimore & Ohio	49 1/2
Chesapeake & Ohio	43 1/2
Chicago & Great Western	7 1/2
Colorado Fuel and Iron	37
Distillers' Securities	30 1/4
Eric	14
Great Northern	132 1/2
Louisville and Nashville	109 1/2
Canadian Pacific	27 1/2
Cent. Leather	25
Illinois Central	139 1/2
Int. Steam Pump	30
Eric	31 1/2
Mexican Central	17 1/2
Missouri, Kansas & T.	30 1/2
Missouri, Kansas & T. pfd.	54 1/2
Missouri Pacific	36
Norfolk	14 1/2
New York Central	145 1/2
New York Airbrake	75
National Lead	54 1/2
Norfolk	75
Pennsylvania	126 1/2
Pacific Mail	26
Pressed Steel Car	32 1/2
Reading	132 1/2
Railway Steel Spring	40
Rock Island	19 1/2
Southern Railway	45 1/2
Southern Railway pfd.	25 1/2
U. S. Steel pfd.	110 1/2
Union Pacific	171 1/2
Utah Copper	43 1/2
Southern Pacific	105 1/2
St. Paul	142 1/2
Tenn. Copper	46 1/2
U. S. Steel	48
U. S. Rubber	33
People's Gas	36 1/2
Wabash pfd.	28
W. U. T.	52 1/2
Westinghouse	81 1/2

BOSTON STOCKS

Am. T & T	126 1/2
Butte	26 1/2
Boston Com.	194 1/2
Cent.	32 1/2
Copper	77 1/2
Green Con.	194 1/2
La. Sals	127 1/2
Mass. Electric	91 1/2
Mass. Electric pfd.	55 1/2
Mass. Gas	56
Mass. Gas pfd.	56
Mohawk	85
North Butte	82 1/2
Old Dominion	32 1/2
Parrott	28
Quincy	93
Trinity	18 1/2
Shannon	16
United Fruit Ex-rights	130
Utah	40
Woolen pfd.	92

* Ex-dividend.

GOV. HUGHES IN OSWEGO
OSWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Gov. Hughes arrived this morning and spoke to a large audience. He outlined the result of his endeavors to give the state a representative administration and specified the remedial measures adopted.

HALL TO LET

The hall in the Harrington building, 52 Central street, will be vacated December 1st. For further particulars inquire at THE SUN OFFICE.

EXTRA

IT WILL COST $1815

For Work of Sand Blasting and Painting Two Bridges

The question of sand blasting and painting the Lundberg and Wilder street bridges has been settled at last. The company that is putting in the new sidewalks on the canal bridge in East Merrimack street, the Albany Construction company, will do the job and the price agreed upon is $1815. The job of sand blasting and painting these two bridges is looked upon as a rather unenviable one and the work is made especially hard because of the smoke from the trains passing back and forth.

"I would have done the job myself," said Supt. Morse of the street department. "But I have no sand blast so I arranged with Mr. Kittredge of the Albany Construction company to do the work."

Mr. Morse tried to negotiate with the Boston & Maine to do the sand blasting and painting. Engineer Bowers went to Boston to confer with the Boston & Maine people and found that they did not want any part of the job, but the company was finally induced to submit figures which were not accepted by Mr. Morse because he thought them too extravagant.

The Boston & Maine wanted about $1400 to do the work, the city to provide the paint.

2000 ICE SHARES

Bought to Help Liquidate a Loan of $1,000,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Charles Morse, the promoter and financier, who with Alfred Curtis, former president of the National Bank of North America, now is on trial on a charge of violation of the national banking laws, may go on the stand today. Curtis already has told the main portion of his story and in many instances sought to place the responsibility for bad loans on Morse. Unless his testimony is remarkably altered as a result of the questioning which had assumed the nature of a cross examination when counsel adjourned last night by counsel for Morse, the one time "ice king" will have a serious task before him when he goes on the stand as a witness in his own behalf.

It was expected that Curtis would be subjected to exhaustive questioning today both by counsel for Morse and the attorneys for the government but there was a possibility that this might be completed and Morse called to the stand before adjournment tonight.

When the trial was resumed today Mr. Curtis was recalled to the stand and cross-examined by U. S. District Attorney Stimson. The witness said that Charles T. Barney and Mr. Morse frequently discussed the ice situation and were optimistic regarding the company's future. Mr. Stimson next took up the liquidation of the $100,000 Whiting loan through the purchase by the bank of two thousand ice at $20 per share and the making of a loan to Mr. Morse of $100,000 on the 100 shares of copper that had been put up to strengthen the original Whiting loan.

Mr. Curtis insisted that the 200 ice purchased by the bank from Morse at $20 per share could have been sold in the market for ready cash and the proceeds would have liquidated the loan. He thought that this materially improved the bank's position. The stock was not sold, however.

Mr. Curtis declared that not until long afterwards had he known of the purchase of 50 shares of copper, originally put up in addition to the 100 shares as collateral on the making of the Whiting loan.

"Tell us the entire conversation," interrupted Mr. Littlefield, counsel for Morse. "Tell us who was the counsel."

"Well, I went to Mr. Stimson and he gave me an honest, fair opinion against that loan. But despite that fact when our directors were told Mr. Elliott was many times a millionaire the board of directors approved the loan and it was made despite Mr. Stimson's advice and written opinion."

That was three years ago, Curtis said. Curtis was next asked concerning his reference to "kiddering" in the letter to Mr. Morse. Mr. Littlefield at this juncture jumped to his feet and declared that the cross-examination of the witness was aimed at Mr. Morse and not against Mr. Curtis.

STEAMER LOST

Crew of Eighteen Men Perished

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Wreckage picked up in the north sea confirm the fears that the steamer Yarmouth foundered two days ago while crossing from the Hook of Holland to Harwich. The Yarmouth was a channel freighter belonging to the Great Eastern railway company. She carried a crew of eighteen and it is believed they all perished.

SCHOOLS CLOSE

TOMORROW FOR TEACHERS' CONVENTION

All the public schools of the city will close tomorrow to enable the teachers to attend the teachers' convention in Boston. This year the High school will suspend its session along with the other schools as the High school teachers are desirous of attending the meeting.

Mrs. John J. Manchester and daughter, Mrs. Jeanette V., were among the Lowell people who attended the services at the cathedral Wednesday in Boston. They also attended the mass meeting at Symphony hall in the evening.

90 PRISONERS

Leaders of "Night Riders" Under Guard

CAMP NEMO, Sanburg, Tenn., Oct. 29.—There are now more than ninety prisoners in camp here. It is practically certain that the most important night riders are now under guard and while the soldiers do not expect to go home for some time it is generally supposed that the greater portion of the work here has been accomplished.

Last night Captain Zepf of Nashville with a squad of men went to the home of "Doc" Haffner and forced him to get out of bed and accompany them to camp. He is believed to be a prisoner of importance.

Gov. Patterson remains in camp. James Bryce, editor of the Troy News-Banner, who was brought in yesterday has been released and is again at his home.

F. C. Ward, proprietor of the hotel at Walnut Log was given his liberty today. Nothing important was secured from him.

CHANLER KEPT BUSY
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Lieut. Gov. Chanler, after three days spent in Great New York, two of them in campaigning with W. J. Bryan, is carrying his flint for governor into the far north country of the state today.

LOWELL INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS
INCORPORATED 1829
THE OLD LOWELL SAVINGS BANK
INTEREST BEGINS NOVEMBER 7
18 SHATTUCK ST.

6 O'CLOCK SUICIDE COMPACT Man and Woman Decided to Die Together

ORENFIELD, Oct. 29.—That Benjamin Gaines and Harriet Mabel Wing whose bodies were found last night in front of the woman's boarding place on Wells street had determined to die together was made evident today when letters from Gaines and the young woman were found on a desk at Gaines' home here. Three letters were found, two having been written by the woman and one by Gaines. In addition Gaines left a brief note asking that the young woman's parents, B. S. Jones of Townsend, Vt., and Mrs. H. A. Jones of Langdon, N. H., be notified.

None of the letters was dated. In one letter addressed to Gaines the young woman wrote that her health was bad and that she wished to die. She requested that her watch, and ring and a picture of "Frank" be buried with her. From the tone of the letter it was believed that the Frank referred to was engaged to marry the young woman, but not one here knew anything further about him, his last name and place of residence still remaining a mystery.

In the second letter the young woman wrote:

"I have decided to go. I could not sleep last night. If you could have been with me to care me. But no, I am all alone, with no one to care for me. Please think kindly of me. Good-bye. With love."

This letter was signed "Harriet." The third letter was written by Gaines and directed to his parents. In it he asked that the young woman's wishes regarding the disposition of her trinkets be respected in case anything should happen to him. He also left directions relating to the disposition of his insurance money and other private matters.

It developed today that the Wing woman had been married and divorced and that her husband with a daughter aged 8 or 9 years is now living at Putney, Vt. The first name of her former husband is not known here.

Although the bodies of Gaines and Mrs. Wing were not found until late last night, shots were heard at 6:20 p.m. indicating that the tragedy was enacted at that time. Fifteen minutes earlier a brother of Gaines had met the couple and the young woman seemed in excellent spirits, laughing and joking.

Medical Examiner Twitchell said today that from the nature of the three bullet wounds Mrs. Wing could not have shot herself. He also said that Gaines shot her, although the police accept the theory that Gaines fired three shots into the woman's breast and then sent a bullet into his own head.

OFFICERS CHOSEN HE TRIED SUICIDE By the State Body of After Being Fined for Red Men Selling Liquor

LYNN, Oct. 29.—At the annual meeting of the Great Sun council of the Improved Order of Red Men of Massachusetts held in this city today, Joseph Farrar of Philadelphia, great inebriate, raised up the following officers for the coming year:

Great sachem—William Higgins, Worcester.

Great prophet—F. M. Hall, Rockport.

Great senior sagamore—Allen Weeks, Middleboro.

Great junior sagamore—Samuel Warner, Westfield.

New members to the number of 156 were presented.

A business session was held at which the usual appropriations were voted and salary of the great chief of records, Alexander Fillmore of Swampscott was increased for one year from $1200 to $1300.

WOICESTER, Oct. 29.—After being fined $212 and sentenced to thirty days in jail for illegal liquor keeping, Carl Delune, a barber, 41 years old, attempted suicide in the prison's dock of the superior criminal court today by cutting his throat with a knife. Two of the court officers jumped over into the pen and after a hard tussle managed to handcuff him. At the hospital the wound was found to be a slight one.

JUDGE DE HAVEN TO PASS ON THE REBATING CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—After argument on demurrers against indictments embracing 166 counts of rebating on shipments of mail from the Orient to Chicago against the Pacific mail steamship and the Southern Pacific railroad companies, the cases have been submitted to the decision of Judge De Haven of the U. S. district court.

The transportation companies contended that rates fixed by the interstate commerce commission cannot be applied to an ocean-carrier. In reply the federal attorneys hold that as the rates originally filed by the companies with the commission were "unitary" rates and accepted as such they were lawful and the lowering of any part of such rate was a violation of the laws.

GIRLS ESCAPED Fire Broke Out in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—Fire broke out in the New building, corner Race and Fourth streets today at noon and several girl employees of offices in the building jumped out of the windows. The building is ten stories high and located in the heart of the downtown retail district.

MISS MASTERSON LOWELL YOUNG LADY WON SCHOLARSHIP AT RADCLIFFE

Miss Frances U. Masterston, daughter of Lawyer Masterston, and a graduate of the Lowell high school has won a scholarship at Radcliffe college. Miss Masterston is a bright girl. She won this honor in competition with a large number of young ladies.

ESCORT DUTY COMPANY OF HIGH SCHOOL OFFICERS TO GO TO BOSTON

A provisional company of present officers and past officers of the High School regiment will be formed to act as escort to the St. Peter's Holy Name society on Sunday in Boston. The boys who will make up the company are all members of the parish and will be in command of Col. J. Henry Gilman, assisted by Lieut.-Col. Joseph P. Calahan and Major Thomas F. Markham. The boys will be attired in regulation uniform and will carry swords.

PROKOS ACCEPTS
Editor of the Lowell Sun:
Dear Sir:—I would kindly favor me by putting this in your paper. I saw in a morning paper that Jim Parr offers to throw the five times one hour. I wish to accept the challenge. Furthermore, as the promoters of wrestling in this city have not been giving me a chance to wrestle, I would very much like to have Jim Parr or any other man of my weight wrestle me, just to show the people what I can do. As for Jim Parr, I think I can beat him on even terms. And further, I have money enough to back my bets.

Yours for an early reply,
James Prokos.

CROWDED HOUSE Gathered to Hear Bryan Speak

COHUES, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Refreshed after a good night's rest, W. J. Bryan opened the last day of his campaign in New York state here early this morning. He spoke in the opera house to a crowd that filled every seat.

"We are not making this campaign merely for the excitement it brings," he said. "We are not seeking the success of our party merely to distribute offices but we are intensely earnest in behalf of the reforms which we think the country needs. We prepare his election and urged the people to vote for the democratic candidates for congress."

Mr. Bryan said that before the Democratic convention the republicans were very confident. "They said if the democrats would only nominate one we would have a quiet campaign and they would have a walkover. Well at this time we are able to forecast the result and what is the condition?"

He then spoke on the reports that had reached him showing democratic gains from republican parties.

Mr. Bryan charged that the United States is the bulwark of predatory wealth, and that favoring corporate wealth had control in the actions of republicans who were chosen to represent the people. He asserted that Mr. Taft had stolen a simple trust, because he said, "every trust magnate was supported by him, and out of the funds the republicans were expected to buy every vote that can be bought."

Mr. Bryan declared that the republican party was going backward and that the democratic party was going forward. He indicated he was particularly anxious to see the nomination of Frank B. Rowland as president, because he said that was the man who would lead the nation to peace and prosperity.

From Cohoes Mr. Bryan proceeded via Albany to Poughkeepsie, where he is due late in the afternoon.

PROSPERITY CIRCLE Prosperity club, L. O. O. F., will hold a social meeting at the Hotel Hamilton, Monday, Oct. 30, at 8 o'clock. Reminiscences were made by Mrs. Moody and Dr. Halloran. The song "The Prosperity Club" was sung by Miss W. C. Stafford. After Nov. 1st meetings will be held on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

REV. SARAH DIXON Tendered Farewell Reception Last Night

Rev. Sarah A. Dixon, former associate pastor of the First Unitarian Congregational church, was given a farewell reception in the church vestry last night, and many of her friends outside of the church attended the reception. In the receiving line with Rev. Miss Dixon and Miss Susan A. Gardner, who will accompany her on her trip to England, were the following:

REV. SARAH A. DIXON.

ing: Rev. and Mrs. George F. Kennigott; Deacon and Mrs. O. A. Brigham; Charles H. Richardson, chairman of the board of trustees; and Albert A. Ludwig, superintendent of the Sunday school.

The ushers were Dr. H. H. Sumner, Messrs. Charles H. Clogston, Edward Duran, Herbert Hope, Walter Muzzey, O. C. Frye and E. H. Simbury. The reception rooms were prettily decorated and the serving tables were drenched with the soft light of the shaded electric bulbs. The following ladies presided at the tables: Mrs. Albert E. Swapp and Mrs. William I. Wiggin; Mrs. Walter Muzzey and Mrs. Rosie Cushing; Mrs. H. H. Sumner and Mrs. James Stuart; Mrs. F. E. Y. Morse and Mrs. C. C. Garland.

A feature of the occasion was the presentation to Miss Dixon of eight ten-dollar gold pieces. The presentation was made by Mr. Charles H. Richardson. Miss Dixon replied feelingly and with deep appreciation.

Jas. E. Donnelly will sing at the Bachelors', Friday, Oct. 30.

FOUND DEAD WOMAN WAS KILLED BY INHALING GAS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Sarah B. Arnold, a widow, 45 years old, was found dead in her kitchen today, death having resulted from inhaling gas. Mrs. Arnold had turned on the gascocks of her range, then laid down on the floor to die.

TOOK HIS PHOTO BRANDENBURG ARRIVED IN NEW YORK TODAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Johannes Brandenburg, who was arrested in Dayton, O., in connection with the publication of the disputed Grover Cleveland letter, arrived here today in custody of a detective attached to the district attorney's office. Brandenburg waived extradition in Ohio and returned to New York voluntarily.

He was taken to police headquarters, where he was "booked up" before the detectives with other prisoners and after his photograph and measurements had been taken he was taken to the court of general sessions.

When Brandenburg was arraigned in the court of general sessions he pleaded not guilty to a charge of larceny in the second degree. He was released on $1500 bail pending trial.

HIS CONDITION CRITICAL NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The condition of John P. Cuddehorn, lessee and manager of the Hoffman house and one of the best known hotel men in the country, showed no improvement today and his hope was held out for his recovery. Mr. Cuddehorn, who is 81 years old, is suffering from cirrhosis of the liver, and has been in a critical condition for several days.

SALVATION ARMY Owing to the increased number of applicants for relief in the way of temporary employment, Capt. Green- away of the Salvation Army Industrial Home is making additional room at the home at Liberty square to accom- modate at least twenty more men.

During the summer the home was taxed to its utmost capacity, where it is rather unusual at such a time, but owing to the hard times the number of applicants has exceeded the capacity. With the approach of cold weather it is expected there will be greater demands for temporary employment. In fact at the present time it is impossible to deal with all who apply as there is a limit to the accommodation. At present there are some twenty men in the institution and with the improvements it is expected there will be room for about thirty more.

He is alive, "chestnuts" tomorrow night.

NOTICE! The Halloween party which was to be held in O. U. A. M. hall, Middle St. tomorrow night, by the under- signed young men, has been trans- ferred to Lincoln hall, Gorham St.

JOHN F. POWERS,
JOHN J. O'BROURKE,
JOSEPH A. MOLLOY,
JOHN F. SALMON,
WILLIAM O'BRIEN.

ALLEGED CRUELTY CHILDREN'S DAY John B. Clancy in Police Court Local Parochial School Children on That Charge at Boston Celebration

Small Boys Have Been Stealing From Department Stores— Lively Time on Lower Middle- sex Street

John B. Clancy, the well known expressman, whose stand is in Market street next to the police station, and his son, John, are in trouble again. It is the same old trouble—crucifix to a horse, and the same old complaint—Agent Richardson of the Lowell Humane society, Mr. Clancy and his son were before the court on similar offenses a few months ago and as a result the horse was sent to the rendering works and John B. purchased a new horse, but now it seems that the present animal is unfit for use. Hence the new complaints.

John B. and his son were arraigned in police court this morning, the former charged with having charge and custody of a certain animal which he knowingly and willfully authorized and permitted to be subjected to unnecessary suffering.

"What do you say to the complaint, Mr. Clancy?" asked Assistant Clerk Trull.

"I plead not guilty and want to have the case continued until a week from tomorrow," said Mr. Clancy. "I also wish to make a motion that I get a copy of specific charges preferred by the government."

"Well, I want a copy in the meantime."

"You can have a copy."

Judge Hadley decided to postpone the hearing of the case till next Wednesday and Mr. Clancy asked: "Will the court give me the middle day, Thursday?" The court wouldn't, however, and Clancy was held under $200 bonds for his appearance next Wednesday.

John Clancy, the son, was charged in the first complaint with cruelly driving a horse unit for labor, it being lame and feeble and in the second complaint with cruelly beating a horse. He also entered a plea of not guilty.

"I also want a copy of the specific charges in that case," shouted Mr. Clancy.

"You will have all the copies you want," returned the court.

The son was also held under $200 bonds for his appearance next Wednesday.

While the patrol wagon was passing Towers' corner, Patrolman Sheridan noticed a large crowd about the postoffice, and stopping the wagon rushed up to the postoffice where he found a man in his shirt sleeves, who was looking for fight. The sight of him, however, took all the fight out of him, and after a night in a cell he felt much better this morning.

In court he gave his name as James Dolan and said he hailed from Worcester. He was fined the usual $2 for being his first appearance before the court.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Patrolman Sheridan was informed that a big, burly fellow was cleaning out Appleton street, and an investigation brought to light Helmar, manager of Chelmsford Centre, who had insisted several unknown people. In court this morning he escaped with a $2 fine.

Petty Thieves Arrested The local department stores have been bothered of late by the larceny of small articles, and while the amounts stolen at various times have been small, the petty thieving has been a source of great annoyance to the proprietors.

The matter was reported to the police and yesterday afternoon Inspector Walsh after making a tour of the stores placed seven boys under arrest. One of the boys, Fred Dennis, aged ten years, was brought into court this morning, and it was stated that besides stealing articles from the stores he was in the habit of stealing clocks and watches from automobiles in the streets.

His case was continued till tomorrow morning. The cases against the other boys will be brought up in the juvenile court in the morning.

For Non Support Mrs. Annie P. Powers had her hus- band, John H. Powers, before the court this morning on a complaint charging him with failing to provide proper sup- port for her since the first of June. Mrs. Powers said that drink was the cause of her husband's manner towards her. He leaves her every now and then for several months at a time and despite the fact that she is in ill health, it is necessary for her to go to work in order to support herself and child. Powers told the court that he would do better in the future, and the court ordered him to pay his wife $4 a week until he decided to go back and live with her.

Four Months to Jail Maria Richardson, who has been a fre- quenter of the Greek colony in Fenwick street, was arrested yesterday afternoon and despite the fact that it was only her second offense she was sentenced to four months in jail.

Stole a Barrel John L. Bantfield pleaded guilty to the larceny of an oil barrel valued at $1, the property of David Ziskind and Sam- uel Cohen. He was fined $10.

NOT IN BARROOM LAKEVIEW AVE. FIRE STARTED IN VACANT TENEMENT

In the stories of the fires that are being investigated in this city by the fire chief, Lawrence it was inadvertently stated that the fire in the building at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Cabot street started in a barroom on the lower floor of the building. The fire did not start in the barroom, but in a vacant tenement on the same floor with the barroom.

DROPPED FROM EXHAUSTION Laura Perrie, a woman who has kept at work despite the fact that she is in ill health, dropped from exhaus- tion at her work at the Hamilton mill this morning. The ambulance removed her to her home, 153 Lawrence street.

FUNERAL NOTICES ODDIE—Died in this city, Oct. 27, at the Lowell General hospital, Mrs. Martha Oddie, wife of John T. Oddie, residing at 120 Vermont avenue, Braintree, aged 55 years. Funeral from the residence Sat- urday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends and relatives invited.

SUPPER AND CONCERT Last night the Ladies' Aid society of the Immanuel Baptist church gave a supper and concert at the church build- ing on Pleasant street. The attendance was large. The numbers rendered were: Piano solo, Miss Whittier; reading, "The Last Shot," Harry Leavitt; vocal solo, Mrs. Eva Foster; reading, "The Best Will Come Back to You," Miss Ethel Wierslow; vocal solo, Miss Gertrude French; reading, "Barney Lake's Politi- cal Speech," Harry Leavitt; encore, "A Football Referee."

TAFT IN LYONS LYONS, N. Y., Oct. 29.—After his ardu- ous day in New York city yesterday, W. H. Taft reached this city somewhat fati- gued and bowed, but in good spirits and anxious to meet the crowd. He was taken to the largest hall in the city, where he made an extended address on the issues of the campaign. Mr. Taft was met by Rep. Serena E. Payne, re- publican floor leader of the house of rep- resentatives, and several prominent re- publicans.

Today Is Children's Day at the cele- bration of the centenary of the found- ing of the diocese of Boston. The ob- servance today while not of any special magnitude, was a feature of the cele- bration, for the fact that the annual program given at the mass was furnished by the congregation of chil- dren. The archbishop, a short time ago, issued an invitation to the pas- tors of the different churches in the archdiocese, asking them to select several pupils from their respective parochial schools to take an active part in the mass on Children's Day at the Cathedral. The children sang hymns and parts of the mass, and the list comprises the well known pupils of the Catholic church. The mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Patterson, vicar general, and the sermon was delivered by Rev. George Lyons, superintendent of schools.

The schools of St. Patrick's parish sent delegations to Boston this morning. The male academy was represented by twelve boys of the sanctuary choir, the Notre Dame academy by the graduating class, and the parochial school by the highest grade. The choir boys were accompanied by Brother Raphael, director of the choir, and Brother John, of the teaching staff of the school. The girls were accompanied by the Sisters of the Notre Dame. The party in charge of the Brothers will remain over for the rehearsal of church music which will be held this evening in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.

The party of girls returned to Lowell after the mass. The pupils of the schools who are to participate in the procession of the parish enjoyed a holiday today, with the exception of the Notre Dame academy, in honor of the event.

The Holy Name society of St. Patrick's will hold its final drill this evening before participating in the monster parade in Boston next Sunday. The drill this evening will be followed by a smoke take in the school hall. The men who intend to take part in the demonstration in Boston should attend the meeting this evening and procure their pins, badges and transportation tickets, if they have not already done so. The spiritual director will consider it a favor if the men who are going to take part in the parade would prepare their articles so that he can give an estimate of the number of men who will turn out.

St. Patrick's parochial residence has been decorated and presents an attractive appearance.

St. Michael's

The scholars of the eighth and ninth grades of St. Michael's parochial school, arrived at Boston today, in company with the Dominican Sisters, of the convent. The children left on the 8.55 train. The party will be taken around the city this afternoon by the sisters, on a historical trip.

The Holy Name society will hold its last drill tonight. The full battalion will report and will be put through the different commands. The tickets for transportation between here and Boston for next Sunday may be had by calling at the parochial residence. The parochial residence, convent and school are decorated with red, white and blue in honor of the centennial. A large golden cross occupies a prominent location, directly over the main entrance of the rectory on Bridge street.

At St. Peter's

Two large American flags adorn St. Peter's parochial residence in honor of the celebration. Rev. Frs. Ronan and Mollin attended the opening of the centenary exercises yesterday night. An interesting friendly rivalry is on between St. Peter's, Lowell and St. Peter's, Dorchester House Hill, Dorchester, Mass., the pastors of which are, and best beloved clergymen in the archdiocese. Rev. Peter Ronan, at St. Peter's, Dorchester and Rev. Michael Ronan, of this city. St. Peter's, at Dorchester is perhaps the largest parish in Boston and hopes to have 2000 men in line. Mr. Joseph Peasey, Associated Press operator for the Courier-Children, a resident of the Dorchester parish, will have charge of a company from that church in the parade.

Immaculate Conception The Immaculate Conception church, the rectory and the convent are elabo- rately decorated in observance of the cen- tenary celebration of the archdiocese, and will so remain until the ceremonies close.

This evening the Holy Name society of the church will hold its final drill and all members are requested to be present, as the band that will accompany the society to Boston Sunday will be present, and all arrangements will be completed for the grand demonstration.

Sacred Heart Children A delegation of thirty pupils of the Sacred Heart parochial school, accom- panied by their sisters of the school, left this morning on an early train for Bos- ton, where they attended the children's day ceremonies in connection with the centennial anniversary in the cathedral today. They will return home this evening.

Tonight the final drill of the Holy Name society will be held.

FUNERALS Caldwell—The body of John A. Caldwell was laid at rest with full military honors in the Edison cemetery, yesterday afternoon. John A. Caldwell, who died at the Lowell General hospital, of typhoid fever, after a short ill- ness, was a veteran of the Spanish war and a member of Company G of this city at the time of his death. The funeral took place from the parlors of C. M. Young in Prescott street. Rev. A. St. John Chamber, rector of St. Anne's church, officiated at the ser- vices. The bearers were all friends of the deceased, and Spanish war veterans. They were: Capt. Colby T. Prescott, Sergeant, George M. Williams, Al- fred, Henry Driscoll and John Demp- sey. A firing squad from Company G also accompanied the funeral procession to the cemetery and fired three volleys over the grave. The squad was under the command of Sergt. Frank Hotchkiss and consisted of Pri- vates Timothy Barry, George Crowell, Thomas Doran, Thomas Garvan, Fred Goskin and Irving Whitcomb. Among the many beautiful floral offerings were: Large pillow inscribed "Brother- George R. Caldwell and family"; sprays, Miss Conway, Miss C. C. Mc- Lennan, Miss Arthur, Percy Suttle and Fernand Gault. There was also a large floral arrangement from the following employees of the Blochman, B. E. Hayes, Herbert Suttle, Blanche Hayes, Abbie Whittey, Anna True, Edythe Young, John Moran, Edith Preston, May Hopkins, Lillian Travers, Etta Evers, Etta Mealey, May O'Leary, Josephine Pearson, George Brimington, Charlotte McMahon, Harry Bath, Minnie Carlson, Lena Campbell, Alfred Hammond, Frances Emerson, Katherine Barnford, Margaret Concanon, Annie Hoye, John Marsden, Clara Halloway and Hannibal Hayes. The funeral was in the Edison cemetery, under the direction of C. M. Young.

DEATHS LAVOIE—Rev. Fr. Theophile Lavoie, O. M. I., formerly attached to St. Jo- seph's parish in this city, died Monday at the Hotel-Dieu in Montreal, aged 71 years. He had been for 54 years a priest, and had been at one time su- perior of the Oblate houses of Platts- burgh and Buffalo. He had been sta- tioned in Lowell between the years 1832 and 1835, and was then universally loved and esteemed among St. Joseph's parishioners, who still remember him with affection. He retired from ac- tive service three years ago, and spent this last time of his life at the Oblate monastery at Lachine. He was buried at Lachine yesterday.

BREAULT—Eloi Breault, an old French American resident, and father of the well-known police officer, Eloi N. Breault, died at his home, 71 Beau- lieu street, late yesterday afternoon. He was 79 years, 8 months old, and had been for 43 years a resident of Low- ell. He leaves three sons, Eloi N. and Gilbert of Lowell, and Joseph of Burlington, and five daughters, Mrs. Eloise Breault, of Canada, Mrs. Moise Lemieux, of Chicago, and Mrs. Victor Requitt, Mrs. Olivier Quinnet and Miss Marie Breault of Lowell. He was a member of L'Union St. Joseph.

FITZGERALD—Nellie Fitzgerald, infant child of Patrick and Nellie Fitz- gerald died this morning at their home, 13 Manning place, off Salem street. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock this af- ternoon and burial was in St. Peter's cemetery. C. H. Molloy & Sons un- dertakers.

GILES—Mrs. Frances T. Giles, widow of the late James A. Giles, died last night at the Lowell General hospital, aged 58 years. She was born in Lowell. She lived at 31 Holyrood avenue and was a member of the Elliot Congregational church. She leaves to mourn her loss one son, Everett T. Giles. Funeral notice later.

HAYES—William B. Hayes, aged 55 years, died this morning at his home, 121 Chapel street. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Annie Hayes, four sisters, Mrs. Lawrence C. McCarthy, of Burlington, Vt., and Katherine, Josephine and Alice of this city, and four brothers, Cornelius and John of Burlington, Vt., Edward of this city, and Thomas, who is employed at the Harvard Brewing company. The fun- eral will take place on Saturday at 3 o'clock. Requiem mass at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker Hig- gins in charge.

Biggest hall, best music at "Ches- nuts."

DR. WM. M. JONES MAYOR MAY RE-NAME HIM FOR HEALTH BOARD

It looks as if Dr. Jones would be given another year for the board of health. Mayor Farham, who is to the board of health, will name the board of health tomorrow night, and the chances are that the doctor's name will not reach the board until its next regular meeting.

DR. WM. M. JONES MAYOR MAY RE-NAME HIM FOR HEALTH BOARD

It looks as if Dr. Jones would be given another year for the board of health. Mayor Farham, who is to the board of health, will name the board of health tomorrow night, and the chances are that the doctor's name will not reach the board until its next regular meeting.

Chestnut Club's annual, Fri. at Asso.

JOHN HUTCHINSON

Famous Singer, Who Married Lowell Girl, Died Suddenly

LYNN, Oct. 28.—John Hutchinson, the last of the famous Hutchinson brothers and sisters who won fame as singers during the Civil war, died at his home, High Rock, off Essex street in this city today. He arose at his usual time, went into the kitchen and turned on the gas to light a gas heater. Before he could apply the match he was taken ill and shortly afterward he expired, before the arrival of a doctor who had been hastily summoned by his wife. Death was due to heart failure incident to old age.

Mr. Hutchinson was born in Milford, N. H., in 1831 and was one of a family of sixteen children of whom twelve were boys. All the children had good voices and early in life they began their career as singers. In the years before the Civil war they toured the country singing temperance and abolition songs. The greatest prominence of the Hutchinson family was gained during the war when by special permit from the war department they visited many of the Union camps and sang to the soldiers. Their permit was revoked at one time by General McClellan, but was later renewed. After the war the brothers and sisters visited England. Soon after their return to America John W. Hutchinson purchased his estate, High Rock, in this city, and during the remainder of his life he was frequently called "The bard of High Rock." Subsequently he sold some portions of his estate and gave a part of it to the city of Lynn for a public park.

Mr. Hutchinson was married shortly before the Civil war to Miss Fanny Patch of Lowell, who died a few years later. In 1905 he was made defendant in a suit for breach of promise brought by Miss Ellen Witherell of Lynn, but the suit was subsequently settled out of court. Later in the same year he was married to Mrs. Agnes Everett of Washington, D. C., who with an adopted son, Richard, survived him. Relatives of the aged singer contended during his later years that he was unable to take suitable care of his property and in 1907 a conservator was appointed to look after his business affairs.

Mr. Hutchinson after taking up his residence here appeared at many public functions and sang songs of his own composition, the best known of which was "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man."

BIG GATHERING

Of No-License Workers in Boston

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—No-license workers from all parts of the state gathered in Kingsley and Bowdoin halls in the Ford building today to attend the second annual conference arranged under the auspices of the Massachusetts No-License league. President Fosdick of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon league presided and introduced as the first speaker Robert H. Magwood, secretary of the league. Mr. Magwood led in a discussion made in the no-license movement throughout the state in which it was shown that 17 cities and 260 towns in the state have been won over with a majority of 18,702 votes in the state in favor of prohibition.

George W. Alden of Brockton led a discussion in which the druggist licenses were considered and the "express problem" was also discussed by Frank of Quincy.

BOXING GOSSIP

A sporting writer takes exception to Tommy Sullivan being in Groves Hayes' corner, and not in that of young Kenney. Sullivan is one of the string of boxers managed by Jack McGuigan, matchmaker of the National A. C., where Sullivan does most of his fighting. Sullivan is in the game as a matter of business just as Kenney is. Sullivan had been engaged to go in Hayes' corner long before he knew Kenney was to fight Hayes. Kenney was not selected until the last of the week. He just filled in. Sullivan is a close personal friend of Hayes, with whom he boxes every day and with whom he has lived for the past year. Hayes is a better friend to Sullivan than is Kenney, and vice versa.

Kenney now claims Lawrence as his home city and wants Lawrence men to be in his corner. When Kenney was up and coming a few years ago and was fighting in the New York and Philadelphia clubs, Lawrence was not then always claimed as his home. If he won, it was Lowell, and if he lost, it was Lawrence.

As for Sullivan being "sheepish," those who know Sullivan will know that this is not so. Sullivan is the cleanest and most manly fellow in the ring today. He is a credit to Lawrence, which he has always claimed as his home, whether he won or lost. He was not afraid to go in Hayes' corner and had a cause to be ashamed of it.—Lawrence Eagle.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES

Now that the Vanderbilt cup race has been run the interest of racing enthusiasts turns to the two events to be run at Savannah on Nov. 25 and 26 by the Automobile Club of America. Although public attention had been riveted on the Vanderbilt cup and Grand Prize races, mechanical motorists were more interested in the international light car race which will be run on the day preceding the big race at Savannah.

The limit of bore in this race for four cylinder engines is 3 1/2 inches. This has become a popular size during the last year of the cheaper species of four

A Word from Mr. Bryan

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

Lincoln Neb
Oct. 20-1908

Fellow Citizens:

The campaign is drawing to a close; the issues have been set forth in the platforms; the arguments of the candidates have been presented; and the verdict is about to be rendered. Every state in the Union shows Democratic gains, and there is no doubt of a Democratic victory if all who favor our policies vote and have their votes counted. I write to urge you to see to it that every Democratic vote in your precinct is polled early and counted. We desire a popular majority as well as a majority in the electoral college, and your vote is needed to offset a Republican vote some where else, even if not needed in your locality. Work! Vote! And then you can rejoice the more heartily in the victory.

Yours truly,
W. J. Bryan

cylinder cars. The majority of the buying public, therefore, is interested in seeing the three two-cylinder Maxwells in competition with the three four-cylinder Buicks and the Chalmers-Detroit. In competition against them will be the air cooled Cameron and the two unspectable Gyroscopes, while the imported cars will be represented by three De Dion, a Lancia and an Isotta. The latter is the smallest car so far entered, having a bore of only 2 1/2 inches. This car came in eighth in the recent French Volturrette race, being the first four-cylinder car to finish.

DIAMOND NOTES

The Lynn item of Monday has the following interesting article: "Up to date Secretary Morse of the New England league has received no notification from Secretary Farrell of the national commission of the draft of any player on the Lynn team. He says that President Alumnus, however, has the draft money for George Orr, but what club has drafted him he did not know. From other sources it is said that he is to go to Portland of the Pacific Coast league, having been recommended highly by Tom Madden, who was let out to Portland last season by the Boston Americans. Information received from official sources does not indicate that Gus Daum has been drafted by any club, as many expected.

So far as known McInnis has been drafted only by Jersey City, but this not being allowed he will remain in the New England league. There may yet be a possibility that when drafts from other leagues besides the Eastern are announced, "Stuffy" may be among the players drafted.

The new board of directors of the Haverhill club, together with President Rich, are making things decidedly warm for the officials of the league, and it is understood that the office of Secretary Morse in Boston has for several weeks past been the scene of many arguments on the Haverhill situation. At first it was decided to hold a special meeting of the New England league. After consideration it was found that this would bring Lynn in to represent its club. Lynn is not on the board of directors this year, so it was considered better to call a meeting of that board to settle the Haverhill matter. The clubs on the board of directors of the league this year are Haverhill, Brockton, Fall River and Lowell.

Lynn, Worcester, Lawrence and New Bedford would in that event have nothing to say in deliberations to settle the trades made by the Haverhill club when Dan Clorkey was president.

In Lynn the feeling exists that the officials of the league should give their hearty support to the club here, because it is the best baseball town on the circuit. Those in position to know say that the president of the league should not take seriously the idea that there is anybody in this city who has or ever had aspirations to succeed him as president of the New England league.

The Lawrence team will get some new players according to the following from the Lawrence Eagle: "The call of Manager Mal W. Eason from his home in New York to Lawrence means that at the meeting of the directors Monday night, something was done which brought about that hurried call. There is no longer any doubt but that the local management is in sore plight. It may or may not be denied, but it is the truth nevertheless. A few weeks ago the outlook looked good for the Lawrence team. The purchase of Girard and Boardman from the Haverhill team made the fans happy. But when it was learned that these men would not come to this city, one because he was drafted, and the other because President E. L. Arundel of the Lawrence team refused to be a party to the deal to disrupt the Haverhill team.

If Flynn intends not to return to this city next season, Eason will have to get an entire new infield. McLane will not be back unless he is bought by Lawrence. He may come, but if it is known, the management will not give it out. Vinson has been reserved, but he may not be with the team either. Harter will be back. Duggan and Kelly are on the list for catchers. One of the new men was some talk of letting Duggan go next season, figuring him in a trade or selling him. Wilson will not be retained unless the management changes its mind. He may be tried in the field. There is no telling.

Gilroy and Whiting will not be back. Murch goes to Rochester. It is said on good authority that Eason has a first sacker, although nothing can be learned officially. Another player may be drafted. He is an outfielder. Now for the news. Lawrence may get a pitcher who is now in the New England league and is well thought of by the fans here. He is not satisfied with the team that he is with now. There is another reason why he may come to Lawrence. Then the local management is said to have an option on another player. Lawrence needs men badly and now is the time to get them if possible. Next spring may be too late. Lawrence may not be so fortunate as it was the past season.

President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals has completed arrangements for the spring training of his team at Shreveport, La. The pitchers will go to Hot Springs early in March, while the rest of the team will assemble at West Baden about March 15 and go to Shreveport, meeting the pitching department there. Fifteen exhibition games have been booked, beginning at Memphis, March 27. The Americans, under Coniskey, will go to the coast again, playing a series with the Los Angeles and San Francisco clubs. Coniskey's idea is to make a much longer stay on the coast than last spring. In fact, he plans to do nearly all the training out there, with the problematic Honolulu trip still among those possible.

Patsy Flaherty of the Boston National league baseball pitching staff has left his home in Carnegie with the Reach baseball club for a trip through the Philippines and Japan. The team will sail from San Francisco Nov. 2, returning to America late in February.

Like Pitcher Covaletski of the Phillies, Jim Swift, the twirler secured by the St. Louis Browns, is a Poleander. His right name is Michael Proppeski, and he has a breast in one of the colleries of the Susquehanna Coal company at Glen Lyon, Pa., during the winter months. He was recommended by Scout Jack O'Connor to McAlister.

George Stallings, who has been

Baby Laugh

It belongs to health for a baby to eat and sleep, to laugh and grow fat.

But fat comes first; don't ask a scrawny baby to laugh; why, even his smile is pitiful! Fat comes first.

The way to be fat is the way to be healthy.

Scott's Emulsion

is the proper food, but only a little at first.

Send this advertisement, together with name of paper in which it appears, your address and four cents to cover postage, and we will send you a "Complete Handy Atlas of the World." SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York down on his Georgia cotton plantation since the Eastern league baseball season closed has arrived in New York. If Stallings becomes manager of the New York Americans he will probably take the Highlanders to his plantation next spring to train. The plantation takes in over 4000 acres, plenty of room for the ball players to roam in, and is equipped with a baseball field. Stallings had the Buffalo team there one season to train and regards it as a good training place. "All there is for players to do there," he says, "is to eat, go to bed with the chickens and talk and play baseball." The plantation is about 20 miles from Macon.

At Springfield at the annual meeting of the Connecticut baseball league, the old officers were re-elected as follows: W. J. Tracey of Bristol, Conn., president; A. E. Taylor of Cheshire, vice president; James H. O'Rourke of Bridgeport, Conn., secretary and treasurer; John E. Kennedy of Bristol, Conn., supervisor of umpires. In recognition of President Tracey's efficient services, his election was for a term of two years instead of one year as formerly. The pennant was formally awarded to Springfield.

C. M. A. C. WON

Defeated K. of C. in League Game

The game between the C. M. A. C. and Knights of Columbus, in the Catholic league last night, resulted in a decisive victory for the C. M. A. C. Boucher of the winning team was high man with a single of 12 and a triple of 22.

In the Minor league the Frontenacs won two points and the total from the Nationals. D. Demers of the defeated team was high man.

The game between the Palmer Street Department and the Cotton Goods Department of the Pollard league proved to be a close and exciting one, the former team winning by a small margin. The scores:

CATHOLIC LEAGUE
C. M. A. C.
LeBrun	5	2	10
LeBras	5	2	10
Loyseau	5	2	10
Malhoux	10	5	20
Boucher	10	5	20
Totals	35	14	49
K. of C.
Savage	5	2	10
Grover	5	2	10
Blanchet	5	2	10
W. J. Kelley	5	2	10
Donohoe	5	2	10
Totals	25	10	35
Nationals
Buckley	5	2	10
H. Demers	5	2	10
Durault	5	2	10
Roux	5	2	10
P. Demers	5	2	10
Totals	25	10	35
Frontenacs
Ducharme	5	2	10
Michaud	5	2	10
A. Saunders	5	2	10
Blanchet	5	2	10
Demers	5	2	10
Totals	25	10	35
Cotton Goods Dept.
Blanchette	5	2	10
Roux	5	2	10
Blanchet	5	2	10
Blanchet	5	2	10
Blanchet	5	2	10
Totals	25	10	35

Saunders' Market

159 Gorham St., Corner Summer TEL. 592-3

Owing to so many mistakes lately on deliveries the customers are requested to check off goods on delivery, otherwise the market will not be responsible.

Special on Meats for Friday and Saturday

Best Rump Steak, best cut out of the best Heavy Beef	15c
Best Sirloin Steak, 2 lbs. for	25c
Nice Fresh Rump Butts 8 1-2c, 9c lb
Best Round Steak, 2 lb.	25c
Swift's Best Smoked Shoulders	7-8c
Hamburg Steak, 10c lb., 3 lbs.	25c
Fresh Pork Loins 9c & 10c lb.
Fresh Killed Fowl	13c lb.
Short Cut Choice Legs of Lamb	10c lb.
Squire's & North's Sugar Cured Hams	10c lb.
Best Corned Beef	5-6c
Nice New Cabbage	1c lb.
Large New Potatoes Nice and Mealy	18c pk.
Large New Onions,	20c pk.
Large New Sweet Potatoes, 15 lbs.	25c

FINE GRANULATED SUGAR 5 1-2c

We allow 20 lbs. of Sugar at 5 1/2 cents a lb. to each customer

PURE LARD—Swift's and National Packing Co.'s 25 lb. pails, 10 1-2c lb.
3, 5 and 10 lb. pails	12c
OUR PIE PREPARATION—Put up by De Zerta Foot Co., all flavors	6c
D-ZERTA JELLO	6c

We have received 500 cans fresh from factory, assorted flavors.

QUICK PUDDING

Flavors, Chocolate, Lemon, Tapioca, Vanilla, Orange, Macaroon.

ICE CREAM POWDER—all flavors	6c
COMPOUND LARD—28 and 50 lb. tubs	9c
Swift's Jewel, 3 1/2 and 5 lb. pails	9c

FLOUR—American makes fine, light bread and always gives perfect satisfaction.

70c Bag; $6.00 Per Barrel
----------------------------	--

SEARCHLIGHT FLOUR—Just received a carload, 80c Bag, $6.00 Bbl.

PASTRY FLOUR—Snow Crust or Acme	65c Bag
ROLLED OATS—Quaker, Mother's, Hecker's	9c Pkg.

4 Double Sheets of Tanglefoot Sticky Fly Paper, 5c

GELATINE—Manhattan Gelatine, bright and sparkling, 6c

NEW ENGLAND COCOA—strictly pure 1-4 can 7c; 1-2 can 14c

RAISINS—Hatch and Green Cord Brands 8c

CURRENTS—Thoroughly clean, 1 lb. pkg. 9c

EXTRACTS—All flavors, best quality and absolutely pure, 6c

SOUPS—Tomato, Chicken, Vegetable and all kinds of Van Camp's, 6c

CANNED CORN—All brands, best standard Maine Canned Corn, 6c

WHITE RIBBON floating Toilet Soap, pure, 25c

SOAPS—7 bars, 25c

SWIFT'S TUCK SOAP—Famous Laundry Soap, 25c

OLD DUTCH CLEANSER—Chases dirt, 8c

1 BOX BORAX, 20 Mule Team Brand 1 lb. 10c

WASHING POWDER—Put up same as Old Dutch Cleanser, 4 lbs. 15c

STARCH—2 lbs. of Lump 9c

SALERATUS—Guaranteed pure 4c lb. pkg.

CANNED BEANS—Select Brand String Beans or Wax Beans, Acme 6c

BEST TEAS—5 lbs. for $1.00

1 Pound 25c

BUTTERINE—The very best, 12 1-2 to 15c

we carry the New England Brand. This is a Butterine of absolute purity, according to a United States, certified assay statement.

LARGE PRUNES—Large and fancy, 6c lb.

LEMON PIE FILLING—1 lb. Mason Jar, guaranteed under Pure Food and Drug Act, 15c

MINCE MEAT—Armour's Very Best and Columbia 6c a Package

STRAWBERRIES—Silvercreek, 3 lb. can, packed in 15 percent syrup, 10c Can, 3 Cans 25c

SELECT PLUMS—Royalton brand, 3 lb can 10c

PEACHES—Choice selected fruit, 3 lb. can 10c

3 lb. packages HECKER'S SELF RAISING FLOUR, the best on the market 19c

TOMATOES—All brands, No. 1 standard, 8c Can

PEAS—Livingston Brand Marrow Peas, Van Camp's Early 8c Can

BEANS—Pea Beans, Yellow Eyes or Red Kidney 8c Qt.

SARDINES—Packer American Brand 25c

MACARONI—Blue Crown and Lanza Brands, 1 lb. pkg. 6c pkg.

CONDENSED MILK

Challenge Brand 9c

Lakeside Brand, 3 cans for 25c

SALMON—Medium, red 10c can

Best Alaska Red, packed by Alaska Packers Association, 11c

BEEF IS CHEAP

Best Sirloin Roast Beef 12c and 14c

Fancy Rib Roast Beef 8c to 12c

Best Rump and Sirloin Steak, 15c and 18c

Best Frankfurts 10c lb.

Pork Sausage 10c lb.

6c SPECIALS 6c

1 pk. Wetmore's Cornmeal.

1 large bottle Ammonia.

1 large bottle Worcestershire Sauce.

1 large bottle Baking Soda.

1 lb. bottle Horseradish.

1 lb. bottle German Mustard.

1 package best Pickles.

1 can Potash.

1 package Codfish.

MOTHERS, HERE IT IS

The Eclipse Special

A BOY'S $5.00 SUIT, WITH EXTRA PANTS, FOR $3.75

HERE'S a clear saving of $1.25. A Boy's Suit with extra pants—knee pants and knickerbockers—well worth $5.00, for $3.75.

The Fabric is an all wool Cheviot—tough as leather—a stylish pattern, and a mixture that won't show the wear.

The Coats are plain double breasted, cut stylishly.

The Pants are reinforced at the straining points, to resist the wear and tear of the active lad.

Sizes are for boys of 7 years to 17.

We doubt if you will find its equal anywhere under $5.00.

THE MERRIMACK CLOTHING COMPANY

Across From City Hall

Hallowe'en Face Masks FREE!

Boys, here's a chance for some good sport for Hallowe'en, for indoors or outdoors. We're going to give away free 500 Face Masks tomorrow and Saturday to the first 500 boys who call with a copy of this ad.

MANY ADDRESSES

At Centenary Celebration of Boston Archdiocese Last Night

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Gov. Guild received a thunderous ovation last night in Symphony hall when not only the thousands of laity who attended the Catholic centenary meeting, but the prelates on the platform, rose in mass and cheered the state's executive to the echo.

The audience had been worked up to a high pitch of enthusiasm by the governor's forceful eloquence. His words made an imprint on the hearts of his hearers so deep as to make his address the event of the evening.

Governor's Speech

The governor said: "It is ever a pleasant duty to bring the greetings of the commonwealth to any body of citizens who have found in religious faith the strongest inspiration for the moral life. I congratulate you on this centenary anniversary of the founding of the Catholic diocese in Boston. Its benefits have extended beyond the limits of the city to the corners of the commonwealth.

"The full measure of that benefit not merely to church but to state can only be appreciated by those who are honest enough to reverse the picture and to consider dispassionately what would have been the character of Massachusetts today if the millions of new Americans from Catholic countries who, with their sons and daughters, the second generation, now form two-thirds of the population had been left for a hundred years uneducated.

"Whither would these have drifted without the impulse to duty and honesty and honor that religion alone can give if there had been no welcome here from some apostle of the faith in which they were born and in which their fathers died to add to his ministrations to their spiritual wants the needed moral warning, and in the old, familiar voice that, though governments may differ, the boundaries of sin and virtue are the same now, everywhere and eternally; that protection in the exercise of one's own rights does not mean protection in the abuse of another's; that liberty, in short, is not license, and that obedience to law is liberty."

Distinguished Guests

"I congratulate you on the presence of these distinguished guests. I particularly congratulate you that this felicitous anniversary finds at the head of this diocese one not only most revered in the title but so thoroughly revered and loved in fact and by all his fellow-citizens.

"Massachusetts is proud of his achievements in his chosen and sacred calling, proud that Massachusetts boys sprung from the ranks of her poor should by sheer ability have won recognition and honor not from his church alone, not from his country alone, but even in courts on the other side of the world. She is prouder to find that the brilliant scholar, the confident of the vatican, the prelate honored in the far east as well as in America, is still in the best sense a Massachusetts boy, an American citizen, no passive disciple, but an ardent apostle in the ranks of those who stand for social citizenship and patriotic service.

"A century may be spanned by the passage of a single human life. It may be covered by a single page of history. It is but a ripple on the ocean of eternity. Yet a period, however brief in the eternal records, may be crammed with changes momentous in the development of man. It is but two centuries ago and a half back to the evil old age when Catholic and Protestant persecuted one another in the name of religion, when Tilly and the massacre of Magdeburg and Cromwell and the massacre of Drogheda were fresh and hideous memories that held men's hearts apart. Two centuries ago such a meeting as this tonight would have been impossible.

The governor of the Puritan province could not thus have met the prince of the church, they could not thus have met him nor in that time, as a matter of fact, it could not one of the then despised Catholic faith have held the post of governor in any colony of Puritan or Catholic origin.

Century Ago

"A century ago, when this diocese was founded, there still remained in the free commonwealth a social distrust, which is but just vanishing with the dawn of the broader Americanism. It is our happy fortune to live in the time when men daily are more and more endeavoring to discover, not the evil, but the good in their neighbors, when we believe in each other's word, when we are proud of each other's friendship, when we are grateful for each other's prayers. Even in the century when Magdeburg and Drogheda were sending up their reek of horror from the old world, Cecil Calvert, Lord Baltimore, the Catholic layman, and Roger Williams, the Protestant clergyman, were publicly laying in the new world the foundations of religious freedom.

It was Williams who with prophetic vision described the coming American commonwealth as a ship in which the crew, Catholic or Protestant, Mohaman-dan or Jew, urged by common impulse, governed by a common law, should work in harmony, finding that the progress of the ship over the ocean was possible only by the help of all and that each in the end found his own benefit in the tolerance of his brothers.

"It is our happy fate to live in the dawn of the day that is making that ideal real, when for hate for every religion but his own man is learning to substitute respect for all religions, when the broader study of history, if it shows that factions led by fanatics have ever been doomed to failure, shows also that no nation of agnostics or atheists has ever been permitted to live, when instead of seeking grounds for difference Americans of all races and creeds are on the contrary seeking grounds for agreement, when it is difficult neither for the American descendant nor Catholic Irishman to praise from the steps of the altar the service done our common country by its Puritan founders nor for the American descendant of these same Protestant Puritans to welcome and acknowledge the strong aid given to sound American government against its greatest enemies, socialism and anarchy, by the Catholic church."

"In Principle," that great address to which we listened this morning, began with the first words of the Book of Rooks. Its noble appeal to the brotherhood and citizenship of men of all religious faiths rang with a spirit of inspiration of the great text in the testament: "Gloria in excelsis Deo, et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis." "Dona eis quia peccatores sunt, dona eis misericordiam et misericordiam."

"The dropping of a single letter may change the translation by this or that individual man; but no errors of man have ever been able or will ever be able to strike at the heart of that divine message. Peace to all the earth is to be won by the glory of God, and the path upon which it is sought is good will to all our fellowmen."

Judge Murray Presides

Upon the platform were seated Judge Murray, who presided; Archbishop Connolly, Gov. Guild, Mayor Hibbard, Bishop Connolly of Washington, Bishop Walsh of Portland, Bishop Guertin of Manchester, Bishop Burke of St. Joseph, Bishop Casey of St. John, B. Bishop Allen of Mobile, Bishop McDonnell of Brooklyn, Bishop Gabriel of Ogdensburg, Bishop Ludden of Syracuse, Dr. Thomas Dwight, Judge Charles A. DeCourcy, Henry V. Cunningham, the Marquis de Bouthillier-Chavigny, the Rev. Fr. Hanselman, S. J., the Rev. Fr. McKelvey, S. J., the Rev. Fr. Dolan, S. J., the Rev. Fr. McCormick, S. J., both of Holy Cross college; the Rev. J. P. E. Cross, Chancellor Splane, Mr. Lavelle of New York, Mr. Byrne, Mr. Magennis, Mr. Toeling, Mr. Madden of Springfield, Mr. O'Callaghan of Portsmouth, N. H.; Mr. Synnot of Hartford, Mr. Collins of Portland, Mr. Prevost of Fall River, Mr. McDonough of Lewiston, the Rev. Fr. J. E. Miller, E. J. Moriarty and Dr. J. A. Farrell of the archdiocese council.

Mayor Hibbard made a brief address, which was warmly received and heartily applauded, as he voiced the congratulations of the citizens of Boston upon the centenary.

Other speakers were the Marquis de Bouthillier-Chavigny, who spoke in French on Bishop Cheverus; Judge DeCourcy, who followed with an address in English on the same subject; Henry V. Cunningham, on Bishop Fitzpatrick; Judge Murray, on Bishop Fitzpatrick; and Dr. Dwight, who paid tribute to Archbishop Williams.

Bishop Cheverus

Marquis de Bouthillier-Chavigny delivered an eloquent eulogy of Mgr. Cheverus, saying in part: "Ladies and Gentlemen—The revolutionary troubles which swept France during the closing years of the 18th century had in this city a poor result, the scattering over the whole world of these noble and holy souls, who were anxious to devote to the service of Christianity the apostolic spirit with which they were filled. To one of them—one of these illustrious exiles—we owe the foundation of this magnificent diocese of Boston, whose centenary we celebrate today.

"On Oct. 3, 1796, a French priest, hardly 23 years old, the Abbe Cheverus, disembarked in this city, poorer in temporal possessions than the least of the immigrants who are receiving every day, but abundantly endowed with all those spiritual riches which flow from the practice of the three sovereign virtues—faith, hope, charity. The humble servant of God found to receive him on his arrival, only another disciple of the Divine Master, as poor in worldly goods as himself, but with a faith as ardent as his was confident, and a heart aflame with charity.

"Let us now go back, ladies and gentlemen, to the closing days of November, 1823. Twenty-eight years have elapsed since the arrival of Mgr. Cheverus. This saintly missionary has been bishop of his diocese for 15 years. An order from the king comes to tear him from the flock to which he belonged with his whole heart and soul, and to which he would have given a life. The order is positive, and a petition signed by all the most prominent citizens of the country, without distinction of religious denomination, could not cause it to be recalled. The hour of departure has gathered an innumerable crowd of people, all moved and cast down. Protestants as well as Catholics surround him. Every eye is wet with tears, every heart overflows with the sorrow due to a common cause. What, then, has this humble servant of God accomplished in so rapidly Protestant a country as this, that his departure should create such a ferment in the minds and hearts of all?

"Let me cite here from a Protestant

REV. MICHAEL RONAN WHO WAS CHAPLAIN TO ARCHBISHOP O'CONNELL YESTERDAY.

minister, one of the recognized leaders of Unitarianism, a few elevating words which do honor to him who uttered them and to him to whom they were addressed. 'The metropolis of New England,' wrote Dr. Channing, 'has witnessed the sublime example of Christian virtues in a Catholic bishop. This essentially good man, whose virtues and talents have raised him to high dignities in church and in state, lived in our midst, consecrating his days and nights and his whole heart to the service of his congregation. We saw him avoid the society of the great and rich in order to make himself the friend of the ignorant and the weak.'

Judge DeCourcy's Address

The tribute in English to Bishop Cheverus was paid by Judge Charles A. DeCourcy. Judge DeCourcy reviewed the labors of the devoted bishop and the conditions with which he had to contend, and proceeded:

"Looking back over the 27 years of his Boston life, with a view to select his most remarkable element in his career—it seems to me that the most significant phase of the life and times of Bishop Cheverus lies in his marvelous success in conquering an adverse public sentiment.

"In order to appreciate the significance of this transformation we must look at it in perspective. When Cheverus came to Boston in 1796 he entered an atmosphere decidedly anti-Catholic. The fanaticism inherited from England and emphasized in the theory of colonial days still found expression in unjust laws and hostile public opinion. As Bishop Carroll wrote, after his visit to Boston in 1791, 'many have even of their principal they would have crossed the ocean to meet a Roman Catholic some time ago. The horror which was associated with the idea of a papist is incredible.'

"How complete a change his ministrations brought about is indicated by the address of non-Catholics to the great almoner, and the glowing tribute of Cheverus already quoted. Let me add a few other notable instances.

Consulted on Form of Oath

"When President John Adams visited Boston, at the great public dinner he tendered him, the two highest places were reserved for the chief magistrates of the republic and Bishop Cheverus. When the legislature was having drawn up a form of oath to be taken by all citizens who appeared at elections, it is stated that they consulted him as to its form and accepted that proposed by him.

"And when he opened a subscription for the purpose of erecting a Catholic church in Boston, President John Adams was the first subscriber, and the $16,000 raised, more than a fifth was contributed by Protestants.

"A change so vital to the success of his mission, so important for the advancement of his flock, so salutary for the well-being of the community, demands our consideration. What brought about this much-to-be-desired transformation?

"One cause undoubtedly was his lucid and eloquent preaching, which attracted many non-Catholics. Cheverus was a talented scholar, thorough master of Latin and Greek, as well as French and English, and Hebrew. A Protestant journal in giving some account of a sermon preached by him in a Presbyterian church, says, 'It is certain that his discourses are well calculated to remove prejudices against the Catholics; and the moderation and even affection, with which he speaks of men of different belief from his own, forms a striking contrast to the violent and angry language that sometimes dishonors Protestant pulpits.'

Bishop Fenwick

In paying tribute to the successor of Bishop Cheverus, Henry Cunningham said, in part: "The majestic figure of Benedict Fenwick is the centre of the illustrious group whose achievements we celebrate at the closing of this century.

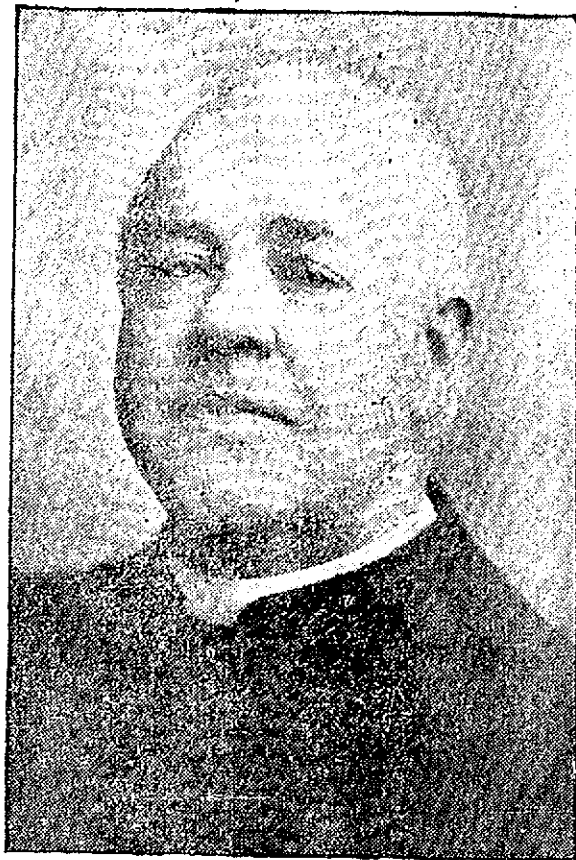

"Fenwick began his work as bishop almost without a see. His priests were few, his churches scattered. There were no schools.

"With the zeal and ardor of an apostle he labored not only as bishop, but as priest. For 20 years our city knew his benignant rule and charity as bishop—his sincerity and polish as a gentleman—and his probity as a citizen.

"To tell the increase of churches and people would be to state familiar history. He took no gratification in mere increase in numbers. To satisfy him the influence of the church must also increase.

"Fenwick not merely administered this diocese—he created it. In the performance of his greater works, Fenwick never abated his work of the day. To him every act was of divine service.

"It was as a teacher that Fenwick's great talents as bishop were displayed.

FATALLY SHOT

Hunting Accident at Jackson, N. H.

NORTH CONWAY, N. H., Oct. 28.—News reached here today of a hunting accident at Jackson yesterday, in which Henry Dearborn, aged 25, of Jackson received a bullet through the body, inflicting a wound from which the doctors say he cannot recover.

The accident happened near what is known as the Glen Road, which leads up the slope of Mount Washington. Dearborn and a companion named Chestley Grant had emerged from the woods and were seated on a log in an open field. Suddenly there was the report of a rifle in the rear of them and a bullet struck Dearborn under the left shoulder and passed through his body. Grant heard a voice in the woods say, "You have shot someone," to which another voice replied, "No, I have not."

After doing what he could for Dearborn, Grant went into the woods, but could find no trace of the other hunters. Dearborn was removed to a farm house near the scene of the accident, and the doctor, who was summoned, said he could not survive his wound.

County Solicitor Hill today began an investigation of the shooting.

A PRIZE DRILL

Was Held by Co. C Last Night

A prize drill and entertainment under the auspices of Company C, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., was held at the state armory in Westford street, last night and the members of the company and invited guests spent an enjoyable evening.

A short company drill was held during the early part of the evening, after which the prize drill was held. The prizes were two cups presented by Corp. Harold Fatten. Each cup is to be competed for three times this year. The first cup was for privates of more than one year's experience in the state service and the second cup was for privates with less than one year's experience.

When the squads appeared on the floor it took the three judges, Sergeants, Dumfry and Linscott, many long minutes before any decision could be reached. Private George Davidson, of basketball fame, won the cup for more than a year's experience, while Private William Silcox, another of the company's athletes, took the other cup. The two winners were the recipients of many hearty congratulations.

Following the drill the members and guests repaired to the company quarters where they listened to some excellent singing by Private Burns and remarks by Second Lieut. Rivett, U. S. A., Lieut. Peterson of Company C, Corp. Brock and others. Afterward refreshments were served. Other similar events will be held during the year.

SERVICE HELD

IN MEMORY OF LATE GERMAN AMBASSADOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Beautiful memorial services attended by a brilliant assemblage of representatives of all branches of official life in Washington were held today in memory of the late Freiherr Speck von Sternburg, German ambassador to the United States who died at Heidelberg, Aug. 18, 1907.

The services were held in Cordia Evangelical Lutheran church, which was attended by the baron during his residence here. The service was conducted in part in German by Rev. Paul Menzel, pastor of Concordia church and part in English by Rev. Roland Smith, rector of St. John's church.

Freiherr Speck von Sternburg, widow of the late baron, and her mother, Mrs. Langham of Louisville, Ky., were present.

Rev. Mr. Smith delivered an address in English which related chiefly to the family relations and personal character of the deceased. An address in German by Rev. Mr. Menzel treated upon the remarkable diplomatic career of the late ambassador.

THE CULGOA

SUPPLY SHIP RETURNED TO HARBOR OF AMOY

AMOY, Oct. 28.—The supply ship Culgoa returned to the harbor here at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, having failed to secure connection by wireless telegraph with the second squadron of the American battleship fleet now on its way here. Captain Patton says that the battleships are more than 200 miles away and will probably arrive tomorrow afternoon.

The foreign consuls located here yesterday exchanged official calls with Prince Tu Lung who is here as one of the officials delegated by the Peking government to receive the American fleet. The prince will today move his residence to the reception hall where the fleet will be entertained. Viceroy Song, fearing the revolutionists who have made many threats, has returned aboard the cruiser Hai-Lung where he will remain during the reception.

MINERAL PRODUCTS VALUABLE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A grand total of $2,689,259,195 worth of mineral products in the United States is announced in the statistical summary for the calendar year 1907 issued today by the geological survey. Of this amount $1,166,165,191 were non-metallic, $993,024,095 metallic and $528,998 non-specified. The mineral products for the previous year aggregated $1,904,007,034.

220 yds. from the "Sewer," "Chestnuts."

LOST—Rubber tire off baby carriage, near Dracut bridge. Reward at 122 Humphrey st.

FOUR CONVICTED

Sicilians Were Found Guilty of Manslaughter Today

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—A street fight on the waterfront last August, in which Peter Needham, freight handler, was killed, resulted today in the conviction for manslaughter of four Sicilian fishermen and acquittal of two others.

The convicted men were Pasquelli, Di Pace, Orlando and Taormina. Those who were acquitted were Giuseppe Zeigari and Cesare Cermanico.

Needham, who was employed by the Union Freight railroad, was attacked by the Sicilians on the grounds, as they claimed, throwing stones at them as they were leaving their boats. All six were indicted for murder in the second degree.

ANOTHER RECORD

IS MADE BY THE WIRELESS STATIONS

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 28.—Advisers received at the local signal offices showed that the signal service wireless stations in Alaska have made another record removing all doubt as to the feasibility of sending wireless messages overland. Fort Gibbon, several hundred miles inland, is receiving messages from Nome and St. Michael, 500 miles distant, with many ranges of hills between the two stations.

A message sent by the steamer Northwest, 1100 miles west of Cape Flattery to United Wireless station at Cordova was copied. The message traveled about 1200 miles in an airline over two ranges of mountains capped with snow.

TO WITHDRAW TROOPS

PEKIN, Oct. 28.—Orders have been issued that the Russian troops in China be withdrawn from the legation guard here by the reading of the legation Japan also is planning the withdrawal of half of the force she has maintained in the province as a railroad guard, namely 800 men, to take place in November.

BUTTER'S SON

TO GET THE BULK OF HIS FORTUNE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—As announced by the executors of Henry Butters, the millionaire traction magnate who died here last Tuesday, the bulk of his fortune, estimated at several million dollars, will go to the testator's son, Henry Butters, Jr., who is attending Phillips Exeter academy in Massachusetts. Not only is Mrs. Butters excluded from participation but her two daughters by a former marriage were cut off with bequests of $5 each.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

NASHUA, N. H., Oct. 28.—Interest in the closing sessions of the annual convention of the New Hampshire Sunday School Association today centered in the election of officers which comes at the noon adjournment and in the report of the committee on resolutions. The convention closes this afternoon when Prof. Horn of Dartmouth will lecture on "The Method of Jesus as Teacher."

Mrs. Antoinette A. Lamoreux of Chicago spoke twice in the morning on "The Intermediate Pupil," and this afternoon on "The Senior Pupil."

Today's sessions have been held in Pilgrim Congregational church. This morning's quiet half hour was conducted by Rev. W. A. Paige of Rochester, N. H. Rev. J. H. Robbins, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League took for the subject of his address which came at 9:30, "The Sunday school in the favor of temperance movement."

Rev. Franklin McElfresh took for the subject of an address, "The Passion of an Influence."

Mrs. Lena M. Palmer, of Haverhill, department president of Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Mrs. Jennie S. Ferguson, past department president, have joined the new order of the National Dames of the Civil war as charter members. The order was organized in Springfield, Oct. 2, 1906. Mrs. Emma E. Peirce is president. It has quite a large membership composed of the blood line of the veterans of the Civil war from '61 to '65.

Bachelors' show and dance at Mathews' hall, Friday, Oct. 30.

"Doctor's Daughter"

Is receiving the gratitude of hundreds of people every day for the relief and cures they have received with Stomach-Rite. "Doctor's Daughter" is never so pleased as when she is doing good in some way for humanity. Coming from a family of 21 physicians, the natural inclination and the love of medical things has long been a strong trait in the character of "Doctor's Daughter," and her articles on health and hygiene, which have been published in leading New England daily and Sunday papers, have helped many a sufferer into the pathway of good health again, as hundreds of thankful letters have testified.

This desire to help sufferers has been stimulated by the memories of her famous grandfather, Dr. William H. Wilbur, Western, Rhode Island, whose noble labors as physician and surgeon in the Union Army are recorded in the Rhode Island Book of Noted Men, and of her father, Dr. John Wilbur, Western, Rhode Island, whose high attainments as a graduate of the Medical Department of the University of New York and subsequent untiring aid to the sick as a practicing physician in Western, and his final lecturing tour of the United States addressing audiences everywhere on the subject of better ways to health.

Dr. John Wilbur, from whose prescription Stomach-Rite is made was a stomach specialist, having made a special study of this organ in Europe, and you can feel and know that when you take Stomach-Rite, it is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of a famous M. D. Hundreds of people have been cured of various kinds of stomach and liver troubles with this faithful remedy and "Doctor's Daughter" simply asks a trial of Stomach-Rite to convince the most skeptical of its true merits. Read what these grateful people say:

HER GREAT FAITH JUSTIFIED

I cannot say enough in praise of your stomach remedy. I was treated by a physician and finally sent to one of the best hospitals in Boston. The doctors there said I was under observation one week and then told me I had either gastritis or ulcer in the stomach, and must have an operation. I absolutely refused to be operated on and left the hospital. Like many others, I had great faith in you and decided to try your remedy, and my faith was surely justified, as three boxes entirely cured me, and I am glad to tell others of my escape from the operating table and of my complete recovery, in the hope that I may have some other sufferer from that fate.

MRS. EMMA R. COOPER, 21 Temple street, Dorchester, Mass. Mrs. Cooper is a trained nurse and was known in Boston and vicinity, and a recent case is on file in one of Boston's leading hospitals.

I have used your Stomach-Rite tablets for indigestion and constipation and they have saved me. I have suffered for a long time and glad to tell others what the Stomach-Rite has done for me.

MRS. J. J. WITCOLEY, 22 Leverett street, Brookline.

A GREAT RELIEF

Dear Doctor's Daughter: I took one box of your Stomach-Rite tablets for dyspepsia and liver troubles and they gave me great relief. I send 50 cents for another box. Yours truly, MR. FRED DISSONETTE, 45 Montauk St., Fall River, Mass.

A VERY SUPERIOR REMEDY

Dr. Wilbur Remedy Co. Gentlemen—While having a bad attack of indigestion I used your Stomach-Rite, which was recommended by a friend and it cured me. I consider Stomach-Rite a very superior remedy. Yours truly, WILLIAM D. TUCKER, Station Agent, West River Junction, R.I. Mr. Tucker has been in the employ of N. Y. & H. R. R. over fifteen years. His reliability cannot be questioned.

Stomach-Rite, which is in tablet form, may be purchased at any first class druggist, 50 cents. See that Dr. John Wilbur's picture and name are on each box. Accept no substitute. Get the genuine prepared under the "Doctor's Daughter" personal supervision, which is a guarantee of the best quality drugs and a perfectly compound prescription. If your druggist doesn't carry Stomach-Rite, ask him to send for it. Stomach-Rite will be sent prepaid upon receipt of price, 50 cents, to any address by addressing your mail order to the Dr. John Wilbur Remedy Co., Western, R. I. For sale by A. W. DOWS & CO., Lowell.

The Child's Future

depends on its early health. The "stitch" in the back, the indigestion, the headache, the nervousness, the loss of sleep, the loss of appetite, the loss of weight, the loss of color, the loss of vitality, the loss of the child's future, all depend on the health of the child. True's Elixir is a tonic that cures the child's ailments, restores the child's health, and gives the child a bright future.

TRUE'S ELIXIR

for nearly 60 years has been the old standard in thousands of homes. It cures indigestion, nervousness, headache, and all ailments of the child. It is a tonic that cures the child's ailments, restores the child's health, and gives the child a bright future.

35c., 50c., and $1.00.
DR. J. F. TRUE & CO. Auburn, Me.

BRYAN AND HILL

Former U. S. Senator Introduced the Democratic Leader

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The feature of William Jennings Bryan's tour up-state yesterday was the appearance on the platform here last night, where he presided, of former United States Senator David Bennett Hill. It was the first time in several years that Mr. Hill had attended such a gathering, so that when he stepped forward to introduce democracy's leader, the great crowd which packed the hall where the meeting was held, rose and wildly cheered.

"Although not now connected with politics," Mr. Hill said, "I reiterate that I am heartily in favor of the election of the democratic national ticket and state ticket. I am not so partisan, however, that I would support the party whether right or wrong, but permit me to say that I support the national ticket in this campaign because, in my judgment, our presidential candidate who honors us with his presence here tonight, is absolutely right upon every contested question in this campaign. I am for him because I sincerely believe the best interests of the country will be served by his election. It is time for a change in the administration of the government, a change of measures and of men. Our candidate owes the nomination not to any one man or any set of men, but only to the people themselves. If elected, he will be president himself and not a dummy for any man. He will not be led around with a string like a great big caged bear."

Senator Hill, referring to the republican charge that a panic would follow Mr. Bryan's election, declared that it would not be a business panic, "but it will be a panic on the part of the hundreds of thousands of federal office-holders and public officials who will have to surrender their places to the victorious party." He concluded his encomium of Mr. Bryan by stating that "our candidate is your friend. He is my friend. He is the friend of the people. He has been the courageous, sincere and constant friend of labor ever since he has been in public life. He is as incorruptible as he is brave and he can neither be purchased nor intimidated."

Ovation for Bryan
The democratic candidate got an ovation when he arose to speak, the audience reluctantly obeying the waving of his hand to them, to become quiet. He expressed his appreciation of the cordial welcome he had received in the capital of our nation's greatest state and in reply to Senator Hill, said:

"I appreciate the more than generous words employed by Senator Hill in presenting me to you. One of the pleasures of this campaign is the unity that manifests itself in the democratic party. As the candidate for president I have behind me a united democracy and in front of me a scared republican party."

He declared that the democratic party was full of fight while the republican party was full of fright. "I believe," he continued, "that we are going to win a great victory, and my friends, I am glad that Senator Hill, the hero of so many battlefields, is fighting by my side, prepared to share with me the joys of a sectional victory. But I believe that this victory is going to be won by the co-operation of the east and the west, the north and the south, and that it will cement the democratic party as a fighting force."

Mr. Bryan then said he would present "some evidence that will encourage you and some arguments in behalf of our position." First, however, he urged support of the democratic state and congressional tickets, because, he said, they were fighting on the same platform and bearing the brunt of the battle and therefore deserved the people's suffrage.

As he had done at Schenectady and other places, he laid stress on the plank in the democratic platform providing publicity of campaign funds, before election. "I asked my national committee," he said, "to publish the contributions before the election and it has done so. I asked your congressional committee to follow the example of the national committee and it has done so. Mr. Taft's national committee has promised to publish the contributions after the election when he knows it will be too late to be of advantage to the voters, but the republican congressional committee has not promised to publish the contributions even after the election. I now ask Mr. Taft if he will request the congressional committee to announce at once that publication will be made after the election. If not, we have a right to conclude that the congressional committee has to receive the funds that are too tainted to go into the treasury of the national committee."

"The conscience of the American people," he asserted, "demanded the inauguration of an era of honesty in politics. 'Can Mr. Taft afford to ignore this demand?' he inquired."

Mr. Bryan repeatedly referred to Mr. Taft's labor record. He declared Mr. Taft was the most objectionable public man to laboring men this country has ever known.

A heavy rain was coming down when the democratic candidate arrived. This did not seem to dampen the ardor of the people, for they swarmed around the station and along the streets to bid him welcome. After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was joined by Senator Hill, he proceeded in a carriage through a lane of red fire to the hall, eight blocks away, escorted by several marching clubs with bands. His progress through the streets was made the occasion for a great demonstration.

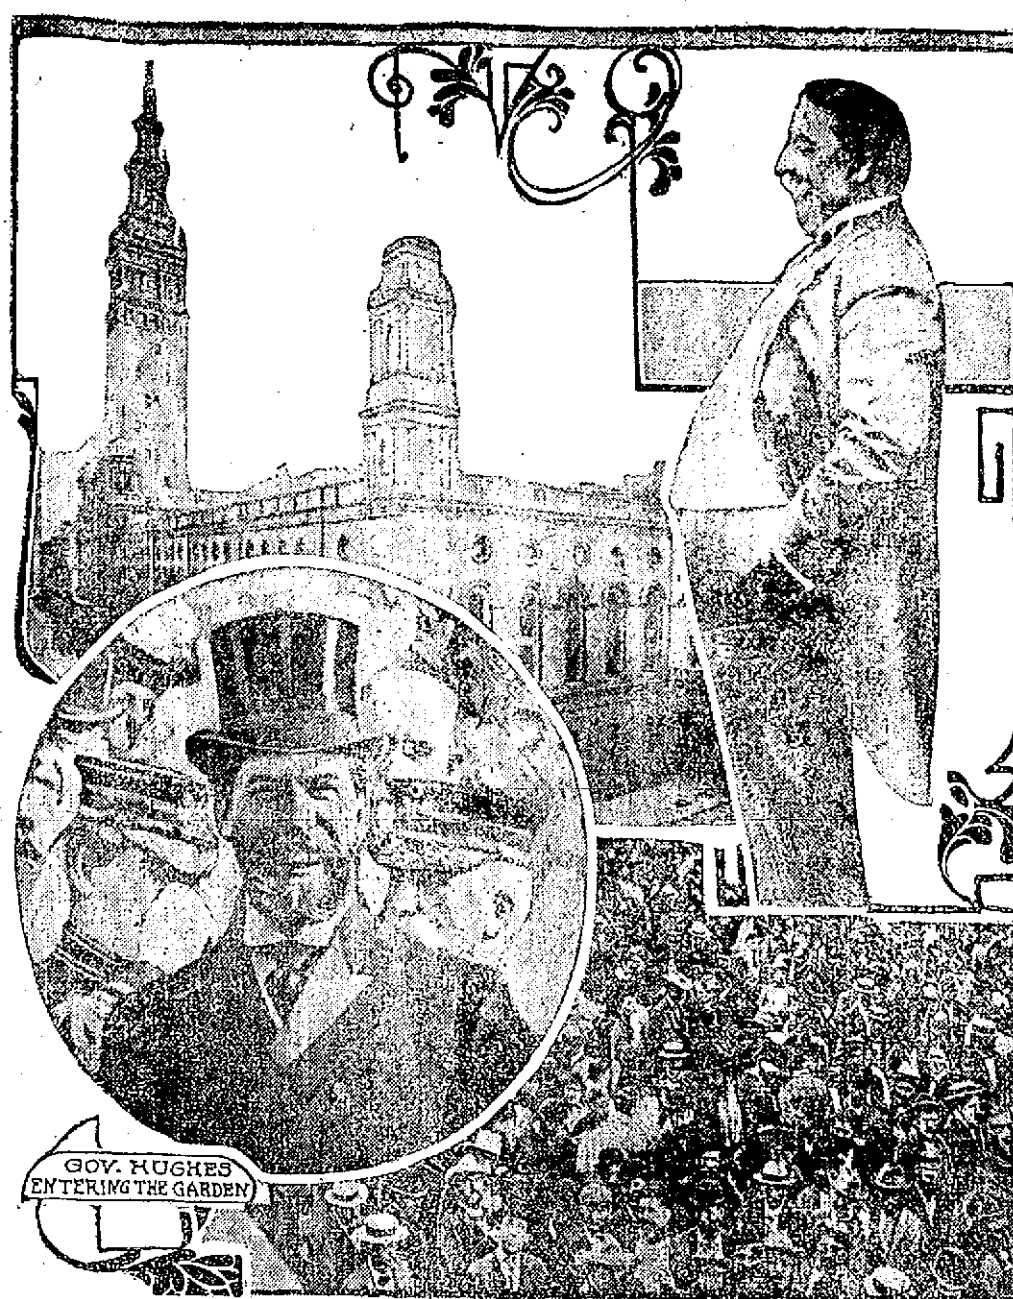

In the course of the day Mr. Bryan made speeches at Hastings-on-the-Hudson, Tarrytown, Ossining, Peekskill, Cold Springs, Fishkill, Poughkeepsie, Rhinecliff, Hudson, Rensselaer, Schenectady and Troy. Everywhere along the line of travel immense crowds turned out to bid him welcome. He frequently left the train to make speeches. His reception at Schenectady was notable. Two of his three speeches there were made in the open to the employees of the Locomotive Works and the General Electric company, who, notwithstanding the drizzling they got, stayed throughout his remarks, often punctuating them with cheers of approval. He told them that the tide was fast running with the democratic party, and that reports from all over the country indicated a democratic victory. He met a large crowd at Troy, from which point he will leave in the morning at 9.45 for Utica, Rome and Syracuse.

KILLED SON WHILE THROWING STONE AT A MULE

RUSSELLVILLE, Ala., Oct. 29.—James Thorn, a farmer, while attempting to run a mule out of a yard yesterday, picked up a stone and threw it at the animal. He missed the mule and hit his two-year-old son, killing him instantly.

BLIND EVANGELIST
A large audience greeted Rev. A. E. Hatch, the blind evangelist, at the Adventist Christian church, Grand street Tuesday evening. He spoke on "The Economics of Christianity." "All men," he said, "want life, and all desire land. These are the great human desires, and these are promised in the gospel. God offers us real life, endless life, abundant life, and life without pain. And He offers land, for the 'meek shall inherit the earth.'"

Rev. Mr. Hatch is a good storyteller, and a way of putting things peculiar to himself. Meetings continue each evening this week, except Saturday evening.

TAFT WAS CHEERED

Great Gathering of Republicans in Madison Square Garden

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y., Oct. 29.—William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes were the stellar attractions at a great republican mass meeting at Madison Square Garden last night. At every mention of the name of Gov. Hughes the hall resounded with cheering. When Gov. Hughes entered the hall the crowd, which filled every available space in the auditorium, cheered him for 16 minutes without stopping. Gov. Hughes made a characteristic address, which was received enthusiastically.

But it remained for Mr. Taft to inspire the greatest demonstration. For 19 minutes Madison Square Garden trembled from the stamping of thousands of feet and the thunder of voices.

MANY ADDRESSES

Continued.

desired effect. The odious regulations were repealed, and within a few weeks Protestant citizens of Boston, to their great credit, and for the first time in the history of the city, selected a Catholic priest and several Catholic laymen for membership on the school board.

"During the 50s he was invited to become one of the incorporators of the Thursday Evening club. In this club, as well as in the company of the bishop, he passed many delightful hours. His whole demeanor and thoroughgoing Americanism allied suspicion."

"Perhaps his most distinguished convert was the philosopher and economist, Orestes A. Brownson, who joined the church in 1844."

"The outbreak of the Civil war caused the bishop to act again. He ordered prayers in all the churches of the diocese for the success of the Union, from which time until Appomattox was written into history. His whole being was in sympathy with Gov. Andrew's aim that Massachusetts should stand foremost among the states in support of Lincoln and his policies."

Tribute to Late Archbishop
Thomas Dwight made the late Archbishop Williams the subject of his address. He said in part:

"At the celebration of his sacerdotal golden jubilee in May, 1885, I had the honor to offer to his grace a portrait of himself by Mr. Vinton on the part of the Catholic union. After expressing his thanks he declared that he was satisfied with what the union had accomplished. I remember well the emphasis on the word 'satisfied.' Then followed some remarks which are worth preserving. As the last speaker recalled former words of mine to the union, I will again allude to them. It is said that in addressing the union I told them that I did not want aggressive Catholics. And I say so today. I do not desire aggressive Catholics. But what do I mean by this? Do I mean that I want cowardly Catholics? No, I mean Catholics who shall stand on their rights as American citizens; no more."

During the years of the wretched A. P. A. business, with one exception, he was absolutely silent. But let no one think that he was the silence of the indifferent.

"Probably many are here tonight who were present in this hall five years ago at the 100th anniversary of the Holy Cross. They must remember the emotion with which he said: 'On Aug. 11, a year after the burning of the convent in 1835, I stood on Warren bridge and saw all Charlestown square in a flame, and the tavern which stood between the two bridges destroyed that night by fire while I looked on; and we knew that the men went from there to burn the convent, and that was a year afterward, precisely on that night."

"But the only occasion on which he gave vent to his righteous indignation was at a meeting of the Catholic union in 1891, on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his congregation. The lamented Thomas J. Gargan had alluded to those outrages in an address, to which the archbishop replied: 'I am glad to say publicly that I am proud of the Catholics of Boston for the last two years. It is not the accusations that have been made against us, nor the revivings even, not even the insults, that I find fault with, but the attacks that were made on the virtue of our ladies in religious societies. The revivings attacked the clergy; but to that we were less sensitive, for we are men. But when they came to attack the women who had devoted their lives to virginity. . . . When placards were placed on our walls and not torn down by the authorities of the city—then it was almost time to resent it. And yet you remained quiet. For this I gave you credit and for this I am proud today.'"

"In that same address he said that there is one thing we never forget: that is, a kindness, and he mentioned the names of some of Boston's old families who had helped in the building of Boston's first cathedral, and rejoiced that these families are still known in the city, honored and respected as they were 100 years before."

Illustrative Incident
"The following incident illustrates to what an extent he carried his policy of absolute silence under attack, and I believe that he would wish me to speak of those who stood up for justice. A truly abominable bill had been introduced into the legislature openly aimed at Catholic schools. The danger was indeed great; but the archbishop made no sign. He entrusted the conduct of the affair to Mr. Charles F. Donnelly, and at his suggestion I into Gen. Francis A. Walker, president of the Institute of Technology. There, as well as Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson and others, appeared before the committee in March, 1888. Col. Higginson began by declaring that he had learned his first lesson in religious liberty when he stood by his mother's side and watched the burning of the Ursuline convent. A President Eliot said, 'I think it would be hard to conceive a more exasperating and dangerous bit of legislation than that contained in the paragraph I have quoted.' The result was a painful surprise to the supporters of the bill.

"Surely one of the greatest advances during the latter years of Archbishop Williams' administration is the increase of Catholic influence in public boards governing charitable institutions in state and city, and with it the removal of wrongs which Catholics, and especially children, suffered by nightmarish of the disasters that would follow giving ordinary rights to Catholics have now an opportunity of seeing that nothing but good has come from the change, and above all, that the religious rights of non-Catholic children have not been abridged, but extended."

Archbishop O'Connell
Archbishop O'Connell, who spoke briefly, said:

"My message, humble as it was, was given this morning. It was a message not only to our own people, but I hope, in the spirit, in which it was sent, to all the people of New England—indeed, for that matter, to all men of good will throughout the country. There is one thing which the meeting tonight certainly must make clear to all. The story of the last 100 years, of the first century of Catholicity in Boston and New England, as displayed through the lives of these four bishops which the four gentlemen have described to you, has a great lesson, and that lesson is twofold—the absolute devotion and fidelity

Food is more tasteful, healthful and nutritious when raised with.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

Made from Grapes

Absolutely PURE

of the bishops to their people, and the love, affection, loyalty and allegiance unto death of the Catholic people of Boston to their prelates. (Applause.) That lesson must come home to every one of us tonight—to bishop and people both. These prelates worked and labored hard, late and early, and their labors were blessed by God. They performed wonders in their day. But we, too, have to work, labor and toil to finish in our way, as long as God gives us strength, what they so nobly began.

"There is here tonight the representative of the Holy Father in Rome, who from the throne of Peter watches out over all the world, guides and guards the faithful in their devotion, their faith, their doctrine, encouraging the work of the church wherever it is being done, and has sent us a glorious message, which was read at the cathedral today. I ask his excellency the apostolic delegate to give us a blessing in the name of the Holy Father, a blessing which I know every Catholic in Boston will receive in the spirit of perfect loyalty and devotion to the holy see."

Archbishop Falconio briefly acknowledged the love and devotion shown by the Catholics of Boston and the Holy Father: "I tender you," he said, "my sincerest congratulations. Since God has been pleased to bless this diocese, I hope he will continue to bestow on you His choicest blessings. Now, in the name of our Holy Father, the pope, I impart to you his blessing, and I hope it will descend to your families and to all the people of this beloved city and state."

DANCING PARTY HELD BY WOMEN OF ST. PATRICK'S HOME

A very pretty dancing party was held in Prescott hall last night under the auspices of the young women of St. Patrick's home. The hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion and everything was done to make the evening an enjoyable one. Despite the wet weather the friends of the young women turned out in large numbers and the event proved to be one of the social successes of the season.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Colonial orchestra.

The success of the party was due to the untiring and zealous work of the following: General manager, Miss Katherine Boland; assistant general manager, Miss Irene Allard; floor director, Miss Margaret Crowley; assistant floor director, Miss Mary Fallon; chief aid, Miss Annie Cullen; aids, Miss Ada Nestor, Miss Margaret Bagley, Miss May Bagley, Miss Bridget Conlon, Miss Agnes Brennan, Miss May Sullivan, Miss Bresnahan, Miss Annie McDonald and Miss Sarah Achim.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Highland-Veritas lodge, I. O. O. F., held a "red letter" night in Odd Fellows temple last night and despite the inclement weather there was a very large attendance. After the regular business meeting a banquet was served in the hall and post prandial exercises followed the discussion of the menu. A musical program of songs and instrumental numbers was also given.

The meeting was attended by a large number of Odd Fellows from local and other lodges, and the guests at dinner numbered nearly 200.

The regular meeting of Spindle City lodge, I. O. G. T., was held last night in Pilsner hall. There were several propositions for membership. Plans for the next quarter were discussed and a committee consisting of Sisters Young and Reid and Brothers Matheson and Montgomery was appointed to arrange a suitable program. The following officers were elected for the next quarter: C. T. Frank E. McLean; V. T. Ethel Reid; secretary, Edythe Young; financial secretary, John A. Matheson; treasurer, Herbert Montgomery; pianist, Viola Reid; marshal, R. E. Flynn.

Tonight a public meeting will be held in the same hall to which all good templars and their friends are invited. The speakers will be Rev. A. K. Kenyon and Mrs. Jeannette Mann of Everett. There will be music and refreshments will be served.

Court Middlesex, F. of A., met in regular session last night. Chief Ranger John H. Gordon in the chair. The auditors made their report for the last quarter, showing that the court is in a good financial condition. The trustees made an inventory report of the court's property and stated that it is in good condition and well insured against fire. Two applications for membership were also received.

CHILD INJURED

Little One Was Tossed by a Cow

NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 29.—A wild cow seriously injured Miss Elsie Pierce, the 8-year-old daughter of Andrew G. Pierce, Jr., president of the Pierce mill corporation, yesterday morning.

It came at the close of a 12-hour rampage in which a number of citizens were attacked by the frenzied animal. Yesterday morning the little Pierce girl, with Rebecca Johnson and Louise, the daughter of Dr. Charles A. Pratt, were playing on the lawn of the William J. Rotch estate when the cow entered the premises. John A. Johnson, the gardener, started to drive the animal out, when it charged upon him.

Johnson jumped behind a shed and the cow turned a somersault. Then the cow charged upon the children and threw the Pierce child ten feet in the air and attempted to gore her. Johnson diverted the animal's attention and the child was saved, several braces being the only injury.

Capt. John C. Parker and Patrolman White of the police department followed up the cow and overtook it at the corner of Orchard and Union streets, where it charged upon Capt. Parker, who was knocked over in attempting to use a lasso.

Capt. Parker's revolver exploded and he narrowly escaped injury. The officer shot at the cow a dozen times and one shot broke the cow's leg. A man in the crowd cut the cow's throat.

FINGER PRINTS

Men Arrested in Lowell are Identified

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Dactyloscopy, a word coined since the last dictionary, left the presses, resulted in the identification of two well-known thieves at police headquarters yesterday.

Dactyloscopy is not a disease; it is a science. Specifically, dactyloscopy is the method of identifying criminals by their finger-prints, and for the past two years ink impressions of the finger tips of every criminal brought to headquarters have been filed away in the Rogers' gallery in Pemberton square.

Last Monday two men, giving the names of Frank Myers and Harry Clark, were arrested in Lowell charged with larceny and Superintendent Moffatt, a firm believer in the fingerprint system, took impressions of their fingers, forwarding them to Inspector Gustafson at Boston headquarters.

Although the men arrested in Lowell had protested that they had never before been in the coils of the police, the Boston Rogers' gallery was found to contain their photographs, finger-prints and a long record for each.

With only the finger prints to work from, Inspector Gustafson established the identity of the two men.

CARLTON ARROW COLLAR

that tries neither thumb, tie nor temper

15 Cents Each—1 for 25 Cents

Clothes Store, 150 N. Y.

The Arrow Brand Collars, including the new styles, are on sale at TALBOT CLOTHING CO., American House Block, Central St.

For a Warm Bath Room

A bath in a cold room is a "shivery" operation and is extremely liable to cause colds. The bathroom above all should be kept warm. This is easy and the bath is a comfort if you have a

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

It may be carried from any other room to the bath room, which it will heat while you are preparing for the bath. Impossible to turn it too high or too low. The most economical heater you can buy—intense heat for 9 hours with one filling.

The Rayo Lamp is the best lamp for all-round household purposes. Gives a clear, steady light. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Equipped with the latest improved central draft burner. Handsome—simple—satisfactory. Every lamp guaranteed.

If you cannot get heater or lamp at your dealer's, write our nearest agent for descriptive circular.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (Incorporated)

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service is received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun, for the year 1907 was

15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1908.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

A WORD TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

The enthusiasm shown at the democratic rally, held on Tuesday evening, astonished the local committee and even the candidates, inasmuch as no such interest was anticipated.

Hon. James H. Vahey, candidate for governor, proved to be quite a fluent and magnetic speaker. His arraignment of Lieut. Gov. Draper was quite severe but yet we do not believe he said anything that cannot be fully substantiated. Everybody knows that Draper is opposed to union labor, that he is the head of the loom trust, and an extremist on the tariff uniting with the "standpatters" against a reasonable revision.

The specific charges which Mr. Vahey made against Mr. Draper were sufficient to convince the audience that the republican candidate is unpopular with the masses, and not a man who can be relied upon to reverse the republican policy of extravagance at the state house.

Mr. Vahey gave a clear and forcible exposition of the methods by which large corporations put through expensive measures by the influence of the lobby, measures that are not demanded by the public good and are intended to serve only private interests.

The democratic candidate believes in having no temporizing with the lobby. He mentioned in particular the efforts of the city of Lawrence to have a boom laid across the river above the falls to save people from drifting over in boats and showed how the Essex company working through the lobby had defeated the measure.

If some of the measures of reform which Mr. Vahey as advocated were adopted we should see a great reduction in the state tax that has been quadrupled in ten years.

The meeting took kindly to the expressions in favor of Hon. Joseph J. Flynn, the candidate for congress, and the mention of the attempt to endorse a republican candidate was met with expressions of contempt. Mr. Flynn in his address promised to use his influence for the best interests of the district. He should receive the united support of the democracy in every town and city of the district.

There is also a strong sentiment in favor of the election of Rep. James E. O'Donnell for senator in the eighth district. He spoke of his services in the legislature in a very plain and candid manner, telling why he supported some measures and why he voted against others. In stating that his action in either case was ruled solely by his conviction of right and that if elected senator and the same measures should come up again he would vote as he had done before.

At a time when such strong appeals are being made in behalf of either party it behooves all democrats to stand loyally by their ticket and vote for every democratic candidate from Bryan down to the humblest nominee for representative. A strong minority in the legislature can exercise a powerful influence in behalf of popular reforms and for economy in public expenditures. Extravagance, it seems, is the chief evil to be combatted in the republican administration of Massachusetts. Democrats should unite to reduce all unnecessary expenditures and thereby reduce the tax rate in every town and city in the state.

ROOSEVELT'S CONDUCT SHOULD BE REBUKED.

As the campaign draws to a close the one thing that stands out above all others to condemn the republican party and bring about the defeat of Mr. Taft is the action of President Roosevelt in his efforts to dictate openly from the White House the election of his personally selected candidate for the presidency.

Since the opening of the campaign Mr. Roosevelt has used his official position to intimidate the people into voting for Taft. He has threatened; he has railed and brawled; he has written letters of the most unreliable and unwarranted character and in every possible way in which he could use his power he has endeavored to force the election of the republican candidate.

When he had done all that he could do personally, he ordered his cabinet officers to take the stump; and now, the country beholds the spectacle of Secretary Root of the state department; Postmaster General Meyer, Secretary Coneydon of the treasury department; Secretary Wright of the war department, and other officials all out under orders from the president in a most strenuous effort to avert republican defeat.

Meanwhile President Roosevelt, like a lion in a cage, is chafing in the White House. He appears simply to have become furious at the prospect of defeat.

He has told the people in one of his letters that calamity would come with the election of Bryan, and that it would be unpatriotic, in view of that fact, not to vote for Taft!

This is the first time in history when the president of the United States used his power and influence as a campaigner in the interest of a particular candidate for the presidency. It is the first time in history that any president has attempted to name his own successor, or to compel his election. It is the first time also that a president has practically ordered all the machinery of government and all the heads of the federal departments to abandon their duties and enter the service of the republican party as campaigners in the interest of a particular candidate.

Why should any employee of the postoffice department, for example, be denied the privilege of electioneering when the postmaster general is out on the stump? Has not the letter carrier or the postal clerk or the rural mail driver got a right to his choice of candidates, and a right to exercise the franchise as he pleases, despite the mandate of President Roosevelt?

The president has outraged the dignity of his office; he has dragged the honor of the United States in the dust; he has prostituted his high authority to the vilest kind of campaigning; he has set an example that if followed will be ruinous to the nation; he has assumed authority that does not belong to him; he has interfered to intimidate the voters in the free exercise of the franchise, and he has undertaken to dictate his successor. In view of all these things the assumption is not unwarranted that the next step may be the Roosevelt dynasty.

We hear much talk about the despotism of European monarchs, but there is not a monarch or an emperor in Europe that would dare do half what President Roosevelt has done. If King Edward of England attempted to influence the electorate as President Roosevelt has done the chances are that he would be beheaded in spite of his army and navy.

President Roosevelt can exercise legitimately immensely more power than a constitutional monarch, but he has far overstepped the bounds of his legal and customary authority and has made himself a menace to the government and to the liberties of the people, and all this as he claims to secure the election of a man who will carry out "his policies."

This is the time to rebuke President Roosevelt for his unwarranted interference with the people in their choice of a president. If the opportunity be let pass the people will regret it. It is a bad precedent to establish, and unless the people resent such interference in the present case it will be repeated by Taft if elected or by some other republican president in the future. We do not believe that any democratic president would ever attempt so to outrage the highest office in the nation.

The way to rebuke President Roosevelt for his insolent interference with the rights of citizens is to vote for Mr. Bryan and bury Mr. Taft so deeply in defeat that Mr. Roosevelt will have reason to regret his course in this campaign and to remember that the people will allow no prostitution of the high office of president to such vile ends.

SEEN AND HEARD

DOLLAR A WORD POEM

Quickly following the announcement that President Roosevelt will write his own hunting experiences for a magazine, comes the following clever jingle. In reading just omit the dollar marks:

The (1) Hon (1) stood (1)
Within (1) the (1) wood (1):
I (1) took (1) a (1) steady (1)
aim (1):

My (1) bullet (1) sped (1)
And (1) he (1) lay (1) dead (1):
By (1) my (1) good (1) rifle (1)
slain (1):

His (1) struggles (1) ceased (1):
Lay (1) noble (1) beast (1)
Lay (1) stretched (1) upon (1)
his (1) side (1):

My (1) bullet (1) true (1)
Dad (1) bored (1) him (1) through (1)
And (1) instantly (1) he'd (1)
died (1):

(1) rush (1), a (1) crash (1),
A (1) flash (1), a (1) flash (1)
Before (1) my (1) startled (1) eyes (1):

And (1) then (1) I (1) knew (1)
I'd (1) work (1) to (1) do (1):
Ere (1) I (1) could (1) claim (1)
my (1) prize (1):

His (1) maddened (1) mate (1)
I (1) saw (1) too (1) late (1):
Had (1) reached (1) me (1) with (1)
(1) a (1) bound (1):

With (1) trusty (1) knife (1)
I (1) sought (1) her (1) life (1):
As (1) he (1) rolled (1) o'er (1)
the (1) ground (1):

My (1) skill (1) and (1) strength (1)
Prevailed (1) at (1) length (1):
And (1) with (1) a (1) movement (1)
(1) quick (1):

I (1) laid (1) low (1)
With (1) one (1) sharp (1) blow (1)
Of (1) my (1) renowned (1) big (1)
(1) stick (1):

T. (1) R. (1)
Total (1)
—N. A. J. in New York City.

Mr. Edward Cahill, of this city, has been elected for the third time president of his class at the University of Pennsylvania.

The number of straw hats in evidence on Monday night at the Hath-

GOUT & RHEUMATISM
Use Grant's English Remedy
BLAIR'S PILLS
Sole, Stry, Effective. 50c, & $1.
Bottle 75c, or 10c per box, 10c per box, 10c per box.

Steamship Tickets
To and from Great Britain, Ireland and all parts of Europe, on the Cunard, White Star and all the leading lines.

AT MURPHY'S AGENCY,
15 Appleton St., opp. Postoffice.
Money orders and drafts sold, payable in all parts of Europe, for any amount.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE
—FOR—
Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases
—FOR SALE—
At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores
THIRTY-FIVE CENTS.

Wall Paper
—AT—
97 APPLETON ST.

ELECTRIC AND COMBINATION FIXTURES
At Manufacturer's Prices
—AT—
DERBY & MORSE'S
64 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL
Attorney-at-Law
Hildreth Building Lowell, Mass.

Fresh Clams Every Day
At the Lowell Inn. Fresh fish direct from the Boston wharves. Lobsters fresh from the traps. Meats fresh and wholesome. Call and see us.
LOWELL INN, busiest place in Central street.

JOHN J. O'DONNELL
FUNERAL DIRECTOR,
Telephone Connection
1010 Central St. Davis Sq.

$ SAVED IS $ MADE
Your can experience same at
Louis Price's
14 PRESCOTT STREET
I guarantee a saving on all work and purchases.

ALLAN LINE ROYAL MAIL STEAMERS
Moderate Rate Passenger Service
Boston-Glasgow via Londonderry, Ire.
Laurentian, Nov. 6; Numidian, Nov. 25; Ionian, Dec. 12; Laurentian, Dec. 28.
Second Cabin, Glasgow and Derry, 10:00. Third Class, 2:00. Glasgow, Derry, Belfast and Liverpool. Entire rooms reserved for married couples. Children 14 years, half fare. H. & A. ALLAN, 110 State street, Boston.

Denis Murphy, 18 Appleton Street

NEW PLAY AT THE NATIONAL, WHEN MISS ROOSEVELT APPEARED WITH HER PARENTS IN THE PRESIDENTIAL BOX WEARING A LOW-NECKED GOWN OF LIGHT BLUE SATIN CREPE, MADE IN THE PREVAILING CLOSE, STRAIGHT LINES, WITH ITS UPPER PORTION ALMOST ENTIRELY OF WHITE LACE. THE LATTER HAD A FINE FLUENCE ACROSS THE SLIGHT DECOLLETAGE, AND ALSO FORMED THE SLEEVES, WHICH CAME TO THE ELBOW. A LARGE COURAGE BOUQUET OF GARDENIAS GAVE A FESTIVE TOUCH TO THE GOWN. ANOTHER DEPARTURE WAS THE ABSENCE OF GLOVES, RINGS OR BRACELETS.

Berliners, although perhaps surprised thereby, find a certain piquancy in the republican simplicity of costume worn at great public and court functions by Dr. David Jayne Hill, the new American ambassador. On these occasions the ambassador and his embassy staff appear in unadorned evening dress, and they so appeared at a gala performance of the opera on Wednesday evening in honor of the Kaiser's fourth son and his fiancée. One newspaper described the next day in evening clothes" appeared in the middle of the diplomatic box. "There sat," said the writer, "between Herr Von Szogyeny, the Austrian ambassador, who wore a picturesque dolman over his costume of a Knight of the Round Table, and Sir Frank Lascelles, the British ambassador, in the glittering pride of a diplomatic uniform, who was a journalist who perhaps slipped boldly in? No. It was the new American ambassador, quite simply dressed in an evening suit, without a single star. Every opera glass was leveled toward him. Our minds recurred to Mr. Charlemagne Tower, his predecessor, who on such occasions was wont to bedizen himself with gold."

Every man and woman in New England who has ever seen Denman Thompson in "The Old Homestead" is interested in the news from Keene, N. H., that his son, Franklin, who is manager of his father's famous show, has sued his wife for divorce and that young Mrs. Thompson has fled a cross-labeled for divorce in her own behalf. Mrs. Franklin Thompson was formerly Ethel Ormonde, actress and singer. When the show is not on the road Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Thompson live at West Swanzey, N. H. Mr. Thompson's home, Denman Thompson owns the "old homestead" in West Swanzey, N. H., and retires to its comfort when not on the stage. His son, Franklin Thompson, is manager of the place. In the play everything moves with serene calm on the "old homestead" and everything was supposed to be harmonious on the West Swanzey farm. But the double divorce proceedings between Franklin Thompson and his wife indicate that something has sadly upset the pastoral peace of the West Swanzey home. There is considerable mystery concerning just what is at the bottom of the proceedings. Both of the Chesire county, N. H., superior court, and are expected to come up at the Keene sessions. Keene is only a little way from West Swanzey, and all the West Swanzey populace is expected to be at Keene courthouse when the cases are called. Mr. Thompson's divorce label was filed through the office of Attorney Charles Hersey, who refuses to discuss the case. Mrs. Thompson has fled a cross-labeled through her lawyer, John E. Allen of Keene. Mr. Allen is equally reticent on the subject. Meanwhile both Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Thompson are in New York. Mr. Thompson is there watching his father's celebrated show, which is playing at the Academy of Music in that city. Mrs. Thompson is in New York, but it is not thought that she is with her husband.

BLAMES WIFE
MAN SAYS SHE DROVE HIM TO SUICIDE
BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Is a wife justified in refusing to live with her husband because of his drinking habits even though he has told her that he will take his own life if she persists in her refusal?
This is the question of ethics involved in the tragic suicide of a Wattham man in a Tremont street hotel yesterday.

"My wife is the cause of this," scribbled on a slip of paper tucked in one of his pockets, is the only clue the Boston police have to account for the death of the man who was found locked in his room and with a bullet hole through the head.

From papers found in the pockets the man's identity was established. He was George Warren Stone, 59 years, who had retired from the teaming business and had been estranged from his wife since last May.

COTTON FUTURES
NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Cotton futures opened steady. Oct. 24; Nov. 25; Dec. 26; Jan. 27; Feb. 28; March 29; April 30; May 31; June 32; July 33; Aug. 34.

PUTNAM &amp; SON CO., 166 Central St.

WE DRESS YOUR BOY FROM TOP TO TOE

Do it remarkably well and at the fairest prices. Whatever we sell, we guarantee to give excellent service—if you have cause for complaint, return the goods, we will adjust matters to your satisfaction.

80 BOYS' SUITS

Value $3.50, for $2.50

A group of excellent suits to fit boys 8 years to 16. Double breast jackets, with knickerbocker trousers. Neat, fancy chevrons, smart cut and well made—today all sizes for.....$2.50

STRICTLY ALL WOOL SUITS

For Large Boys $4.00

New suits, in four attractive patterns of strictly all wool chevrons, in olive, oxford and brown mixtures that are so fashionable. Jackets are full double breast—trousers knickerbocker. Smart cut, capably tailored—actual $5.00 value, for....$4.00

FINE SUITS FOR BOYS

8 Years to 17

From the best New York makers, including Rogers-Peel's celebrated clothing for boys. All of the new colors, browns, olives, smoke shades, blue serges and chevrons are shown. Every suit new, of the latest cut, perfectly fitting, and splendidly tailored—patterns not to be found in any other store—$5, $6, $7 and up to $10

NEW RUSSIAN AND SAILOR SUITS to fit boys from 3 years

Neat fancy chevrons and blue and brown in solid colors, made with deep sailor collars, attractively trimmed and of the newest designs, for.....$2.00
With others, $2.50, $3.50, up to $6.00.

RUSSIAN OVERCOATS

For Boys 3 Years to 10

A collection of the best garments we have ever shown. Plain blue, brown and tan kerseys and meltons; new effects in fancy coatings—full double breast—all of the newest cut. Russian overcoats, $1.25
With great assortments for $2, $3, $4, to $8.

HANDSOME COAT SWEATERS

For Boys, 50 Cents

A new lot of fine oxford coat sweaters, with red borders, just received. Our first two lots sold like wildfire—at last we've got a good shipment and are ready to-day with these wonderful sweaters in all sizes.....50c

MOHAIR TAMS

Regular Fifty-Cent Tams for 25 Cents.

Twenty dozens of fine mohair tams for boys and girls in white and colors—full crowns and a regular fifty-cent quality. We bought the lot for half price and offer these tams while they last for.....25c

BOYS' SHOES

Worth Buying.

Boys' Solid Leather Shoes, high lace, oak tan and double soles, made on a serviceable last to fit the growing feet. Sizes 7 to 13½.....$1.35
For Large Boys the best in Lowell for.....$2.00
Genuine box calf, lace bluchers, sizes 1 to 5½, Goodyear welt, oak tan double soles, double back stays, smart and stylish lasts. $2.00

NORTH CHELMSFORD

On election day the polls in this village will open at 5:30 and remain open until 4 p. m.

The Holy Name society of St. John's church will hold a meeting this evening to make final arrangements for the parade in Boston next Sunday.

Court Warralland, M. C. O. F., held a well attended meeting in St. John's hall last evening with a delegation of Grandville Foresters as guests. A smoke talk and entertainment were enjoyed.

"Isn't This About the Limit?"

A Good Mediterranean

BATH

SPONGE

25c better one for 40c
And a still better one for
90c
These are genuine Mandruka Sponges.

C. B. COBURN CO.
63 Market Street

AMES ON THE RUN

Republican Candidate Sees the Handwriting

The friends of Mr. Ames are very busy these days trying to tell the voters that Mr. Ames had nothing to do with the fake convention of democrats which tried to feign him on the democratic voters but no one believes that these things were done without his consent or connivance.

Mr. Ames does not sell themselves out except for a consideration. Who had an interest in this matter? What was the one to benefit by this trick? What was the consideration given these men to betray their party which trusted them? No one believes that these things were done excepting with the full knowledge and consent of Mr. Ames. If he had no hand in this illegal convention why did he not repudiate it and the men who were responsible for it? Why did he send his attorney before the ballot law commission to have the fake convention legalized? Mr. Ames cannot deny his connection with these men. It is useless to attempt to deny it.

Certain well known republicans were not surprised to learn that an attempt had been made to steal the convention when the report of the meeting appeared in the papers for they had been informed some time before that the congressman would "get" the democratic nomination.

This has been a silent year for Lowell in the legislature for the only Lowell men who have been heard from in the state house this year were the three democrats. In fact some of the republicans cut so small a figure that one has to look twice to recall just who the republican representatives are. This is a painful truth of the district which includes ward one and Dracut. Fortunately for the district the democrats have come to its rescue by placing in nomination a man of ability and address, Mr. John P. Farley, who, if elected, will at least impress upon the legislature the fact that at last the district has a live man as its representative.

Tuesday evening's rally renewed the interest in the state campaign and

CAMPAIGN FUND

Over $40,000 Received at Dem. Headquarters

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Announcement was made by the democratic national committee yesterday that campaign contributions aggregating over $40,000 were received at the New York headquarters on Oct. 27. The list made public yesterday afternoon shows that the sum of $17,000 was contributed by Herman Ridder, treasurer of the national committee, and his three sons. The list in part is as follows:

New York—Herman Ridder, $10,000; Victor F. Ridder, $2,000; Bernard Ridder, $2,000; Joseph Ridder, $2,000; Morgan J. O'Brien, $500.

Missouri—Edward F. Goltz, $2,000.

THE CHICAGO FUND
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Campaign contributions aggregating $305, received on

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skill of the best physicians for so many years, at last seems to be curable—and curable with that ease which is characteristic of the last two years' indications conclusively that baby's itches, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.

The Rev. Lewis Stedley of Weatherly, Pa., writes:

"Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the eyes nearly all the time. After using 2 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child that is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen how often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent; we have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children.

Carter & Sherbourn, and Falls & Burkhaw

RESIN SIZED SHEATHING PAPER

1 1-2c per lb.
$30 per ton

W. T. S. Bartlett

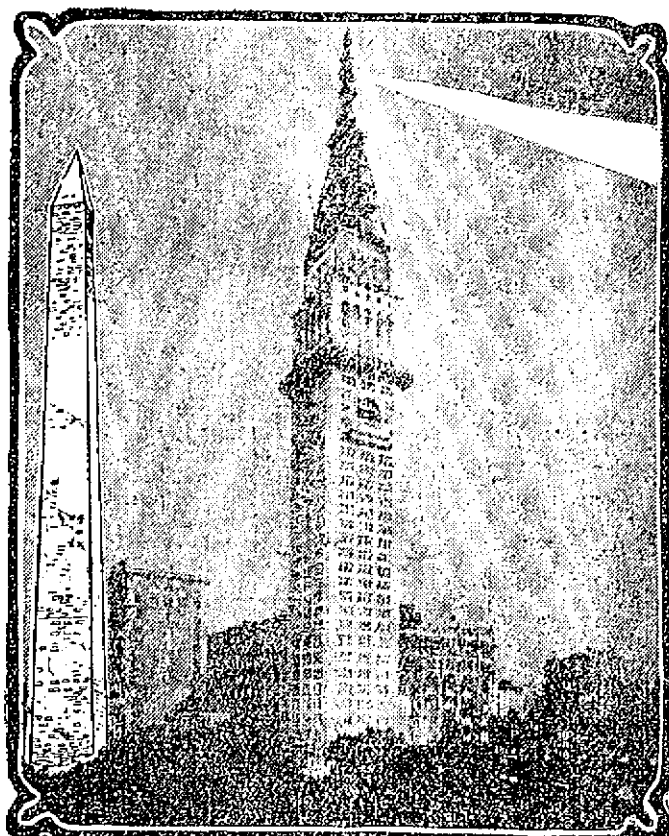

633-659 MERRIMACK ST.
The Uptown Hardware Store

BAY STATE DYE WORKS

Acknowledged to be the best place to have your fall and winter dyes and cleansing done, and now is the time to bring it in before the rush starts. It will make it easier for the manager and you will more profit by it as the work will be more carefully looked after than if the big rush was on. The wise one always takes advantage of these conditions and thereby always gets the best possible service. Start at once and send in your wearing apparel to the

Bay State Dye Works
64 PRESCOTT STREET.

ELECTION RESULT FLASHED FROM WORLD'S HIGHEST BUILDING

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—If the weather conditions are favorable, 7,000,000 people in New York and its environs will get the first news of the definite result of the election on the night of November 3 by means of a searchlight flashed from the tower of the Metropolitan Life building. This tower is 555 feet tall, or 103 feet higher than the Washington monument, as shown by the comparison in this picture. It is estimated that the searchlight may be seen at a distance of sixty miles. The light will be the most powerful one ever seen in this country, having a radiance of 100,000 candle power. If the shaft of light points north, it will indicate Taft's election; if south, Bryan's. A flash to the west will indicate Governor Hughes' election, to the east Chandler's.

AFTER CANNON

W. C. T. U. WANTS HIM DEFEATED

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 28.—The National W. C. T. U. convention yesterday adopted with practical unanimity a resolution commending the efforts of the churches to defeat the re-election of Joseph G. Cannon as a member of congress.

SWEDISH CHURCH

OPENED ITS BAZAAR WITH LARGE ATTENDANCE

The Swedish M. E. church was the scene last night of the annual church bazaar. The attendance was large and the booths were well patronized. The fair opened with a concert and address by Rev. John T. Ullum, pastor of the Borean Methodist church.

The concert program was as follows: Hymn and invocation; piano solo, Miss Nellie Pilkington; song, Mr. Samuel J. Burt; reading, Miss Mabel Mallory; song, Mrs. W. H. McQuade; selection, male chorus; address, Rev. Mr. Ullum; duet, Mrs. W. H. McQuade and Mr. Samuel J. Burt; accompanist, Miss Minnie Burt.

The sales tables were arranged in good taste with the Swedish colors, and the young women of one table were dressed in Swedish costume. The women on the table committees were as follows: Ladies' Aid society table, Mrs. E. Nilson, Mrs. H. Launen and Mrs. S. Pihl. The table conducted by the young women was waited upon by Misses Pauline Salomonson, Lena Carlsson, Mattila Schendron, Eva Anderson and Florence Johnson.

The Chinese laundry was in charge of Miss Esther Pihl and was well visited by patrons during the evening. Mrs. Hulda Hornsfall and Mrs. M. N. Swanson served ice cream, and a coffee table was waited upon by Mrs. Josephine Schendron and Mrs. M. Anderson. The candy and flower table did a large business and was in charge of Mrs. Eva Pihl.

Another concert will be given to-night and the fair will continue tonight and tomorrow night.

PEERLESS FAIR

OPENED AT PRIMITIVE METHODIST CHURCH

The attendance on the second night of the Peerless fair at the Gorham Street Methodist church was almost as large as on the opening night. Last night the attractions were added to by a concert given by members of the choir of the First Presbyterian church.

The fair booths were prettily decorated and well patronized and the concert proved a very attractive feature.

It was a Scotch concert as the following program doth tell: Selection, orchestra; song, "Annie Laurie," Mr. Robert Muir; duet, "Reuben and Rachel," Miss Charlotte Mary Haskell and Herbert Burns; song, "Hurray for the Highlands," Mr. John McLaren; song, "Bonnie Sweet Bessie," Miss Katherine Gordon; trio, "Ye Shepherds, Tell Me," Messrs. Muir, Smith and McLaren.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Man and a Woman Found in a Dying Condition

GREENFIELD, Mass., Oct. 28.—A double tragedy surrounded by mysterious circumstances, was enacted here last night. Benjamin E. Gaines, 39 years old, and Miss Harriet Mabel Wing, aged 29, were found in a dying condition from bullet wounds in front of the girl's boarding place, 11 Wells street.

Neither was able to make any statement and both died leaving behind them a mystery. The police, however, believe that Gaines shot the girl and then killed himself, but no cause can be ascribed for the shooting.

The tragedy was discovered by Miss Jennie Reed, who, while passing the house, thought she heard groans, and upon investigation found the bodies of Gaines and Miss Wing. The girl was lying on the ground near the piazza from which she had probably fallen when shot, and Gaines was hanging over the piazza railing. A revolver was found on the piazza, not far from where Gaines was lying.

Medical Examiner George B. Twit-

chell was called and ordered the body of Miss Wing, who was then dead taken to an undertaking establishment, while Gaines was rushed to the hospital. It was found that Miss Wing had three bullet wounds in her right breast, all very near together. Gaines was suffering from a bullet wound in the right temple. Immediately upon arriving at the hospital an operation was performed in the hope of extracting the bullet and saving his life, but this was unsuccessful, and he died about 10.30 last night.

No clue to the motive of the shooting can be learned. Both Miss Wing and Gaines were well known, popular and respected.

Gaines had been keeping company with Miss Wing for over a year and as near as can be learned there had been no quarrel between them. They were both of a particularly pleasant disposition and when they left their respective places of employment last night they appeared to be in the best of spirits.

BURGLARS FOILED

EXPLOSIVE LOCKED SAFE CASH DRAWER

ATTLEBORO, Oct. 28.—Although a party of burglars succeeded yesterday in blowing the outside and inside doors off the safe in the office of the grain mill of E. A. Briggs & Co. on Pleasant street, in this town, the explosives fastened the inside money chest so tight that the burglars were unable to get into it, and they were forced to make a hurried escape in an auto without getting a penny.

Although the break occurred about 2 o'clock in the morning the police were not notified until many hours later. William Thurber, who lived next to the grain mill, said that he was awakened by the sound of an explosion. Another explosion soon followed the first. A few minutes later he saw three men emerge from the office of the grain mill, enter an automobile and drive up Pleasant street in the direction of Norton. Thurber said he then went back to bed and did not think of the affair until late in the forenoon. When the members of the firm entered the office this morning they found that both outside and inside doors had been blown off the safe, but they did not notify the police until much later, having satisfied themselves that nothing had been stolen.

SEARCHED WOODS

FOR MISSING WALPOLE CHILD YESTERDAY

WALFOLE, Oct. 28.—Two hundred men and boys were searching the woods and swamps about this town yesterday in the hope of finding some trace of Emma, the three-year-old daughter of John Shuler, who disappeared from her home on Norfolk street, about two miles from the centre of the town, yesterday afternoon. The town officials and state police are assisting in the search. It was at first thought that the child might have been kidnapped by a band of gypsies, who passed through here yesterday, but a thorough examination of the gypsy camp at Medford today was without result. It is generally believed that the child wandered into what is known as cedar swamp near her home and it is feared that she was drowned in a mudhole.

CALUMET & HECLA

OLD CONTROVERSY IS RESUMED AGAIN

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Another chapter in the long drawn out controversy between the Calumet & Hecla Mining Co. and A. S. Bigelow and Godfrey S. Hyams over the control of certain shares of stock of the Osceola Mining Co. developed today in the filing in the United States circuit court, for Massachusetts by counsel for Messrs. Bigelow and Hyams of a number of exceptions to the bill of complaint recently brought against them by the Calumet management. The defendants, Bigelow and Hyams, deny that they determined to do certain acts and things with intent to force the Calumet and Hecla officers to purchase the shares of the Osceola and other companies owned by them at exorbitant prices. Exception is also taken to the allegation that A. S. Bigelow concealed from the U. S. circuit court for Michigan the fact that he had been desirous of selling and had proposed to sell the Calumet & Hecla company his stock and the stock of his friends and associates in the Osceola Co. and other Michigan mining companies to the Calumet and Hecla. It is further denied that Mr. Bigelow concealed from the Michigan court that the copper sold by the Osceola Co. and termed "Lake Copper" was not the product of the Lake district of Michigan, but a mixture purchased of the Tamarack and other companies with electrolytic copper produced by certain mines in Montana.

LEROY NOYES

WAS SENTENCED TO THE INSANE ASYLUM

CLINTON, Oct. 28.—After an examination by two physicians yesterday, Leroy D. Noyes of West Boylston, who confessed that he was possessed of a mania for setting fires and that he had started several fires in Boylston recently, was ordered committed to the Worcester insane asylum. Noyes is 22 years old.

HER FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Miss Bernice Grace Rayner celebrated the fourth anniversary of her birth yesterday at the home of her parents, 90 Third street. Among those present were the Misses Margaret and Dorothy Adelaide Rayner of Acton; also her mother, Mrs. Edwin R. Rayner; her grandmother, Mrs. George Lorman, and her great grandmother, Mrs. George A. Gray, all of Lowell. Refreshments were served.

THAT RASCAL PAT

COMEDY PRESENTED AT HIGH-LAND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Pemigewasset club of the Highland Congregational church presented "That Rascal, Pat," a one-act comedy, last night, to a large and appreciative audience. The comedy followed a harvest supper given by the Ladies' Charitable society of the church.

The cast was as follows: "Pat McGovern," a handy servant, Walter E. Hadley; "Maj. Puffbucker," on half pay, Frank P. Holman; Chas. Livingston, poor but ambitious, Harrison E. Byam; "Laura," niece to Puffbucker and in love with Charles, Miss Louise J. Bancroft, and "Nancy," Laura's maid, in love with Pat, Miss Lola L. Talbot. The little comedy was very well received and was creditably acted.

Miss Gertrude Varnum was chairman of the supper committee. She was assisted by Mrs. Frank H. Haynes, Mrs. Charles Fogg, Mrs. George W. Bagley, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. Clarence Bancroft, Mrs. Frank Hadley, Mrs. E. D. Livingston, Mrs. Walter Hadley, Mrs. S. P. Smith, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Boynton, Miss Gertrude Craven, and Miss George Clifford.

On the 15th of November the Men's league of the church will have a "New Hampshire" night. Last year a "Maine" night was held. All of those prominently connected with it were from the state of Maine. This year Granite Staters will have sway. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Dr. W. H. Bolster of Nashua, and Miss Hazel Chandler, also from New Hampshire, will read.

What the Kidneys Do

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight, hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

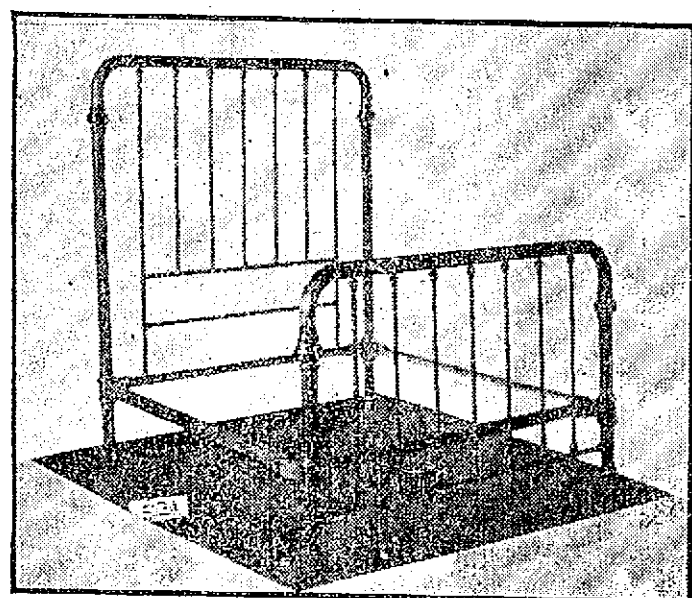

Thos. Armstrong, living at 104 Worthen st., Lowell, Mass., says: "I have used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and can say that they have done me more good than any other remedy I have ever taken. The work I do is very trying on my back and at times I would get so lame that I could scarcely straighten. If I stooped or attempted to lift anything, sharp pains would seize me and make me miserable for the time being. After using various remedies without finding relief, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at Ellingwood & Co.'s drug store. They cured me promptly and I have since recommended them to my friends."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MAKE MONEY
—BY—
SAVING COAL
The Hustler
Ash Sifter
Will sift ashes thoroughly, save all the coal and there will be no dust in the cellar.
GALVANIZED IRON ASH CANS
Several styles and prices.
COAL HODS
HAND SIFTERS WITH COVERS
BARTLETT & DOW
216 Central Street.

Brass Beds

We present many new designs this winter in brass beds.

We call especial attention to brass bedsteads of square tube construction as the height of simple elegance, and the heavy round tube in continuous post style like cut.

A handsome, artistic brass bed for your chamber can be bought at a price to suit any purse, costing from $20 to $65. The square tube styles $45, $50 and $65.

The dark, rich mahogany furniture and a brass bed make a handsome chamber.

ADAMS & CO.

Furniture—Rugs—Carpets

Appleton Bank Block

174 Central Street

THE LAUGH THAT GOES WITH HALLOWEEN

A DIFFERENT GAME.

Brown: "Have you ever ducked for apples?"
Smith: "No, but I've had to duck bird shot when I was looking for apples."

A HALLOWEEN SPELL.

The two young women were discussing Halloween spells and cantrips in advance, and the brother of one of them was offering occasional suggestions.

"You get an egg that has never been laid before—Fred, I wish you would go away and attend to your own business—I mean an egg that has been laid by a hen that has never laid an egg before!"

"Why don't you be concise and say a pullet's first egg?" interrupted the brother.

"You boil it in a pan in which an egg was never boiled before and cut it in two with something that has never been used for a knife before."

"I should think a bologna sausage might answer for that," remarked Fred reflectively.

"He's been that way ever since he came home from college," explained his sister to her friend, who was giggling amiably. "Somebody kicked him on the head in a football scrimmage. You mustn't mind him. Well, when you've got the egg boiled and cut in two you must take half and eat it, shell and all, and take the other half and eat it, and then—oh, I forgot to say that we mustn't either of us say a word while we're doing this!"

"That settles it," said Fred decisively. "All bets are off. You can't carry out the contract."

Keeping the Distance.

"I understand you're a distant relative of Roxley Astoright."

"You've got it twisted. He's a distant relative of mine."

To Be Permanently Located.

Clorgyman — Where do you suppose you will go when you die?

Actor—Where I won't have to play one night stands.

Quite Likely.

"That boy who began a list of the necessities of life with 'prunes' must have been the son of a boarding house keeper."

Placidity.

"Do you think that vegetariansism conduces to a more placid condition of mind?"

"Yes. It prevents worry about meat bills."

Opposite.

He—Some women are awfully hard to please.

She—And some men are too awfully soft to please me.

The Limit.

"How industriously that man works!"

"Yes; he must be too lazy to quit."

Just a Freak of Language.

"They gave me a raw deal."

"I presume they had it all cooked up for you."

OVERDID IT.

He celebrated Halloween
With such a zest,
Police court records must, I ween,
Portray the rest.

Often So.

He—Marriage is a pottery.

She—You mean a lottery, don't you?

He—No, I mean a pottery—a place for making family jars.

On His Trail.

Platt — Blank's wife must be fearfully devoted to him. She follows him around like a dog.

Sharp—Yes, unfortunately—like a watchdog.

After the Initiation.

"They tell me they used you for a dormat."

"Well, I was glad they didn't use me for a meat block."

A Margin.

"Mrs. Brown is looking younger than she did five years ago."

"Well, she had plenty of room for improvement in that direction."

The Limit.

"Do you make plain cake, Della?"

"Yes, I make it that plain that you couldn't tell it from bread."

A Hint to Go.

Ethel — I can think when I am walking.

Else—You ought to do more walking.

Well Managed.

Belt—is she a good manager?

Beniah—Yes. Haven't you ever noticed how quiet her husband is?

THE BURNT CHILD.

Smith: "Dickens thinks it is bad luck to meddle with the supernatural."
Brown: "You can't blame him. It was at a Halloween party that he first met the present Mrs. Dickens."

TIMES ARE CHANGED.

"How's this?" said the farmer who was reading a letter from his son at college. "Come here, Betsey. Harold Howard Augustus writes home that he wants money to pay his fencing bill. What on airth does the boy mean?"

"I s'pose it's the college pasture or something, Matthew. There's so many pernicketty things the poor boys at college have to do."

"Ho, he! It's lessons in fencing he wants to pay for. Waal, now, that do beat all. I've been fencing for forty year, and I never had to go to college to learn how."

"But times air changed, Matthew. Fences ain't made as they was when we climbed them in Root hollow."

"I expect that's so," said the old man thoughtfully. "He don't say whether it's a rail fence or a wire one, but I reckon he'll learn both ways. But I never thought a boy of mine would have to go to college to learn fencing. Times are changed."

IN HIS LINE.

The baker had a happy home, But things were going slow. Of course he had enough to eat, But he was kneading dough.

TWISTED HISTORY.

Sunday School Teacher: "And, now, Johnny Haggood, it's your turn. What did his father do when the prodigal son returned?"

Johnny (who can't help reading the sporting editions of the daily press): "Please, sir, he jumped on his neck and kissed him."

KEPT HIM GUESSING.

Mr. Mouse—Well, I wonder what sort of a newfangled rat trap that is. I've been all over the thing, and I can't find a bit of cheese.

WHEN THE ICE CRACKED.

"Gosh! I wish I hadn't eaten that last ten of hay."

A TROPICAL BUNKO

Native: "I'll fix that snake all right." (Whack.)

I—!—!—!—!

Satisfied Tiger: "It's a great scheme I work these days—if my tail will only stand the strain."

AN IDEAL SHATTERED.

Professor Stickler (of Boston): "Ah, Miss Slinger, what a huge pumpkin we have for our Halloween observances!"

Miss Slinger (from Oshkosh): "Why, yes, professor. It is some pumpkins!"

BOUND TO BE COMFORTABLE.

A Philadelphia man went to Maine on his vacation, and he found the nights very cold and bedclothes scarce.

"Are these all the bedclothes you give?" he inquired of the chambermaid.

"This is all that goes with one room," she replied.

"Then give me a couple of rooms," said he.

Exonerated the Crowd.

"Somebody's got my pocketbook!" cried a shrill, agonized voice in the crowded street car and a hump shouldered, watery eyed man with a saddle-colored beard on his chin jumped up and began convulsively clapping his hands on his various pockets.

"Sit down, you fool!" exclaimed the partly vaudeville matron by his side, assisting him by a vigorous pull on his coat-tail. "I've got it. I know you'd lose it if I didn't take it. You'd lose your head if it wasn't fastened on your shoulders."

Quickly he sat down.

Bald in his head presently, he gave a comprehensive glance around the car and said in the same shrill voice: "I beg everybody's pardon."

For which voluntary acknowledgment that he no longer resembled everybody in the car a policeman who was rewarded by the glassy and unamiable stare.

FOREVER TOO LATE.

"How much did your baby weigh?"

"Oh, dear! Do you know, I'm so provoked. They forgot all about weighing the dear little thing until it was nearly two hours old, so we'll never know."

A PROVIDER.

"Is your new husband much of a provider, Malindy?"

"He does ain't nothin' else, he ain't." He gave to all some new kyanhips for de house, providin' he eit de money; he gwine to eit de money, providin' he go to work; he go to work, providin' hit suits him. I never see such a providin' man in all my days."

ON BOARD SHIP.

Chauffeur Jones—Gee! What force wasn't huntin' for you. I was after that!

A CRAWL.

The Huntsman—Honest, Mr. Bird; I wasn't huntin' for you. I was after butterflies.

ANOTHER GUESS COMING

Mr. Fatwuz: "Guess I'll get weighed."

The Machine: "No, you don't!"

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.			WESTERN DIV.
To	From	Time	To	From	Time
Low.	Bos.	6:40	Low.	Bos.	6:40
6:45	6:50	6:55	6:45	6:50	6:55
6:50	6:55	7:00	6:50	6:55	7:00
6:55	7:00	7:05	6:55	7:00	7:05
7:00	7:05	7:10	7:00	7:05	7:10
7:05	7:10	7:15	7:05	7:10	7:15
7:10	7:15	7:20	7:10	7:15	7:20
7:15	7:20	7:25	7:15	7:20	7:25
7:20	7:25	7:25	7:20	7:25	7:25
7:25	7:30	7:30	7:25	7:30	7:30
7:30	7:35	7:35	7:30	7:35	7:35
7:35	7:40	7:40	7:35	7:40	7:40
7:40	7:45	7:45	7:40	7:45	7:45
7:45	7:50	7:50	7:45	7:50	7:50
7:50	7:55	7:55	7:50	7:55	7:55
7:55	8:00	8:00	7:55	8:00	8:00
8:00	8:05	8:05	8:00	8:05	8:05
8:05	8:10	8:10	8:05	8:10	8:10
8:10	8:15	8:15	8:10	8:15	8:15
8:15	8:20	8:20	8:15	8:20	8:20
8:20	8:25	8:25	8:20	8:25	8:25
8:25	8:30	8:30	8:25	8:30	8:30
8:30	8:35	8:35	8:30	8:35	8:35
8:35	8:40	8:40	8:35	8:40	8:40
8:40	8:45	8:45	8:40	8:45	8:45
8:45	8:50	8:50	8:45	8:50	8:50
8:50	8:55	8:55	8:50	8:55	8:55
8:55	9:00	9:00	8:55	9:00	9:00
9:00	9:05	9:05	9:00	9:05	9:05
9:05	9:10	9:10	9:05	9:10	9:10
9:10	9:15	9:15	9:10	9:15	9:15
9:15	9:20	9:20	9:15	9:20	9:20
9:20	9:25	9:25	9:20	9:25	9:25
9:25	9:30	9:30	9:25	9:30	9:30
9:30	9:35	9:35	9:30	9:35	9:35
9:35	9:40	9:40	9:35	9:40	9:40
9:40	9:45	9:45	9:40	9:45	9:45
9:45	9:50	9:50	9:45	9:50	9:50
9:50	9:55	9:55	9:50	9:55	9:55
9:55	10:00	10:00	9:55	10:00	10:00
10:00	10:05	10:05	10:00	10:05	10:05
10:05	10:10	10:10	10:05	10:10	10:10
10:10	10:15	10:15	10:10	10:15	10:15
10:15	10:20	10:20	10:15	10:20	10:20
10:20	10:25	10:25	10:20	10:25	10:25
10:25	10:30	10:30	10:25	10:30	10:30
10:30	10:35	10:35	10:30	10:35	10:35
10:35	10:40	10:40	10:35	10:40	10:40
10:40	10:45	10:45	10:40	10:45	10:45
10:45	10:50	10:50	10:45	10:50	10:50
10:50	10:55	10:55	10:50	10:55	10:55
10:55	11:00	11:00	10:55	11:00	11:00
11:00	11:05	11:05	11:00	11:05	11:05
11:05	11:10	11:10	11:05	11:10	11:10
11:10	11:15	11:15	11:10	11:15	11:15
11:15	11:20	11:20	11:15	11:20	11:20
11:20	11:25	11:25	11:20	11:25	11:25
11:25	11:30	11:30	11:25	11:30	11:30
11:30	11:35	11:35	11:30	11:35	11:35
11:35	11:40	11:40	11:35	11:40	11:40
11:40	11:45	11:45	11:40	11:45	11:45
11:45	11:50	11:50	11:45	11:50	11:50
11:50	11:55	11:55	11:50	11:55	11:55
11:55	12:00	12:00	11:55	12:00	12:00

SPEAKER CANNON

Exonerated by Republican Colleagues

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The Tribune this morning says in a news article: "The republican members of the House committee on Judiciary in the 59th congress have exonerated Speaker Cannon from all blame in connection with the defeat of the Littlefield liquor bill. This was the measure which prohibited the shipment of liquor into the prohibition districts. It was killed by the judiciary committee on the ground that should it pass the courts would hold it unconstitutional. Because of the defeat of this measure and the speaker's alleged connection with it he has been fought bitterly by the temperance forces, especially the W. C. T. U. The exoneration of the speaker by the members of the committee was given in reply to a query made by the Central Christian Advocate published at Kansas City. Congressman Littlefield, author of the bill, previously had declared the speaker had nothing to do with its defeat. The Central Christian Advocate wired six republicans of the committee to ask if Littlefield's statement was true. "The six members addressed as well as four republican members who did not receive any message immediately replied, supporting the Littlefield statement in full and declaring Cannon had nothing whatever to do with the fate of the bill." The Tribune article adds that the Central Christian Advocate has not printed the replies from the congressmen.

BALLOON RACE

TO BE HELD ACROSS THE CONTINENT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 29.—Captain Mueller and Captain Horace Wild who are to sail the two big balloons, the "United States" and "America" in the race across the continent which is being arranged in Los Angeles, are preparing to make the first flights Sunday in this city. Both aviators are enthusiastic over the prospects of the flight. Captain Mueller believes there is an upper current sweeping in down the coast which will take the balloons into San Diego county, thence toward the Gulf of Mexico and then up the Mississippi valley and northeastward. Captain Wild believes, however, that the balloons will cross the first range of mountains and then sweep up the Salt Lake basin and then northeasterly into Canada.

BRYAN AND TAFT

To Speak in Syracuse Tonight

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The two principal candidates for president following a busy day of campaigning upstate will reach Syracuse tonight where both are scheduled to speak. Mr. Taft began the day's tour with a speech at Lyons, then traveled eastward, his itinerary calling for stops at Canandaigua, Geneva, Seneca Falls and Auburn. Mr. Bryan's last day of campaigning in New York state carried him westward, and included speeches at Cohoes, Albany, Utica and Rome. Ex-Judge Alton Parker expects to speak with Mr. Bryan at the Syracuse meeting. The running mates of Taft and Bryan continued their campaign work today in their home states. Mr. Sherman speaks at Albany while Mr. Kern's itinerary called for addresses at several meetings in Indiana. "Three cabinet members will address voters in as many states tonight. Secretary Cortelyou will speak in New York; Secretary Root in Toledo and Postmaster General Meyer in Maryland. Gov. Hughes and Lieut. Gov. Chandler continued their gubernatorial campaign upstate. E. S. Chalmers and Watkins, the prohibition candidates are in Ohio today; Tom L. Higon, presidential candidate of the independence party is in New Jersey, and Eugene Debs, the socialist presidential candidate, is traveling in his "red special" through Illinois.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—The annual meetings of the Baptist Sunday School association today concluded the series of anniversaries which have been held in the North Avenue Baptist church here during the past three days. The day's program was a varied one, embracing the annual reports and election of officers; the address of the president, Stephen Morse; devotional and other prayer services; discussions and a number of addresses dealing with the work of the association. Among these later were papers by Rev. W. Weeks of Springfield; S. D. Gordon of Madison, N. J.; and W. C. King of Springfield. Annual reports were delivered by Secretary W. W. Mann, Treasurer Bosson, and Financial Secretary Ray.

ON HOLLOWE'EN

LITTLETON

Rev. Paul G. Fayer was ordained and installed at the Littleton Congregational church yesterday. The program was as follows: Organ prelude, Fannie Adams Sander, organist; invocation, Rev. George M. Howe, Groton; reading of the minutes of the council, Scribner; reading of the scriptures, Rev. Chester Arthur Drummond, Littleton; soprano solo, Miss Florence B. Bartlett; ordaining and installing prayer, Rev. George Edward Martin, D. D., Lowell; sermon, Rev. John Winthrop Plafner, D. D., Cambridge; hymn "The Church's One Foundation"; charge to minister, Rev. Wm. J. Batt, D. D., Concord; charge to the people, Rev. James Church Alvord, Boston; right hand of fellowship, Rev. George T. Tewksbury, Concord; welcome to the town, Rev. Robert H. Carey; closing prayer, Rev. Allen A. Branson, Shirley; benediction by the minister. The church was well filled at the service. The members of the council were: Ayer, Rev. L. E. Perry, Augustus Lovejoy, Groton; Rev. G. M. Howe, H. H. Gay, Westford; C. P. Marshall, H. H. Wheeler, Boxboro; M. E. Wood, South Acton; Rev. M. I. Butler, A. Merrill, Harvard; A. A. Pollard, Rostons; Rev. A. J. Coville, Concord; Rev. G. A. Tewksbury, Leominster; Rev. W. B. Tutin; Kirk street, Lowell; Rev. G. E. Martin, S. H. Thompson. Come and hear the Bachelors sing at the Mathew hall, Oct. 30.

WOMEN CHAINED STATE ELECTION

In the British House of Commons Supervisors for Lowell Were Named

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The monotonous proceedings in the house of commons, which was considering the licensing bill, were startlingly diversified last night by a suffragette speaking from the ladies' gallery. She shrilly demanded that the women of England be allowed to vote and thrust through the grille a placard on which the precise demands of the suffragettes were emblazoned. Mr. Remant, who was speaking on the licensing bill, attempted to continue his oratory, but the cries continued from the gallery. The members were further confounded by a man throwing down a bundle of papers, at the same time crying, "I am a man, and I protest against injustice to women." The ejection of the disturber was followed by sounds of a desperate struggle in the gallery, when it was discovered that two suffragettes had chained themselves to the grille. They continued to cry: "We demand votes for women." While the members watched the proceedings with great interest. Eventually the attendants, who were unable to release the women from their self fastened chains, were obliged to remove a portion of the grille and tie the chains before they could eject the suffragettes, who were Muriel Matters and Helen Fox. Gov. Guild sent to the council yesterday the names of the following citizens of Lowell to be supervisors of the state election in this city: Republicans—Charles C. Wallace, Chas. W. Cullum, J. A. Neild, William Hudson, George Campbell and Fred Roper. Democrats—James E. Day, Cornelius F. Donahoe, William Daly, Patrick J. Flannery, James J. Hagan and Charles D. Slattery.

Academy of Music

ALL WEEK
DESHON-PITT STOCK CO.
In the Romantic Drama
"By Right of Sword" Magnificent Costumes
A Superb Production
Tuesday Matinee, Souvenirs
Friday Matinee, Reception on Stage
Friday Night, Amateurs

C. F. KEYES, Auctioneer

Office, Old Boston & Maine Depot. Storehouse and Commission Rooms, Green Street. Tel. 1485.
ASSIGNEES' SALE BY PUBLIC AUCTION ON FRIDAY, OCT. 30, 1908, AT 10 O'CLOCK IN THE FORENOON, AT THE STORE FORMERLY CONDUCTED BY A. N. HARMON, AT 262 MERRIMACK STREET.
Consisting of the entire stock-in-trade and fixtures, formerly owned by said A. N. Harmon, and consisting of pictures (framed and unframed), mirrors, mouldings, picture frames and picture post cards, roll top desk, show cases, etc. Terms: Cash.
By order, CALER SAUNDERS, THOS. J. ENRIGHT, Assignees of A. N. Harmon.
C. F. Keyes, Auctioneer.

HOWE ESTATE AT 208 AND 210 HIGH STREET TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1908, AT 3 P. M., CONSISTING OF A TWO-STORY HOUSE OF THREE TENEMENTS AND ABOUT 4700 SQUARE FEET OF LAND.

On the premises, regardless of any condition of the weather, the heirs will offer for sale this very valuable parcel of real estate. The building, which consists of three tenements, rents for about $350 a year. This is a very small half of the land, thus giving the purchaser the opportunity of improving the property and doubling the rental. The location is one of the best in Belvidere. It adjoins the city property on one side, is very near to schools, churches, and a bus short distance to many of the large industries in this section of the city. Now, then, for a sound investment project, no one could be wiser advised than to gain possession of this property; it is so centrally located. The fact that there is so much room for improvement and its present income will take care of it in nice shape until the purchaser would be ready to make further improvements, and if it were not for the settlement of the estate, such an opportunity would not be on the market. Look this parcel up, and make all inquiries of the auctioneer, whom the heirs have left in full charge.
$400 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

MRS. C. W. MORSE FINED $25 EACH

Who Aids Husband in Bank Trial But Suffragettes Refused to Pay

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Charles W. Morse, wife of the former ice king and noted banker, remained at his side during his trial in the federal court in LONDON, Oct. 29.—All the suffragettes with the exception of two who were arrested last night during the disorders in and around the house of commons, were this morning arraigned in court and fined $25 each. They were sentenced each to one month's imprisonment on refusing to pay. Of the two exceptions one was a girl under twenty years of age and the other a woman who secured an adjournment to lodge a charge of assault against the constable who arrested her.

Friday, Hollowe'en eve. "Chestnuts," Nat. Club.

35 INJUNCTIONS

Issued Against Striking Papermakers

RUMFORD, Me., Oct. 29.—In all there had been issued today 35 injunctions on the petition of the International Paper company to restrain the strikers from all acts of violence and interference with the company's mill. The strikers were enjoined to keep away from the mill and it was hoped that this would serve to do away with the union pickets.
Hear Martin Maguire sing at the Bachelors', Mathew hall, Oct. 30.

FEDERAL SHOE SHOP

TO CLOSE FOR A WEEK OF STOCK TAKING NEXT MONDAY
The employees of the Federal Shoe company are congratulating themselves on the prospect of a well earned respite that was denied them during the summer owing to the rush of business. The fact is, the management having decided to take an inventory of the stock on hand, feels obliged to shut down the extensive plant on Dix street during the coming week, beginning Monday morning.
The year just closed has been a most successful and busy one at the Federal, inasmuch as orders have been coming in daily, necessitating from time to time numerous improvements, additional machinery, and a large increase of both skilled and unskilled labor, while the majority of shoe manufacturing concerns throughout New England complained of dull business. At the Federal shoe shop the shipments during the past year show an output wholly unprecedented in the history of the shoe industry in Lowell, and it must naturally be a source of gratification to this company to feel that its efforts to make Lowell a centre for this industry have been entirely successful.
Mr. D. E. Kingsbury, the energetic president of the Federal, is well known among the shoe centres throughout the country as a salesman of ability and keen judgment, consequently when he says that the rush of business during the coming year will exceed that of the year just ended, and the efficient and hustling superintendent, Mr. D. W. Shannon, confirms the promise, it is safe to assume that there will be something doing at the factory on Dix street as soon as it resumes operations after stock-taking.
NORTH BILLERICA
A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society was held in the society hall Tuesday night, there being a large attendance of members. Plans for the observance of the 21st anniversary of the organization were discussed at considerable length.
The committee in charge of the event was given full power to make all arrangements. The ways and means committee was named with the following members: Charles E. Crowley, Edmund Costello, Thomas F. Sheridan, Neil R. Mahoney, Fred Gannon, William Costello, Timothy J. McCarthy, John J. Mahoney, Owen O'Toole, Thomas Twomey, Edward R. Costello, Dennis J. Mahoney, John Hughes, John S. Welsh, Martin Conway, Edward Riley, James H. Higgins, Curran Delahanty, James Bradley and James J. Campbell. At the conclusion of the session J. P. Tiche, O. M. L. spiritual director of the organization.
Kittredge will furnish music at the Bachelors' show and dance, Oct. 30.

Hathaway's Theatre

Week Oct. 26 Every Evening 8:30
The Novelty of the Season.
THE DEVIL AND TOM WALKER
SYDNEY DEAN & CO.
"Christmas on Blackwell's Island"
MR. AND MRS. DARROW
WARD AND EDWARDS
BRANDON and WILSON
HATHASCOPE
SCOTT and WILSON
THE KYASKAS
Ladies' Orchestra Seats, Mat. 10c.
Planos from M. Steinert Co.

Foot Ball

LOWELL HIGH VS. RINDGE MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL
AT SPALDING PARK
Friday, Oct. 30, at 3 O'Clock.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today
"THE FISHERMAN'S RIVAL"
Ten Cents, That's All.

Don't Forget The Orient's Dance
THURSDAY, OCT. 29.
Prescott Hall Kittredge's Orchestra

STAR THEATRE

MERRIMACK ST.
OPPOSITE CITY HALL
Talking Pictures
CONTINUOUS 25 and 30c SEATS 5c

JOHN M. FARRELL, Auctioneer

Office, 167 Market Street—Tel. 2258-5—Lowell, Mass.
Mortgagee Sale of Personal Property
SATURDAY, OCT. 31, 1908, at 2.30 P. M.

On the Ferris place, Hanson street, Braunt Navy Yard. By power of said mortgagee I will sell at public auction, 6 young cows that are good milkers or springers. Lot good hay, 2 pigs, 50 this year's hatched pullets, 2 large geese, lot of small farming tools, farm wagon, market wagon, etc.
Per Order, HENRY WHEELER, Mortgagee.

C. H. HANSON &amp; Co., Inc., Auctioneers

Office, Lowell, Mass.
AUCTION SALE
Of two and one-half story house with two-story ell and 5000 feet of land
Saturday, Oct. 31, at 4 O'Clock P. M.

House has eight finished rooms and large unfinished attic situated on state highway between Lowell and Tewksbury Centre, eight minutes' ride from Merrimack square. Five minutes' walk from Wamecet station, two minutes' walk from Warrenville mills. Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms at sale.
Per order, W. O. WING.

Maker &amp; McCurdy

CORSET SHOP

THE W. B. Reduso CORSETS

$3.00 and $5.00

Bodily discomfort has for so long been an accompaniment of the attempt to make the figure of generous proportions conform with the modes of the day that a corset which arrives at the desired end but with absolutely perfect comfort, is indeed a rare "find."

The W. B. "REDUSO" Corset accomplishes its intended object by the simplest of means. Yet it is light in weight and devoid of all those mechanical devices hitherto considered necessary to "reduce" the figure.

The "REDUSO" imparts the requisite support, poises the body gracefully and straightens the hips.

LADIES' SILK LISLE HOSE, 25c a Pair

